SCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Games of March 23 – March 29

SARA BOWEN OF RHODES COLLEGE, a sophomore outfielder from Nolensville, Tenn., has been selected the SCAC Softball Offensive Player-of-the-Week for games played from Monday, March 23 through Sunday, March 29.

Bowen hit .733 (11 for 15) with an .850 on base percentage (17 for 20), with 10 RBI, 4 doubles, 2 home runs, 4 walks and 11 runs scored. In Saturday’s doubleheader sweep of Sewanee, Bowen was a perfect 6 for 6 with 3 doubles, 2 home runs and 7 RBI.

Bowen also picked up a pair of wins in the circle, tossing a perfect game against Sewanee on Saturday in the Lynx 5-inning win, and tossing a 2-hit shutout with 12 strikeouts on Sunday.

Other outstanding individual performances in the SCAC:
- Senior shortstop Jamie Williams of Trinity hit .556 over the past week, leading the Trinity Tigers to a 3-1 series win on the road against Colorado College. Williams had 10 hits in 18 at-bats, scoring seven runs and collecting seven RBIs in the four games. She hit three doubles and two home runs, totaling 19 bases and posting an impressive 1.056 slugging percentage for the series. Senior catcher Rachel Gill of DePauw hit 9-for-20 over the week scoring five runs and posting a 547 on-base percentage. Gill also became the league’s All-Time leader in hits for a career over the weekend currently standing at 184 all time. Senior infielder Erica Douglas of Millsaps helped the Majors to a four-game sweep of Centre this past weekend, both with her bat and in the field, hitting .444 (4-for-9) from the plate with seven runs, seven RBIs and a pair of triples. She also carried a .869 slugging percentage and .571 on-base percentage, drawing a team-high four walks on the weekend. In the field, Douglas was perfect in 21 chances, notching 12 assists and nine putouts.

SCAC PITCHER OF THE WEEK

BRITTANY LOSEY OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, a freshman right-hander from Schertz, Texas, has been selected the SCAC Softball Pitcher-of-the-Week for games played from Monday, March 22 through Sunday, March 29.

Losey earned the win in all three of Trinity’s victories over the past week, posting a 3-0 record and an ERA of 3.32 in four appearances.

Losey finished with 12.2 innings pitched for the weekend, giving up six earned runs on eight hits and striking out four batters. Opponents hit just .190 against her this weekend, and she earned the complete-game victory in her only start last weekend.

Losey earned the first win of the weekend with 3.2 innings of relief, then opened the second day with a five-inning complete-game victory. In the series finale, Losey again came out of the bullpen to finish off another win.

Other outstanding individual performances in the SCAC:
- Senior right-hander Katie Thibodeaux of Millsaps went 2-0 with a 1.27 ERA in 11.0 innings of work. The junior tossed her ninth and 10th complete games of the season, scattering 13 hits, four strikeouts and four runs (two earned), while holding opponents to a .277 batting average. Freshman right-hander Kasey Harrison of Austin College worked a complete game and scattered eight hits in helping to hand BSC only their third loss of the season in a 4-3 win for the Roos. Harrison struck out four batters in the game. Freshman right-hander Liz Vaughan of Hendrix tossed three complete games for a 2-1 record and 2.00 ERA. She gave up just four earned runs after 18.0 innings, 22 hits, two doubles and two strikeouts. Freshman right-hander Chelsea Peters of Rhodes went 2-0 on the week, 8 innings pitched, no earned runs, 6 hits and 17 strikeouts, with wins over LeMoyne-Owen and Sewanee. Freshman pitcher Katlyn Pavlicek of Southwestern was 2-0 this week and came in relief in the second inning of the final game of the series to hold Hendrix scoreless to give Southwestern a shot at the sweep. On the weekend, Pavlicek allowed 19 hits (6.33 per game), 6 runs (2 per game), with eight strike outs, and just four walks. Centre, Colorado College, DePauw and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College split with Birmingham-Southern and in doing so managed to do what only one other team has done all year in topping the Panthers 4-3 in the second game of their double-dip. The ‘Roos narrowly lost 5-2 in the first game, and improve to 9-15 overall on the year, while BSC falls to 21-3. In the big game two win, the ‘Roos jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first behind consecutive doubles from Suzanne Beltran and Stefanie Faith. BSC answered back with a pair of runs in the bottom half of the inning, but Bobbi Schullie’s RBI triple in the top of the fifth proved to be the difference as the ‘Roos held on for the one run victory. Faith finished 1-for-3 with a pair of runs batted in as the ‘Roos won despite getting just four hits on the day, and Keli Harrison picked up her third victory of the year on the mound. Harrison tossed a complete game, scattering eight hits and surrendering three runs while striking out four. In the first game the ‘Roos and Panthers were deadlocked at 1-1 heading into the fifth inning, but a four run fifth by BSC put the Panthers ahead for good. Kali Gossett singled to plate Whitney Bodine in the top of the seventh to make it a 5-2 final. Ashley Johnson worked 6.0 innings to take the loss, giving up five runs on eight hits while striking out a pair of batters. Carolyn Stone went 1-3 for an RBI and Gossett finished 1-for-4 with an RBI and a stolen base in defeat.

