Centre beat Washington and Lee University (2-1) and Fontbonne University (6-1) to improve its record to 3-1. Centre's play was improved since its loss to Wooster a week earlier as the Colonels controlled both matches in the midfield led by junior Sally Faulkner. Faulkner's strong defense and possession skills allowed the Colonels to control play on both ends of the field as they posted a 58-6 shot advantage over both matches. Faulkner's play was complemented across the field as all members of the team contributed in each match. Said head coach Tom Hobbs: "Our ladies played team-hockey over 140 minutes this weekend. We pulled together to play solid defense and create numerous scoring opportunities in each match. I was particularly pleased with our ball pressure and support, and our execution on penalty corners."

DePauw dropped to 1-1 on the season after losing its only game of the week, a 4-2 decision at Ohio Wesleyan, on Saturday. Senior Beth Seegers and freshman Kimberly Trainor each scored game-tying goals for the Tigers, but the Bishops scored the eventual game-winning goal with 7:01 left and added an insurance score with 4:13 remaining. The Tigers outshot Ohio Wesleyan by a 25-12 margin and held a 15-4 edge in corners.

Hendrix did not play this past week. The Warriors will be back in action on Sunday, Sept. 14 at SCAC foe Sewanee-The University of the South for a 12 p.m. affair.

Rhodes won both matches this weekend over Fontbonne and Washington and Lee for a 4-0 start on the season. The Lynx win over the Generals of Washington and Lee was their first ever, after 3 losses in 2001, 2005, and 2006. The Lynx had 8 different players, including 6 freshmen, score in the two matches this weekend. Sophomores Hillary Relyea and Lindsey Gurkovich led the Lynx offense this weekend while Maria Cowley, Rachel Webb, and Laura Deines anchored the strong defensive effort. The Lynx 4-0 start includes 3 shutout victories, and is one of the best in program history. Rhodes looks forward to opening SCAC play at Sewanee on Saturday (9/13, 11 am).

Sewanee did not play this past week. The Tigers will return to action this week as they host SCAC opponent Hendrix on the Mountain.
