SCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of January 19 – January 25

CHELSEA GOODMAN OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a junior guard from Harrodsburg, Ky., has been named SCAC Basketball Player-of-the-Week for games played Monday, January 19th through Sunday, January 25th.

Goodman averaged 22.5 points, 7 rebounds, 4.5 steals and 4 assists helping the Centre women’s basketball team go 2-0 in SCAC play this past week.

In Centre’s 56-42 win over Hendrix Goodman scored a game-high 18 points and pulled down a game-high 9 rebounds, while also recording 5 steals.

Two days later in a 80-57 win over Millsaps, Goodman scored a game-high 27 points while also recording 5 rebounds, 6 assists and 4 steals. For the weekend Goodman was 17 for 30 (56.65%) from the field and 6 of 11 (54.5%) from behind the three-point arc.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior guard Melanie Auguste of Colorado College averaged 22.5 points 10 rebounds and eight assists as the Tigers went 2-0 in SCAC play over the weekend. Freshman guard Ali Marzella of Trinity averaged 21 points on 56% shooting from the field as the Tigers picked up two wins including an upset over 5th ranked Oglethorpe. Sophomore guard Lauren Goff of DePauw came off the bench and averaged 14 points while playing an average of just 19.5 minutes per contest. DePauw extended its winning streak to 12 straight games. Junior forward Chelsey White of Hendrix scored a team-high 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field against DePauw University on Sunday afternoon. Senior forward Natasha Azizi of Southwestern averaged 15 points over the weekend and lead the Pirates in scoring. Junior forward Katy Williams of Austin College passed 1000 points for her career and averaged 15.5 points, 13.0 rebounds and 3.0 assists as the ‘Roos split their weekend games with BSC and Rhodes. Freshman center Janice Okeke of Millsaps averaged 10.5 points and 11.5 rebounds-per-game over the weekend, in addition to seven steals and five blocks. The frosh was one board shy of a double-double on Friday and hit the mark with 12 points and 13 rebounds on Sunday plus a career-high four blocks. On the year, Okeke has a team-high six double-doubles. Oglethorpe, Rhodes and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for the award this week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Milliasps (9-9, 4-5 SCAC) dropped below .500 in league play for the first time all season after two lopsided home losses to DePauw, 85-51, and Centre, 80-57. The Majors haven’t been the same after squandering a 19-point second half lead against Colorado College, dropping three consecutive SCAC games by an average of 32.0 points. Milliasps shot a season-worst 8.7 percent in the first half against DePauw that allowed them to enjoy a 15-point halftime lead and never rebounded. Against Centre, Milliasps had three scorers in double figures and got to the charity stripe 32 times to the Colonels’ 11 but the game was already well out of reach by halftime. Chelsea Goodman scored 20 of her season-high 27 in the opening 20 minutes to allow Centre to cruise to its 12th win of the year. The Majors will play their next four games on the road, beginning with SCAC-provisional member Birmingham-Southern at 8 p.m. on Jan. 30.

#5 Oglethorpe split two contests in Texas this past weekend, defeating Southwestern and failing to Trinity. In Friday’s 63-47 triumph over the Pirates, the Petrels relied on stout defense to earn the win, holding Southwestern to a paltry 34% shooting night and forcing 32 Pirate turnovers. Anna Findley and Chelsea MacDonald led four Petrels in double-figures with 14 points apiece. Biz Richmann posted a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds and Katie Kulavic added 12 points, 9 rebounds and 5 assists on the night. The win was the Petrels 12th consecutive on the season to match the school’s all-time mark for consecutive victories. In Sunday’s streak-breaking 85-72 loss to Trinity, Oglethorpe was haunted by a miserable shooting performance. The Petrels missed (57) nearly as many shots as the Tigers took (60) on the entire afternoon. Oglethorpe was led by double-digit performances from seniors Katie Kulavic, Anna Findley, Biz Richmann and Tina Grace but each missed at least 10 shots in the contest, demonstrating the Petrels struggles to shoot the ball on Sunday afternoon. Kulavic posted 17 points and 8 rebounds and Biz Richmann recorded 14 points and 12 boards on the afternoon. Findley also netted 17 points but managed to only hit 3 of 16 shots from the field including only 1 of 10 from long distance. For the game, Oglethorpe only connected on 2 of 20 from beyond 3-point range. Senior Tina Grace led all scorers for the Petrels in the loss with 18 points, 6 rebounds and three assists. With the loss, the Petrels are now 16-2 (7-1) on the season and will return home to face Colorado College on Friday night at 8:00 p.m. The game features an intriguing match-up of former Oglethorpe women’s assistant basketball coach Liz Campbell facing off with Petrel head coach Ron Sattele.

Rhodes dropped two close road decisions this past weekend. In Colorado Springs, the Lynx fell to Colorado College 64-63 as Melanie Auguste hit two free throws with eight tenths of a second to play for the win. The Lynx took the lead with 5 seconds to play, before Auguste went the length of the floor and drew the non shooting foul. In Sherman, TX the Lynx squandered a 14 point second half lead, falling 62-59 to the Kangaroos. Freshman center Jenille Pate was called for a charging foul on an attempted layup with 3.8 seconds to play in a 60-59 game. Rhodes falls to 10-8 overall and 3-5 in SCAC play.

Southwestern dropped went 1-1 this week in conference action. Friday night, Oglethorpe needed a late second half run to pull away from the Pirates. Southwestern lost 63-47 and was led by senior forward Natasha Azzi who scored 15 points in just 25 minutes of play. The Pirates downed Sewanee on Saturday to record their first conference win of the year. Azzi led the Pirates to a 43-31 victory by scoring 15 points. Sophomore center Staley Mullins had 3 blocks on the night to move her to 47 on the season, just 8 shy of 10th on the single season blocked shot leader board.

Trinity Trinity’s women’s basketball team earned a weekend sweep in SCAC play, highlighted by a win over fifth-ranked Oglethorpe University on Sunday afternoon. The Tigers opened the weekend with a lopsided 76-46 win over Sewanee, led by Ali Marzella’s 19 points and five assists. Abby Dietert chipped in with 15 points and five boards, and Krista Prato Matthews earned her 15th double-double in 16 games this season. Prato Matthews had 10 points and 15 boards to go with four assists. On Sunday, Trinity opened the game against nationally-ranked Oglethorpe with eight straight points and ended up leading the entire game. Marzella, a first-year player, tied her season-high with 23 points on 7-11 shooting. Prato Matthews came on strong in the second half to finish with 17 points and 13 boards and another double-double. All five Trinity starters scored in double figures, including 15 points from Dietert – who set a new season-high with 12 rebounds and collected her first career double-double. Prato Matthews is now just one point away from 1,300 in her career and could move up as high as third on Trinity’s all-time scoring list. She is already fewer than 40 rebounds from breaking Trinity’s career record, which was set by Trinity Hall of Famer Terri Hailey from 1977-81. Additionally, Prato Matthews became the second player in SCAC history to record 200 or more blocks, collecting six on Sunday to push her past the milestone. Trinity travels to DePauw and Centre next weekend to continue its schedule against teams in the SCAC East Division. The Tigers lead the West Division with a 7-1 record. The Tigers defeated Centre 78-44 at home last season, with Danielle Hubenak narrowly missing a triple-double. She finished with nine points, eight rebounds, and seven assists, despite playing just 21 minutes. Trinity led DePauw at halftime of last year’s meeting, but couldn’t hang on as DePauw earned a 68-51 victory. Trinity has lost its last three regular season meetings against DePauw and has also not won on the road against DePauw since the 2002-03 season. In fact, that win was Trinity’s only SCAC win at DePauw.