Birmingham-Southern was 5-1 this week, winning two on the road against Spring Hill, Tuesday, and going 3-1 at home against Austin College this past weekend. The Panthers took the first three in the series against Austin before the ‘Roos were able to get a 4-3 win in game four. In the first game against AC, senior Kayla Backlund hit a walk-off grand slam in the bottom of the sixth to push the lead to 9-1 to end the game early. BSC won the next two games by scores of 5-1 and 5-2. Freshman Ashley Bice led the team this week, hitting .588 with 10 hits, including three triples. Backlund led with 12 RBI and a 1.111 slugging percentage, and senior Melissa Muehlenfeld stayed perfect on the bases, going 5-5 this week, and is now 20-20 on the season. In the circle, Muehlenfeld was 2-1 and each of the Panthers’ other three pitchers (freshmen Ronni Ferris and Beth Leffler and junior Tori Harris) were all 1-0. Harris and Muehlenfeld also recorded a save apiece.

Centre continued to struggle in SCAC conference play dropping all four games on the road at Millsaps this past weekend. The Colonels traveled down to Millsaps at the tail end of the spring break for a four game conference series. In the first day of action, Centre dropped both games, 15-13 and 11-7, respectively. In the second game Centre continued to struggle, falling both games, 6-4 and 11-3. Centre is now 4-16 overall, 0-8 in the SCAC with home league games against Birmingham Southern up next.

Four days after being told the program would be discontinued after the end of the season and after not being able to practice since that day because of weather, the Colorado College softball team snapped a nine-game skid by defeating Trinity 7-4, in the second game of Saturday’s doubleheader at Doherty High School. Alyssa Kallweit’s grand slam in the bottom of the fourth inning provided the winning margin. Kallweit came to bat with one out and the scored tied at 2-2 in the nightcap. After fouling off a pair of pitches, she lined a 2-2 pitch over the fence in left field to clear the bases. Sophomore pitcher Irismar Sandt Coriis followed with a solo homer to straightaway center that put CC up 7-2. The Umpires called the contest due to lack of sufficient light after winning hurler Sirina Millsap got Trinity shortstop Jamie Williams to bounce into a double play to end the top of the sixth.

Trinity won the opener, 10-3. The weather warmed up a bit on Sunday and so did Trinity’s bats. The visitors banged out 34 hits, including 11 for extra bases, in a 14-1, 11-8 doubleheader sweep that gave them three victories in four games against CC for the weekend. Kallweit, who knocked in Colorado College’s only run with a sacrifice fly in Game 1, belted her second homer of the weekend in the fifth inning of the later contest. Kallweit went 3-for-5 for the afternoon, with three runs scored and an RBI in each game to give her a total of seven for the weekend. She batted .545 (8-for-15) overall in the four outings. Heidi Shannon and Erica VanHoonsen rapped three hits apiece in Game 2, with Van Hoonsen also finishing with three runs batted in. Players, coaches and parents all were among the make-shift grounds crew who helped get the diamond ready for the series since CC’s home field at Memorial Park was unplayable.

#16 DePauw, ranked seventh in the latest Division III Softball-The Newsletter poll and 16th by the NFCA, went 3-4 on the week with three of the four losses coming to the top two ranked teams in Division III. The Tigers dropped the first two games to top-ranked Texas-Tyler and then lost a 1-0 decision at second-ranked Louisiana College. After sweeping a doubleheader against Mary Hardin-Baylor, the Tigers split a twinbill at Mississippi College. With a single in the first game at Mississippi College, Rachel Gill became the SCAC’s all-time base hits leader breaking the mark of 182 by Katherine Womack of Hendrix (2004-07). She already is the conference’s all-time RBI leader.

DePauw opens its home season on Saturday and Sunday with games against Sewanee. DePauw has been selected as a first-round host for the NCAA Division III Championship.

AROUND THE SCAC

Hendrix had a 3-3 week after a pair of mid-week wins over University of the Ozarks and a 1-3 record against SCAC foe Southwestern University this weekend. The Warriors now stand at 11-14 overall and 2-6 in conference play. Hendrix was led by sophomore RF Ellen Burr and first year RHP Liz Vaughan at the plate this week. Burr and Vaughan both posted .421 batting averages with six runs scored and six RBI, while Vaughan picked up a pair of doubles and two homers on the week. Vaughan tossed three complete games for a 2-1 record and 2.00 ERA. She gave up just four earned runs after 18.0 innings, 22 hits, two doubles and two strikeouts.

