SCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Games of September 1 – September 7

DAMARIS ORASANU OF AUSTIN COLLEGE, a senior middle hitter from North Richland Hills, Texas, has been named SCAC Volleyball Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 1 through Sunday, September 7.

Orasanu led the Kangaroos to a 4-0 mark at the University of Dallas Festival with wins over Concordia, University of Dallas, Hendrix, and Presentation.

Orasanu hit a blistering .495 while averaging 4.42 kills per game and 1.5 blocks per game. She committed five errors the entire weekend and notched 31 kills in the final two matches without a single error.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:

Senior defensive specialist Emily Smith of DePauw University guided the Tigers to a 3-1 record at the Hanover (Ind.) Invitational over the weekend. Smith averaged 6.7 digs per game and was named to the Hanover Invitational all-tournament team. She tallied a career-high 45 digs against Hanover in the title match. Junior middle blocker Terricka Thomas of Hendrix College paced the Warriors with 26 kills and eight blocks and was named to the University of Dallas all-tournament team. Sophomore outside hitter Kate Hall of Millsaps College averaged 11 kills per game to go along with her 11 digs, nine blocks, and seven service aces in four games. She tallied a weekend-high 16 kills in a 3-1 win over Belhaven (Miss.) Senior middle hitter Allison Squires of Rhodes College helped the Lynx sweep all four matches over the weekend a the Texas-Tyler Invite. Squires hit .356, tallied 30 kills all while adding 14 digs, five blocks and three service aces. Senior right side Brittany Roper of Sewanee totaled a team-high nine kills, while adding three aces and five digs in a straight-set victory over Agnes Scott. Junior middle blocker Lauren Brown of Southwestern University turned in 15 blocks and 43 kills in four games at the Emory Classic. She hit .342 against #3 Emory and was named to the all-tournament team as well. Senior outside hitter Megan Dudley of Trinity University led the Tigers to a 3-1 record and a second place finish at the Puget Sound Invitational. Dudley led the team in kills (55) and hit .319 and averaged 1.35 digs per game over the week. Dudley and the Tigers beat #12 Cal State East Bay and seventh-ranked Puget Sound with their only loss coming to fifth-ranked La Verne. Centre College, Colorado College and Oglethorpe University did not nominate any this week.

AROUND THE SCAC

No. 13 Austin College swept through the University of Dallas Festival over the weekend, going 4-0 against Concordia-Texas, Dallas, Hendrix and Presentation College. The 'Roos won each match by 3-0 scores thanks in large part to a team hitting percentage of .348, with Jenna Wilson and Damaris Orasanu leading the way with .525 and .495 hitting percentages respectively. Orasanu averaged 4.42 kills and added 1.5 blocks per game, while Wilson added 3.83 kills per game. Austin College takes on the University of Texas-Tyler on Tuesday before traveling to Georgetown for the Southwestern Invitational, where they'll take on McMurry, Mary Hardin-Baylor, Heidelberg and Schreiner.

Birmingham-Southern traveled to St. Louis, Mo., this weekend for the Washington University/Asics National Invitational. On Friday, the Panthers fell to No. 11 Ohio Northern, 3-1, and No. 2 Washington, the defending DIII national champion, 3-0. BSC bounced back on Saturday with two wins, defeating No. 22 Central (Iowa) College, 3-0, and No. 24 Cal Lutheran, 3-0.

Centre went 2-2 at the Hanover Invitational this past weekend. Beating host, and eventual tournament champion Hanover, in three games on Friday night before dropping a three-game match to Anderson. On Sunday Centre opened with a three game loss to Maryville and then rebounded in their last match against Franklin winning in 5. The team is now 4-4 on the year and will host the Centre Classic this upcoming weekend.

Colorado College finished second at the 2008 Molten Volleyball CC Invitational, dropping a 27-25, 25-17, 22-25, 25-10 decision to UT-Dallas in the championship match. Sophomore middle blocker Emily Perkins and freshman opposite hitter Meredith Ballard were voted to the all-tournament team by the opposing coaches. Senior outside hitter Anna Clitheroe became the third player in CC history to eclipse the 1,300-kill plateau and finished the weekend ranked second. She needs only 145 more kills to become the program's career leader. Clitheroe also went over the 1,300-dig mark, becoming the third player to reach that milestone. She needs only 50 more to become CC's leader for players other than a libero and 362 digs to break Aubrey Reed's school record of 1,681. Colorado College will play host to the 2008 Molten Volleyball CC Classic this weekend. The five-team field includes No. 16 Concordia (Minn.) College (ranking will be updated Monday).

DePauw posted a 3-1 mark with all four matches going five sets and finished second at the Hanover College Invitational. DePauw defeated Spalding, Principia and Franklin by 3-2 scores in pool play before losing by a 3-2 count to Hanover in the title match. Seniors Erin Cunningham and Emily Smith earned spots on the all-tournament team. For the weekend, junior Katelyn Larson led the Tigers with 51 kills and a .289 attack percentage, while senior Adrienne Cobb recorded 26 blocks. Emily Smith totaled 134 digs including 45 in the match with Hanover and Ali Smith finished with 183 assists.

