Proposal – one sentence summary:

Life and work of CS Lewis

Proposed subject code(s) (indicate both if cross-listing): LBST

Proposed course # or level: 250

Proposed course title: CS Lewis Life and Work

Proposed course catalog copy:

This course will examine the life, ideas and some of the works of the writer, CS Lewis. Students will explore what it means to be both a creative writer and a non-fiction writer within the context of Lewis' faith and his academic career.

Prerequisites/co-requisites and/or recommended prior courses, as listed in catalog copy:

None

How will the proposed revision affect any catalog lists of options for majors or minors?

No effect

Rationale for course within departmental and collegiate context and based on assessment results:

The course fits within art in that Lewis was not only a creative individual but he commented upon what that meant both culturally and theologically. It fits within the collegiate context with its emphasis on a broadly creative life. Lewis was both philosopher, Christian apologist, fiction writer for both adults and children, and scholar of Medieval languages.
