[The rest of the catalog copy will remain unchanged.]

Rationale within departmental and collegiate context and based on assessment results:

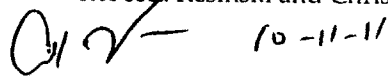

ENGL 270 is being removed from the catalog, so it makes sense to remove it from this list. ENGL 3XX is a new course proposed by Professor Jaudon, and its topic makes it appropriate to include. HIST 307 is a new course proposed by Professor Sprunger, and its topic also makes it appropriate to include. HIST 140 and 150 are existing courses taught by Professor Skok, and the substantial focus on gender in those courses makes them fitting options for the Gender Studies minor.

Proposers are welcome to attach additional documentation for more complex proposals, such as the addition of a major or minor.