Millsaps swept all four games this past weekend against Centre College, hitting .391 as a team with 12 doubles and getting solid pitching performances from a trio of hurlers, to move to 11-12 overall and 4-4 in SCAC play. In Saturday’s doubleheader sweep, Millsaps had six players with multiple hits as they won 15-1 (5) and 3-2 (8). On Sunday, the scores were flip-flopped but produced the same results, as the Majors won 6-4 in the opener, followed by an 11-3, run-rule victory. Senior Erica Douglas and junior Jennifer McKinley each drove in seven runs off a combined 11 hits to lead the offensive attack, while Kasey Thibodeaux went 2-0 with a 1.27 ERA and four strikeouts. Amanda Bintz and Brittany MclAlister split the final two wins in the circle, whereas Bintz tossed a dominant 4.0 innings in relief in Game 1 Sunday for her victory. Millsaps will hit the road for its next eight games, traveling to Rhodes College (21-3) April 4-5 and Birmingham-Southern (21-3) on April 9-10.

Rhodes went 6-0 on the week, moved to 21-3 overall, and is riding an 18 game winning streak into a week that features a doubleheader against cross-town rival CBUs, followed by a 4-game SCAC series with Millsaps. Rhodes defeated the Magicians of LeMoyne Owen on Wednesday by scores of 13-1 and 13-1, and followed that up with a 4-game sweep of Sewanee by scores of 17-0, 9-0, 14-0, and 13-0. Sara Bowen hit .733 (11 for 15) with an .850 on base percentage (17 for 20) on the week, with 10 RBI, 4 doubles, 2 home runs, 4 walks and 11 runs scored. In Saturday’s doubleheader sweep of Sewanee, she was a perfect 6 for 6 with 3 doubles, 2 home runs and 7 RBI. Karli Alvin hit .700 on the week (7 for 10) with a double, 2 RBI, a stolen base and 6 runs scored. Elise Suna hit .812 (13 for 16) with 3 doubles, 2 triples, a home run and 14 RBI, including a perfect 5 for 5 with a home run, double, a triple and 6 RBI in Sunday’s sweep of Sewanee. In the circle, Sara Bowen was 2-0, tossing a perfect game in the Lynx 5-inning 9-0 win over Sewanee on Saturday and following that up with a 12-strikeout, 3 hit shutout on Sunday in the Lynx 13-0 win. Chelsea Peters also went 6-0 on the week with 9 total innings pitched, giving up no earned runs, 6 hits and striking out 17 in wins over LeMoyne-Owen and Sewanee. In the second SCAC start of her career, she tossed a 3 hit shutout and struck out 9 in the Lynx 5 inning win over Sewanee on Sunday. Peters is 5-0 on the season with a 2.20 ERA and has recorded 41 strikeouts in 35 innings pitched.

On Wednesday, Sewanee hosted Covenant College on the mountain and suffered an 11-2 loss to the Lady Scots. Originally scheduled as a double-header, the Tigers were only able to compete in the first game due to rain. The week ended with Sewanee hosting doubleheaders on Saturday and Sunday against the Rhodes Lynx. Saturday’s games resulted in a 17-0 and 9-0 loss for the Tigers, and the Lynx would go on to win 14-0 and 17-0 on Sunday. Freshmen Erin Poliena and Carly Warfield contributed important hits for the week’s match-ups, and seniors Morgan Cannon and Audrey Jenigian each picked up a hit in Sunday’s games. The Tigers are 0-11 overall, 0-4 in conference play. Sewanee will travel to Greenscante, Indiana to play DePauw in a four-game series beginning April 4th.

Southwestern went 3-1 this week as they opened up conference play with a four game series against Hendrix. Friday’s games showcased the Pirates power at the plate as they scored 18 runs on 19 hits over the two games. Taylor Turpin led the way going 5-6 with four runs and two RBIs. Kaitlyn Pavlicek earned the win in game one on the mound while helping her own cause going 3-4 at the plate with two runs and one RBI. Lynsay Maus got the win in game two. Southwestern scored six runs in the first inning of both games and never lost the lead, eventually winning 12-4 and 6-4. On the second day of action, SU took longer to get rolling in the first game. They scored one run each in the second, third and fourth inning and then put up five in the sixth to win 8-2. In game two on Sunday, Hendrix hit two over the fence off of Maus in the early innings of the game and the Pirates could not recover as they fell 3-1. Southwestern continues conference action this weekend at Austin College.

Trinity took three out of four games in a conference series at Colorado College over the weekend, which were the only games played by Trinity this past week. Trinity split the first day’s doubleheader, winning 10-3 in the opener and losing 7-4 in game two. On Sunday, Trinity secured the series win with a doubleheader sweep, winning 14-1 and 11-8. The Tigers combined to hit .429 as a team over the weekend, cracking 10 doubles, a triple, and five home runs in the four games. Four different players hit better than .500 for the week, while two others hit .400 or better. Coming into the weekend, Trinity had not hit a home run in its first 20 games. After a week without any games, Trinity will continue its SCAC schedule with another four-game weekend on the road, facing off against first-year program Southwestern University April 10-11. The Tigers return home on April 18-19 to host Austin College in a four-game SCAC series to conclude the regular season.
