SCAC CO-OFFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK
Games of September 15 – September 21
TERESA JOHNSTONE OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a senior forward from Louisville Ky., and SARAH RIFFLE OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, a junior forward from St. Louis, Mo., have been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Co-Offensive Players-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, September 15 through Sunday, September 21.

Johnstone scored four goals on the weekend including two game winners against Hendrix and Denison as the Colonels finished off the weekend 2-0. Johnstone also added an assist against Denison to boost her season output to 22 total points which leads the SCAC.

Riffle scored two goals including the game-winner to help the Tigers improve to 2-0 in conference play. Riffle scored both of her goals in the first half of the game and had six of the Tiger’s 21 shots.

Riffle also scored two goals against Lindenwood earlier this week for a total of four and leads the team with eight goals for the year. The Tigers are off to their best start since 2001 with a record of 5-1.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior forward Lynn Hancock of Sewanee scored two goals in Sewanee’s 3-2 win against Transylvania on Friday. Lynn gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead going into half time and scored the game winning goal in the 63rd minute of the game. Hendrix did not nominate anyone for this award. Rhodes did not play this past week.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of September 15 – September 21
SALLY FAULKNER OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a junior back from Louisville Ky., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, September 8 through Sunday, September 14.

Faulkner led the Centre College defense to two shutout wins this past weekend over Hendrix College and Denison University, allowing both opponents a combined five shots on goal the entire weekend.

Faulkner’s play was skillful and tactically savvy as she made numerous open field tackles and worked with senior backs Emily Boyle, Sarah Scheer, sophomore Sarah Humphries, and freshmen Jennifer Bohnert and Patty Cowley (in goal) to record their second and third consecutive shutouts.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior midfielder Beth Seegers of DePauw was part of a strong midfield that helped the Tigers go 2-0 this week, allowing only one goal in each of their games. With strong tackles and smart passing Seegers helped the defense keep their opponents out of scoring range. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award. Rhodes did not play this past week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Centre field hockey team won two matches this past week against SCAC foe Hendrix College (2-0) and Great Lakes Region opponent Denison University (5-0). Centre posted 54 shots on the weekend and limited their opponents to only five shots combined en route to their second and third consecutive shutouts of the seasons. Led on attack by seniors Teresa Johnstone (four goals, one assist) and Beth Faulkner (two goals, two assists), Centre scored seven goals, all assisted. Junior Mary Kate Clodius posted another goal for Centre while junior Rachel Watkins and sophomore Cynthia Morse added assists. Senior midfielder Alison Pierce played wonderfully in midfield accompanied by very solid performances from junior Victoria Richardson and freshman Katy Meyer in the forward line. The Colonel backfield led by junior Sally Faulkner was stellar and controlled the direction and pace of play throughout both matches. Senior co-captains Emily Boyle and Sarah Scheer with sophomore Sarah Humphries and freshman Jennifer Bohnert gave much improved performances and freshman goalkeeper Patty Cowley confidently turned away all five shots sent her direction. The Colonels (6-2) resume play this week against Transylvania University on Thursday, Sept. 25, and DePauw University on Saturday, Sept. 27.

DePauw won twice to improve to 5-1 for the best start since 2001. The Tigers topped Lindenwood, 4-1, and Hendrix 5-1. Lindenwood scored just 14 seconds into the game, but DePauw scored twice in each half to take the win. Katie Sowar and Luisa Myavec each scored first-half goals, while Sarah Riffle scored both over the final 35 minutes. In the win over Hendrix, the Tigers jumped out to a 3-0 first-half lead as Riffle scored twice and Kimberly Trainor added the third goal. Beth Seegers scored both DePauw goals in the second half before Hendrix added a score with just under one minute left.

Hendrix College suffered a pair of conference losses over the weekend. Warriors’ sophomore forward Katie Schaiff posted the Warriors only shot on-goal in the team’s 2-0 loss to Centre College Friday night, before Schaiff scored her second goal of the season in the Warriors’ 5-1 loss to league foe DePauw University Sunday afternoon. Hendrix falls to 1-4 overall and 0-3 in SCAC play. The Warriors will host Lindenwood University Wednesday night and Sewanee-The University of the South on Saturday.

Rhodes did not play this past week and remains a perfect 6-0 on the season. The Lynx will return to action this Saturday as they host Missouri-Columbia in Memphis.

Sewanee was 1-1 on the weekend as the Tigers won 3-2 at Transylvania and lost 3-1 at Wittenberg. Senior Lynn Hancock led the offense with two goals on the weekend. New coach Jen Baldaccini’s Tigers are 4-2 so far in 2008 and will face Hendrix and Rhodes on the road this weekend.
