SCAC GAMES BOLDED IN ALL CAPS

SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Games of September 8 – September 14

JESSICA HARRIS OF MILLSAPS COLLEGE, a freshman midfielder from Dallas, Texas, has been selected the SCAC Women's Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 8 through Sunday, September 14.

Harris added to a solid freshman campaign this weekend, picking up her second goal of the season to go along with three more assists to move first on the team with six total assists.

In a 6-0 win over Division I Alcorn State, Harris had a goal and an assist in the opening 21 minutes to pace the Majors to a win, while adding two more assists on Sunday in a 3-1 win over Piedmont. Her second assist to teammate Bobbi Jones was the game-winner.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:

Sophomore forward Lydia Nash of Hendrix scored the Warriors only goals this week. She scored Hendrix's game-winning goal against University of the Ozarks on Sept. 8 to give the Warriors their first 3-0 start since 2002. Nash then scored her second goal of the season on a penalty kick late in the second half against University of Texas at Dallas on Sept. 13. Sophomore forward Shannon Dougherty of Oglethorpe scored her third goal of the season in a 3-0 defeat of Clearwater Christian. Dougherty has scored a goal in every game this season helping Oglethorpe tie the schools record for the best start ever. Junior forward Anne Gunter of Austin College had a big weekend for the 'Roos as they swept Maryville and Fontbonne on a road trip to St. Louis. Gunter scored a pair of goals, one against Maryville and then the game winner in a 1-0 victory over Fontbonne on Sunday, and has a team-best four goals this season. Senior forward Jessie Cassidy of Rhodes scored the lone goal in the 2-1 defeat of Rhodes against cross town rival Christian Brothers University. First-year midfielder Lauren Haninan of DePauw scored the Tigers' first goal in a 2-2 tie with Ohio Wesleyan.

SCAC CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Games of September 8 – September 14

NICOLE WENDSCHLAG OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a senior defender from Lexington Ky., and BECCA CLARIN OF RHODES COLLEGE, a junior goalkeeper from Clarendon Hills Ill., have been named the SCAC Women's Soccer Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 8 through Sunday, September 14.

In their game against No. 6 Wittenberg University, Centre allowed only three shots on goal. Wendschlag was certainly a contributing factor of this accomplishment.

Wendschlag also contributed on the offensive side of the ball, by scoring the tying goal in the 80th minute of play. Centre would conclude the match after two overtime periods tied 1-1.

Clarin recorded a shutout against the No. 9 team in the national Emory University to help the Lynx win the game 1-0. With seven saves, Clarin picks up her first solo shutout of the season.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:

Junior defender Meredith Harris of Millsaps netted her first two goals of the season, including the game-winner over Alcorn State, from her defender position. Freshman defender Jordan Weaver of Oglethorpe has played minute of every game and anchored the defense in the teams first shutout since October 21, 2008. Sophomore center back Sarah Hollfield of Southwestern has played the entirety of every game this season for the Pirates, orchestrating the defensive line for the team. She's shown an improved ability in clearing balls from attackers and taking them out from the air and will continue to play a crucial role in Southwestern's defense as they begin conference play.

Freshman defender Rhea Bermel of Austin College had a strong weekend in helping the 'Roos post a pair of shutout victories against Maryville and Fontbonne, clearing the ball several times when both teams were threatening, including making a game-saving play when she knocked the ball away on what looked to be a sure goal to help preserve the 1-0 victory over Fontbonne.

Senior back Jacki Ponder of DePauw spearheaded DePauw's defensive effort which allowed Ohio Wesleyan just nine shots in a 2-2 tie.

Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for the award, and Trinity did not play.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College women’s soccer team had a successful trip to St. Louis over the weekend, defeating both Maryville University and Fontbonne University to improve to 4-2 on the year. On Friday the team defeated Maryville 3-0 behind goals from Annie Gunter, Holly Messamore and Shelley Casey. Messamore opened up the scoring in the 23rd minute on an assist from Gabby Mavelian to give the ‘Roos a 1-0 halftime lead, and Casey scored just over a minute into the second half. Gunter finished things off in the 81st minute on an assist from Ali Ryan and Kaitlin Elledge made seven saves in the shutout victory. Elledge got her second shutout of the weekend when the team defeated Fontbonne 1-0 on Sunday, with Annie Gunter scoring a second half goal to provide the difference. Next up for the ‘Roos is a trip to Irving, Texas to take on the University of Dallas on Friday at 5:00 p.m.

Birmingham-Southern split two on the road this weekend, taking Saturday’s game with Methodist University, 5-2, and then losing the second 1-0 to Greensboro College on Sunday. BSC found its faltering offense on Saturday, netting five goals in the match. Alicia Plotky, Lindsay Miller, and Patricia George all scored a goal apiece; and Serena Murphy scored two goals on the afternoon to lead the Panthers to the easy victory over the Monarchs. But, they seemed to have scored all their goals for the weekend on Saturday, because Sunday the Panthers were shut-out by Greensboro College 1-0 to close out the week. BSC’s women will be off next week as they prepare for the opening of SCAC play. They have one more non-conference match with UT-Dallas on September 26 followed by their conference-opener against Austin College on the 28th.

