SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of August 29 – August 31
MATT LIGHTFOOT OF SEWANEE-THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH, a freshman forward from Germantown, Tenn., has been selected the SCAC Men’s Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Friday, August 29 through Sunday, August 31.

Lightfoot scored one of Sewanee’s goals in the 3-1 Tiger comeback win over #6 Washington University on Friday night and then his first half goal on Sunday would be enough to secure the 1-0 shutout for the Tigers on Sunday versus Westminster (Mo.). The Tigers are 2-0 so far in 2008.

Finding the back of the net twice over the weekend puts Lightfoot in a tie for second in the conference in goals scored and was also a huge part in the Tigers first 2-0 start since 2005.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior forward Trevor Cobb of Colorado College scored CC’s first goal and set up Chris Ellis’s game-winner on Friday at St. Olaf College. He scored the game-winning goal on Sunday against Ripon College. Cobb led the Tigers with 11 total shots during the two matches, including six on goal. Freshman forward Ben Van Nevel of Centre was the most consistent offensive threat for the Colonels in the pair of road victories over the weekend. On Friday against Muskingum University, Ben connected on a long-range power header, sending the ball from the top of the 18 past the keeper to give Centre its second goal on the day. Senior midfielder Scott Devault of Oglethorpe had a goal and two assists in the 4-1 win over Guilford. He also made lots of penetrating runs to create numerous more scoring opportunities. Junior midfielder Will Brown of Hendrix scored the game-winning goal off a penalty kick inside the box two minutes into the second overtime to defeat Louisiana College in the Warriors’ home opener on Saturday. Junior midfielder Drew Dews Jr. of Millsaps picked up a pair of goals, including the game-winner on Saturday to defeat Fontbonne 4-1, en route to a weekend split for the Majors in their first action of the season. Dews has already matched his goal total from a year ago in just two games.

Freshman forward Luis Castillo of Austin College gave the ‘Roos a season opening victory in a 1-0 defeat of the University of Dallas, heading home a corner kick in the 81st minute to provide Austin College the only score of the game. Senior forward Patrick Flock of Trinity, the 2007 SCAC Offensive Player of the Year, scored the game-winning goal in overtime of Trinity’s season opener against University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. Junior forward Zac Berry of Rhodes had the game winner against Augustana College, and was also a vital part in the win against Fontbonne. DePauw and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for the award.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of August 29 – August 31
ANDY BURKE OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a junior outside back from Cincinnati, Ohio, has been selected the SCAC Men’s Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Friday, August 29 through Sunday, August 31.

Burke played smothering defense and scored an overtime game winning goal for the Colonels in a pair of shutout wins on the road over the weekend. On Friday, Burke and the Centre defense held Muskingum University scoreless and limited their offense to just two shots on goal. Then on Saturday, Burke shut down Trine’s target play with consistent, hard-nosed defending and limited the Thunder to just 3 shots on goal and 2 corner kicks.

The tough play of Burke led the Colonels to their season-opener victory for the seventh consecutive season, and it is the fifth time in the last seven opening matches that Centre has posted a shutout.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior goalkeeper Johnny Nally of Sewanee allowed only one goal and posted a shutout in the Tigers two victories over the weekend. Senior defender Michael Robertson of Trinity scored a goal and an assist over the weekend, including the game-winning goal against UT-Tyler on Saturday night. Senior midfielder Brett Woolen of Oglethorpe anchored the midfield defensively that slowed down the offenses of Methodist and Guilford respectively. Junior defender Tom Robins of Hendrix had a solid weekend from the defensive end and also scored his first goal of the season and only goal for Hendrix against University of the Ozarks Sunday afternoon. Freshman goalkeeper Grant Gosselin of Austin College had an outstanding debut for the ‘Roos, stopping all four shots he faced and making several other spectacular game saving plays in a 1-0 shutout win over the University of Dallas on Sunday. Sophomore defender Alex Johnson of DePauw beat attackers to the ball and initiated DePauw’s attack in a 2-0 win over Holy Cross. Senior goalkeeper Alex Margolin of Rhodes made a point blank save with the Lynx already down 1-0 against Augustana. His save during that game changed the momentum and surged Rhodes in their come from behind victory. Colorado College, Millsaps and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for the award.
AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College men’s soccer team got the season off to a solid start with a dramatic 1-0 win over the University of Dallas on Sunday. Freshman keeper Grant Gosselin had an outstanding debut, stopping four shots and making several game saving plays down the stretch as the ’Roos held off the Crusaders. The game was scoreless into the 81st minute when Chris Stein found Luis Castillo on a corner kick, with Castillo heading home his first career goal to give the ’Roos a one goal lead and the victory. The ’Roos will be back in action this weekend as they go on the road to take on Concordia-Texas and Texas Lutheran on Saturday and Sunday, respectively.

