SCAC GAMES BOLDED IN ALL CAPS
NSCAA ranking noted when applicable

BOBBI JONES OF MILLSAPS COLLEGE, a senior forward from Homewood, Ala. has been selected the SCAC Women’s Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 1 through Sunday, September 7.

Jones had a breakout weekend for Millsaps in helping the Majors get out to their best overall start in 20+ years. The Homewood, Ala., native had four goals and three assists for a total of 11 points, recording a hat-trick in the 5-0 win over Agnes Scott on Sunday – the first in the modern women’s soccer era (1991-present) at Millsaps.

On Friday night against Louisiana College, Jones had a pair of assists in addition to a goal in a 5-1 win. She actually scored two goals in the win over LC, but her second was awarded a corner kick after going through the left side of the net and out the other side.

Although Jones has come up big this season, that wasn’t the case in the Majors’ first week. She did not nominate anyone for the award.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior forward Molly Buss of Rhodes scored the game winning goal in the Lynx win over ETBU. Despite dominating the game Rhodes was unable to put the ball in the Tigers net until the 108th minute when Buss calmly finished off a pass from freshman forward Julia Clapper. Senior forward Erin Menard of Centre connected only 53 secs into the overtime period to score the game winning goal. Centre defeated Kenyon 2-1. Menard’s goal is the first of her career and brings her closer to breaking into the SCAC leading scorer’s top five. To accomplish this feat, she needs seven goals. Audrey Jemigan senior forward of Sewanee scored two goals in Sewanee’s 2-0 shutout of Guilford on Sunday. First year forward Abigail Loar of Trinity had a goal and an assist as Trinity went 1-0-1 in its first road weekend of the season. Junior forward Caitlin McGeehan of Hendrix scored the Warriors’ final goal against LeTourneau University on Sept. 5. McGeehan put it underneath a charging keeper in a one-on-one situation. Austin College, DePauw, Oglethorpe and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for the award.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of September 1 – September 7

BROOKE SHIPLEY OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, a senior goalkeeper from Indianapolis, Ind. has been named the SCAC Women’s Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 1 through Sunday, September 7.

Despite dropping both games over the weekend, Shipley recorded 19 saves (9 against Wittenberg, 10 against Emory) and allowed just two goals in 184:57 of play in 1-0 losses to eighth-ranked Emory and 12th-ranked Wittenberg.

The Wittenberg goal came in overtime while the Emory goal was a penalty kick which came just after she saved a previous penalty kick attempt.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
First year goalkeeper Allison Mosley of Hendrix posted her second straight shutout in the Warriors’ 2-0 win over LeTourneau University on Sept. 5. Mosley racked up seven saves against the Yellow Jackets to back up a Hendrix defense that has allowed just seven shots on goal in its two wins of 2008. Senior goalkeeper Elizabeth Sooby of Millsaps improved to 6-1-1 in her last eight starts and 3-0 on the year in a pair of easy wins on Friday and Sunday against Louisiana College and Agnes Scott. Senior defender Diana Buss of Rhodes was asked to step into the back line for the Lynx from her usual position in the midfield and helped the Lynx earn a tie against Hardin-Simmons and a shutout victory over ETBU. Senior goalkeeper Eryn Snyder of Southwestern racked up an incredible seventeen saves over the weekend, with 11 throughout regulation time and two overtimes against UT-Dallas. With the team still getting used to the new coaching style and a fairly young defensive line, Snyder held the back together through two difficult games. First year goalkeeper Katie Cowan of Trinity led the Tigers to a 1-0-1 record over the weekend, holding a GAA of 1.22 in more than 220 minutes in goal. Austin College, Centre, Oglethorpe and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for the award.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College women’s soccer team split its two weekend games against East Texas Baptist and Hardin-Simmons, dropping ETBU 2-0 before falling 1-0 to Hardin-Simmons on Sunday. Against ETBU, Annie Gunter scored in the 72nd minute to break a scoreless tie, and Brooke Adams added an insurance goal 13 minutes later to make it a two goal win for the ‘Roos. The ‘Roos held ETBU without a single shot all game. On Sunday Hardin-Simmons scored just over two minutes into the second half and the ‘Roos were unable to counter, managing just one second half shot in the game. Kaitlin Elledge made three saves for the ‘Roos in the game. This week the ‘Roos will travel to St. Louis to take on Maryville University and Fontbonne University.

Birmingham-Southern women’s soccer split games this weekend as they cruised to a 9-0 win over Alabama State on Friday evening. Sunday the Panthers dropped 3-0 to Georgia State. BSC will return to action this Saturday as they travel to play Methodist College.

In the Glenn Hyundai College Showcase on Saturday, Centre fell 3-1 to Washington and Lee University. On Sunday, the Colonels were able to bounce back and defeated Kenyon College 2-1 in overtime. Scoring on the day were: Chloe Toohey (1) and Erin Menard (1) with an assist by Allison Terry. The Colonels will meet Wittenberg Saturday in Danville.