On Saturday, Centre tied No. 6 Wittenberg University. The Colonels came from behind to score in the 80th minute of play. The Colonels face Thomas More College on Monday, September 15th then open Conference play against Oglethorpe on Friday, September 19th.

DePauw battled Wittenberg to a 2-2 tie in its only match of the week. The Tigers jumped out to a 2-0 lead as Lauren Hannan scored just 4:40 into contest and Kristen Ellis followed it up at 38:40 to make it 2-0. The Battling Bishops responded early in the second half with goals at 47:48 and 58:25. DePauw outshot Ohio Wesleyan 25-9 and held a 5-1 advantage in corners. DePauw’s Brooke Shipley tallied six saves.

Hendrix women’s soccer team split a pair of matches against University of the Ozarks and University of Texas at Dallas this week. Hendrix improved to its first 3-0 start since 2002 with a 1-0 victory over Ozarks on Sept. 8, before falling to UT-Dallas 1-2 on Sept. 13. Sophomore forward Lydia Nash scored the Warriors only goals in each of their games this week. She beat the keeper in a one-on-one situation off an assist from first year midfielder Kat Marsh against the Lady Eagles. Nash then scored the Warriors only goal off a penalty kick late in the second half after a red card was pulled on the Comets’ goalkeeper with 85:41 showing on the scoreboard.

Millsaps added to its school-record best 5-0 start this weekend, winning easily over Division I Alcorn State, 6-0, and earning a gritty 3-1 win over Piedmont College. Junior defender Meredith Harris netted her first two goals of the season to pace the Majors in a lopsided win over the Lady Braves, while four different scorers found the back of the net. In Sunday’s win over Piedmont, senior Bobbi Jones netted the game-winner in the 66th minute off a Jessica Harris assist – 1 of 3 on the weekend – on a corner before a late goal by Leslie Robichaux sealed the victory. Senior GK Elizabeth Sooby also improved to 5-0 on the season, needing just two saves to move to 8-1-1 in her last 10 starts. Millsaps will put its 6-game overall winning streak on the line Tuesday, Sept. 16, traveling to LeTourneau University for a 7 p.m. match.

AROUND THE SCAC

Oglethorpe women’s soccer team matched the best start to a season in school history by winning their only contest of the week over Clearwater Christian, 3-0. The win lifted the Petrels record to 3-0 on the season and equals the accomplishment of the 2006 squad coached by Mike Morgan. This year’s squad, under the guidance of head coach Alan Woods, has outscored opponents 12-2 on the young season and will begin conference play this Friday at Centre College. Starring in the win over Clearwater Christian were freshmen Alexandria Vassell and Christina Robinson along with sophomore Shannon Dougherty as the trio combined to score each of the Petrel’s weekend goals.

No. 15 Rhodes women’s soccer team lost their first game of the season. The loss came by cross town Division II rivals Christian Brothers University. CBU defeated the Lynx 2-1. Rhodes bounced back the next day and defeated #9 Emory University 1-0. The Lynx begin their SCAC schedule by hosting Trinity University and Southwestern University next weekend.

Sewanee moved to 2-1-1 on Friday night with a 2-2 tie against visiting Maryville College. Senior Audrey Jernigan and newcomer Lizzie Butler each scored a goal in Sewanee’s effort. Goalkeeper Virginia Zakas logged 110 minutes in the net and grabbed four saves on the day. The Tigers will begin league play this weekend at DePauw and Centre.

Southwestern women’s soccer game against Mary Hardin-Baylor was pulled back to Friday due to expected inclement weather from Hurricane Ike. On the Crusader’s home field in Belton, the Pirates racked up their second victory of the season at 3-1 thanks to goals by sophomores Danielle Madison and Amy Douglas and junior Andi Miller (her third goal this season). The win moves the Pirates up to 2-1-1. Southwestern hits the road again this weekend, taking on Hendrix and Rhodes to begin conference play.

No. 21 Trinity women’s soccer team missed out on two games last weekend due to concerns about Hurricane Ike’s impending arrival on the Texas coast. The Tigers were scheduled to play Claremont College and Hardin-Simmons University on back-to-back nights, but the visiting teams – in conjunction with Trinity – decided to cancel the trips to San Antonio. Trinity will travel to Rhodes and Hendrix this weekend to open conference play. Last year in San Antonio, Trinity defeated Hendrix 6-0 and then beat Rhodes 3-2 in an overtime game. The last meeting in Conway ended up a 5-0 win for Trinity in 2006, while the Tigers won 3-1 over Rhodes the last time the teams met in Memphis (2004 season).