Birmingham-Southern men’s soccer team split at home this weekend to open the season, defeating Westminster College in overtime, 2-1, Friday evening, and falling to No. 6 Washington University, 2-1, Sunday afternoon. Freshman Garner Shivers got his BSC career off to a good start, scoring all three of the Panthers’ goals on the weekend. BSC is on the road for its next two matches, traveling to the Kyle Rote, Jr. Invitational at Sewanee to face Johns Hopkins University, Friday, and University of the Ozarks, Sunday.

Centre College Colonels opened up their season with a pair of shutout road victories to win the Glenn Hyundai College Showcase hosted by Transylvania University in Lexington, Kentucky. On Friday, a pair of freshmen and a sophomore transfer scored a goal each to start the 2008 season with a 3-0 victory over Muskingum College. The Colonels have won their season opener for the seventh consecutive season, and it is the fifth time in the last seven opening matches that Centre has posted a shutout. Then in the 95th minute, junior defender Andy Burke (Cincinnati, OH) scored an unassisted game winning goal to end the game and win the Showcase. Centre will return to action Friday night, Sept. 5 to host Letourneau University in the opening day of the 19th Annual Bob Allen Nissan Classic.

Eight different players scored goals and 10 had at least one point as No. 21 Colorado College began the season with a 2-0 record for just the fourth time in the last nine years. Senior goalkeeper Joey Wykowski improved his career record to 5-1 while posting his fourth shutout in Sunday’s 8-0 victory over Ripon College. It was his first appearance since a 1-0 victory at Whittier College on Oct. 29, 2006. Wykowski missed the entire 2007 campaign with an ankle injury. Junior goalkeeper Brian Engle made three saves in his first career start, a 4-1 victory at St. Olaf on Friday. Colorado College opened its season on the road for the first time since 1999. The Tigers extended their winning streak in the first game of the season to five matches. Their last loss to open a season was against Division II Regis University in 2003.

Mike Harris and Brad Kean each scored second-half goals to lead DePauw to a 2-0 win over Holy Cross (Ind.) in the Tigers’ season opener at Boswell Field. Harris put the Tigers on the board first on a free kick at 53:06, while Kean followed with the second and final tally at 58:13. DePauw outshot the Saints 16-5 and held a 10-2 edge in corners. Ted Jacobi recorded one save in recording the shutout, while Holy Cross finished with 10 saves. The win marked the first for Brad Hauter ’87 as just the third head coach in DePauw’s 43-year program history.

Hendrix men’s soccer team split its opening weekend with a 2-1 win over Louisiana College in double overtime on Saturday and a 4-1 loss to University of the Ozarks on Sunday. Junior midfielder Will Brown came through with a clutch game-winning goal off a penalty kick inside the box during the 102nd minute of play against the Wildcats in the Warriors’ home opener. Hendrix outshot Louisiana 22-3 and made 15 attempts at the goalkeeper. On Sunday, Ozarks made a quick start as they scored three goals in the first 30 minutes of play. The shot totals were equal in the first half, however Ozarks held a 3-1 lead at the break. Hendrix junior defender Tom Robins connected on a penalty kick in the 34th minute for his first goal of the season. Eagles’ midfielder Dylan Evans scored the final goal of the game with 51:16 showing on the scoreboard. Each team tallied eight shots and three cards in the contest. There were a total of 14 fouls called in the match.