DePauw faced a pair of nationally-ranked squads and came away with a pair of 1-0 defeats. Eighth-ranked Wittenberg scored on a header with 5:03 left in the first overtime to top the Tigers on Friday night. Wittenberg outshot DePauw, 24-9, but DePauw led 6-5 in corners. On Sunday against 12th-ranked Emory, the Eagles scored the game’s only goal on a penalty kick with 16:45 left in the first half. Just seconds earlier, DePauw senior keeper Brooke Shipley recorded a save on a penalty kick but in the scramble which ensued, DePauw was whistled for a hand ball in the box and the second penalty kick was awarded. Emory held a 16-5 edge in shots, while DePauw led, 2-1, in corners.

Hendrix College first year goalkeeper Allison Mosley shut down her second consecutive opponent and helped the Warriors to a 2-0 victory over LeTourneau University under the lights on Sept. 5 at Warrior Field. Hendrix improves to 2-0 with the win and are on their way to their first 3-0 start since 2002 when the Warriors went 8-6 with five straight ’W’s to start the season. Hendrix rallied late in the second half and scored its first goal of the night when junior forward Blair Sanning (Carmel Valley, Calif.) found the back of the net off a corner kick from first year midfielder Megan Pearce (Springdale, Ark.). Warriors’ junior forward Caitlin McGeehan (Tulsa, Okla.) put it underneath a charging keeper in a one-on-one off junior defender Abby Blaney’s (Rogers, Ark.) free kick. Mosley (Sulphur, La.) backed up another solid performance from the Hendrix defense, led by last week’s SCAC Defensive Player-of-the-Week Amelia Wildenborg (Rogers, Ark.).

Millsaps is off to its best start in 18 years, 3-0, after a pair of convincing home wins over Louisiana College (5-1) and Agnes Scott (5-0) this past weekend. As a team, Millsaps fired a combined 41 shots (29 on net) while holding their opponents to a total of two. Senior Bobbi Jones had a breakout weekend, scoring four goals in addition to three assists for a total of 11 points. Her hat-trick on Sunday against ASC was the first known in the modern Millsaps women’s soccer era (1991-present). Senior goalkeeper Elizabeth Sooby added two more wins to improve to 6-1-1 in her last eight starts, while backups Sarah Nelin and Molly Beth Jourdan each spent good time in net. Millsaps will continue a 4-game homestand next Saturday vs. Alcorn State at 2 p.m., seeking its first 4-0 start ever. The weekend concludes with a 2 p.m. game against Piedmont College on Sunday. Both matches will be streamed live on www.atwsportscast.com.
AROUND THE SCAC

Oglethorpe women’s soccer team continued to erase the memories of a winless 2007 season by raising their 2008 record to 2-0 by defeating Piedmont College in their only match of the week, 5-1. The Petrels jumped out to a 1-0 lead on the Lions when freshman Alexandria Vassell fed sophomore Mary-Beth Horton for a goal in the game’s 20th minute. After receiving halftime instructions from head coach Alan Woods, the Petrels returned to the pitch to score four second half goals to match the goal total for the entire 2007 season. Chelsea Baron recorded the first of those four second half goals in the 52nd minute when senior Alix Stalnaker connected with her on a perfect pass. Only moments later, two-sport star Shannon Dougherty cracked a wicked shot that crossed the face of the goal before nestling into the side-netting. Stalnaker and Horton added two more goals of their own to round out the scoring on the day. This week, Oglethorpe will face Spelman on Tuesday at 5:00 p.m. and Clearwater Christian on Sunday at 2:00 p.m.

The Rhodes women’s soccer team remained undefeated this week earning a 1-1 tie against Hardin-Simmons University and defeating East A double overtime by a score of 1-0. The Lynx will look to continue their winning ways when they host NCAA Division II cross-town rival Christian Brothers University on Saturday and South Region rival Emory University on Sunday.

Sewanee traveled to Virginia this weekend and didn’t let Tropical Storm Hanna stop them. The Tigers fell to #6 Lynchburg on Saturday and then rallied for Sunday's match, topping Guilford 2-0. Senior Audrey Jernigan scored both of Sewanee's Sunday goals. The Tigers will host Maryville (Tenn.) on Friday night.

Southwestern women's soccer had two games over the weekend which resulted in a tie and a loss to Texas Dallas and Texas Tyler respectively. The Pirates will be back in action this weekend as they visit Mary Hardin-Baylor on Saturday.

No. 21 Trinity played in two double-overtime road games over the weekend, coming away with a win and a tie to move to 2-1-1 on the season. Trinity led late in the game on Friday at UT-Tyler, but the home team scored with just under four minutes left in regulation to force overtime, and eventually, the draw. On Saturday, Trinity was again in the lead late in the game, but a goal in the 75th minute forced another overtime. This time, the Tigers scored in the 102nd minute to pull off the victory. Bekah Gabay and Kelly Watts netted goals in the first game, while Alex Leamy and Abigail Loar scored in the won over UT-Dallas. Loar assisted on the goal by Watts in the opener, then scored the game-winner in overtime against UT-Dallas. Up next, Trinity will host Claremont and Hardin-Simmons over the weekend. Saturday’s game against Hardin-Simmons should be another classic battle between the in-state rivals. The two teams have played each other extensively in recent years, including numerous playoff matchups. In the 2007 regular season, Hardin-Simmons won 1-0 in Abilene, Texas. In last year’s playoffs – also in Abilene – the two teams played to a tie in the first round, but Hardin-Simmons advanced 4-2 on penalty kicks.
