I6	· making connections among different bodies of knowledge	X	X
I7	· communicating their findings effectively and persuasively through written, oral, experiential, visual, or other appropriate methods
I8	· reflecting on their studies and being prepared to engage with the world based on their inquiry and deliberation
Hendrix College students actively and reflectively engage with multiple communities by:
MC1	· understanding the past, present, and future needs of the earth and of humanity, and of the challenges of our interdependence
MC2	· considering ethical conundrums from conflicting perspectives		X
MC3	· bringing their experiences in the wider community back to the classroom to enhance their course of study
The Hendrix College community supports these goals by:
C1	· fostering an awareness of different cultures through a commitment to diversity and inclusion
C2	· providing opportunities for students to confront the diverse challenges and needs of our shared communities in order to inspire them to lead lives of service
The college community provides opportunities for students to develop as whole persons in their personal and professional lives by:
WP1	· guiding students in examining their abilities and strengths
WP2	· helping them recognize how their skills can work for them and for the good of others, both now and in the future
WP3	· providing tools and opportunities to prepare our students for their prospective professional lives
WP4	· striving to inspire students to lead lives of accomplishment as both leaders and team members
WP5	· encouraging their development into individuals who are independent, responsible, and attentive to their own mental and physical well-being
WP6	· nurturing their life-long love of learning, both about themselves and about the world as curious, creative, and active participants in life and in their communities.	X