AROUND THE SCAC

Junior midfielder Drew Dews Jr. of Millsaps netted a pair of goals, including the game-winner against Fontbonne on Saturday, to help the Majors to a weekend split in its opening competition of 2008. Junior Brandon Mong’s goal in the 55th minute sparked a span of four unanswered goals for Millsaps in 15:07 as the Majors rallied to knock off Fontbonne University (Mo.) on Saturday afternnon in the Rhodes College Classic in Memphis 4-1. The win for Millsaps was its first season-opening win since 2004 – also at the Rhodes Classic – with Mong, Dews, Aaron Hyatt and Andres Colocho each finding the back of the net and senior goalkeeper Domenick DiPaolo earning his first win between the posts since 2006 after 10 months of service in Iraq. On Sunday, Augustana's Dan Hogan fired the game-winner in the 82nd minute to break a 1-1 tie and send the Vikings to their first win of the season, 2-1. The Majors will return to Harper Davis Field on Friday night at 5 p.m. for their home-opener against Louisiana College.

Oglethorpe men’s soccer team opened its season this past weekend by playing two contests at Emory University in the 2008 Sonny Carter Invitational. On Friday, the Petrels jumped all over Guilford College, scoring three goals in the game’s first half en route to posting a season opening 4-1 win. The victory was highlighted by Division I transfer Scott Devault finding the back of the net once and dishing two assists. Also starring in the victory were Amel Komic (1 goal, 1 assist) and Bryan Burnick (1 goal, 1 assist). On Saturday, the Petrels were bested by Methodist University 1-0 in a game of missed chances for the Petrels. For the contest, Oglethorpe outshot the Monarchs 13-8 overall including 9-1 in shots on goal. The result, however, did not fall in the Petrels favor and the team will look to rebound this Saturday when they square off with Maryville College in the home opener on Salamone Field.

This past weekend the Rhodes men’s soccer team defeated both Augustana College (2-1) and Fontbonne University (2-0). The goal scorers for the AC game were Matt Childs and Zac Berry. In the FU game Nick Bailey and Logan Eberly found the back of the net for the Lynx.

Sewanee debuted the 2008 season Friday night in Birmingham by shocking Wash. U., currently ranked sixth nationally. After trailing 1-0 at the half, Sewanee rallied, picking up the 3-1 win. On Sunday, goalie Johnny Nalley (Gainsville, Ga.) earned another win and a shutout as the Tigers beat Westminster (Mo.) 1-0. Newcomer Matt Lightfoot (Germantown, Tenn.) scored a goal in each match. Sewanee is hosting the Kyle Rote, Jr. Invitational this weekend and will face Ozarks and Johns Hopkins.

Southwestern men’s soccer opened the season with two losses at the Southwestern / Trinity Tournament at home in Georgetown. Game one was a 2-0 shutout at the hands of UT-Tyler, and the second was a close, physical 3-1 loss to Mary Hardin-Baylor. Both games showed promise from freshmen players, including #23 DeShawn Isaac. Game two had plenty of momentum going Southwestern’s way in the second half with both teams tied at 1-1, but the shots just didn’t fall for the Pirates. Southwestern will return to action this Friday as they play University of Dallas at Trinity University.

No. 2 Trinity opened the season with a pair of wins on the road, defeating both Mary Hardin-Baylor and UT-Tyler in Georgetown, Texas. Trinity held on for an overtime win over UMHB in Friday’s opener, as Patrick Floeck scored in the 95th minute. Joseph DeCosta and Andrew Chong also scored in the game for the Tigers. In the second game, Trinity fell behind 1-0 early in the game, but tied the game before the half. In the final five minutes, Tiger seniors Michael Robertson and Noe Casanova both netted goals to give the team the win. Up next for the Tigers will be the home openers this weekend. Trinity will face Hardin-Simmons on Friday night, followed by a Sunday evening game against UT-Dallas. Since 1998, Trinity is 11-0 against Hardin-Simmons – including NCAA Playoff wins in 2005 and 2006. Last year, the Tigers defeated the Cowboys 7-0. Against UT-Dallas, Trinity is 7-0 since the 2000 season – including a 5-0 shutout last year.