The Hendrix volleyball team opened its season by going 1-1 in the first day of the University of Dallas Invitational Sept. 5 at the Maher Center. The Warriors dropped their final two matches of the invite on Saturday with a 3-0 loss to Dallas and Austin College. The Warriors defeated Presentation College, 3-0, in their first match and fell to Concordia University, 3-1, in match two. Hendrix started its 2008 campaign with a 25-14, 25-22 and 25-15 sweep over the Saints before losing to the Tomatodos 27-25, 25-23, 20-25 and 25-18. The Warriors were led by junior middle blocker Terricka Thomas in the first match with 12 kills. Junior setter Patty Hill paced the squad with 33 assists while sophomore libero Kim Larson and junior outside hitter Ryan Hughes led the team in digs with 17 and 13, respectively. Hughes tallied a team-high eight kills in the second match while Hill passed out 34 assists and three aces. Larson made 24 digs against Concordia. On Saturday, the Warriors dropped a 24-26, 16-25 and 18-25 match to Dallas before falling 12-25, 11-25 and 25-27 to Austin.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps (5-3) split its annual Invitational, picking up two wins in the final day of the tournament. The first day of the tournament, the team had two tough losses to Reinhardt College 3-1 (25-23, 23-25, 19-25, 17-25) and East Texas Baptist University 3-0 (22-25, 22-25, 23-25). In the game against Reinhardt the team was led by sophomore Kate Hall who notched 13 kills. In the second match against ETBU the team fought valiantly but could not overcome the Tigers. In that game the Majors were led by freshman Maggie Tumminello who tallied 13 kills to go along with seven digs. In the second day of the tournament the team got back to their winning ways as they defeated Spring Hill College, 3-1 (25-19, 23-25, 25-22, 25-13) and Belhaven College 3-1 (24-26, 25-12, 25-20, 25-28). Tumminello led the Majors in the victory over Spring Hill, tallying 11 kills to go along with 30 digs, while Hall led the team with 6 kills. Also having a good night against the Lady Blazers was sophomore Hailey Miranda who had 31 assists. The team goes on the road to New Orleans to take on Loyola on Tuesday, before returning home on Friday to take on Paul Quinn University and Belhaven for a second time.

The Oglethorpe volleyball team traveled to Greensboro, North Carolina this weekend and split four contests in the Greensboro College Volleyball Invitational. The outcome in Greensboro was a mirror image of last weekend's result in Sewanee, Tennessee as Oglethorpe lost both their matches on Friday before rallying to win two on Saturday.

The Rhodes volleyball team went 4-0 at the UT Tyler Invite this past weekend hosted by UT Tyler. The Lynx defeated the University of Mary Hardin Baylor and LeTourneau University on Day 1 and defeated host UT Tyler and Howard Payne on Day 2. The Lynx are now 5-3 on the season after this weekend. For their efforts on the weekend Senior Middle Blocker Ally Squires and Junior Setter Laura Jensen were named to the All-Tournament team.

Sewanee moved to 3-2 this weekend as the Tigers went to Agnes Scott and topped the Scotties 3-0. Sewanee was led by senior Brittany Roper's nine kills and freshman Adrienne Borchard's 21 assists. The Tigers will face Piedmont and LaGrange in Demorest, Ga. this weekend.

Southwestern came out strong last weekend against two nationally-ranked teams at the Emory Classic in Atlanta, beating #18 Haverford College and pressing #3 Emory University to a five game tiebreaker before losing 13-15. The Pirates racked up their first tournament victory against Carleton College Friday afternoon, taking the Knights in three games. In the afternoon, Southwestern faced off against host Emory University, bringing home the first two games. The Eagles rebounded to tie the score over the next two sets, drawing the Pirates into a tense tiebreaker which they lost 13-15. Strong defensive plays dominated the series, with both teams accumulating 104 digs, 31 belonging to libero Sam Lingamfelter.

No. 6 Trinity finished second at the Puget Sound Invitational over the weekend, defeating two nationally-ranked teams and finishing behind only fifth-ranked La Verne. Trinity, ranked sixth nationally, defeated 12th-ranked Cal State East Bay and No. 7 Puget Sound at the tournament, as well as coming back from a two-game deficit to beat Redlands 3-2 in the tournament finale. Megan Dudley and Ginger Haley were both selected to the All-Tournament Team for their efforts over the weekend. Dudley led the team with 55 kills and a .319 hitting percentage over the weekend, averaging 3.24 kills/game. In addition to 26 kills and a .293 hitting percentage for Haley, she led the Tigers with 20 total blocks, averaging a blistering 1.18 blocks/game. The Tigers return home this weekend to face two more ranked teams at the Trinity River City Classic. St. Thomas (ranked eighth) and Carthage (ranked 10th) will join Texas Lutheran and Linfield in the two-day tournament.
