SCAC CO-OFFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK
Games of September 15 – September 21

ERIN MENARD OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a senior forward from LaGrange, Ky., and BRIDGET NICHOLSON OF RHODES COLLEGE, a junior midfielder from Plano, Texas, have been selected as the SCAC Women’s Soccer Co-Offensive Players-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 15 through Sunday, September 21.

Menard scored three goals this weekend and earned six points. Menard now has five goals on the season and only needs four more to break into the top five SCAC Career Leading Scorers List.

Nicholson scored the game winning goal against #22 Trinity University giving Rhodes their first victory against TU since 1991.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior forward Holly Messamore of Austin College scored what would prove to be the game winner just under seven minutes in against the Crusaders and then assisted on another goal less than five minutes later as the ‘Roo’s put six goals in the net in the first half. Senior forward Katy Phillips of DePauw scored Tigers’ first goal and assisted on the third in 3-0 win over Oglethorpe. Sophomore forward Amy Douglas of Southwestern took full advantage of both her shots against Hendrix on Friday, scoring two goals on her way to bringing home a 3-1 win. Junior defender Meredith Harris of Millsaps scored two second half goals, including the game-winner off a free kick in the 86th minute from 55-yards out that sailed over the keeper’s head, to lift Millsaps to its first ever win over cross-street rival Belhaven, 3-2, on Friday night. Junior defender Julia Zangirolami of Trinity scored a pair of goals and an assist over the weekend to lead Trinity’s women’s soccer team to a 1-1 start to its SCAC season.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:

KATY JOYNER OF RHODES COLLEGE, a senior defender from Dallas, Texas, has been named the SCAC Women’s Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 15 through Sunday, September 21.

Joyner was a key member in both of Rhodes’ victories this past weekend. The Lynx were able to earn their 4th and 5th shutouts of the season with 1-0 wins over #22 Trinity and Southwestern.

Joyner has also been a key contributor in the three straight shut-out victories for the Lynx, two of which are against nationally ranked opponents - #9 Emory and #22 Trinity.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:

Freshman defender Cleo Chappell of Trinity led Trinity’s defense in allowing just one goal in two games over the weekend, finishing with a 1-1 record to open SCAC play. Sophomore defender Sarah Holfield of Southwestern continued to hold opponents’ offensive efforts at bay as she protected the goal against a combined 24 shots for the weekend. Senior defender Jacki Ponder of DePauw led a defense that allowed just two goals on the weekend including a 3-0 shutout of Oglethorpe. Sophomore defender Chelsea Parker of Austin College was a big part of the ‘Roo defense that held the University of Dallas without a shot in a 7-0 victory on September 19 and even got into the scoring column, netting the lone second half goal off of a corner kick as the ‘Roo’s improved to 5-2 on the year. Junior goalkeeper Rosie McAuley of Centre recorded 6 saves on the weekend, helping the Colonels claim two conference victories.

Hendrix, Millsaps, Oglethorpe and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for the award.

AROUND THE SCAC

The Austin College women’s soccer team was dominant in its only game of the week, a 7-0 victory over the University of Dallas on September 19 that lifted the 'Roos to 5-2 overall this season. Holly Messamore got the scoring started early when she found the net in the 7th minute, and then assisted on a goal by Gabby Mavelian less than five minutes later. Mavelian then found Melissa Grimaldo in the 15th minute, and Helen Heres scored six minutes later. It only took another six minutes for the 'Roos to add yet another goal when Olivia Melito found the net, and Sarah Fennwald took a pass from Ali Ryan and put a shot in the net in the 38th minute to make it a 6-0 halftime lead. Chelsea Parker scored in the 71st minute for the only goal of the second half in the rout. Austin College out-shot the Crusaders 23-0 in the match, making the win their fifth shutout of the season. This weekend the 'Roos enter conference play when they host Millsaps on Friday and Birmingham-Southern on Sunday.

Birmingham-Southern women’s soccer was off this week, but return to the pitch this weekend on the road, traveling to face Dallas, Friday, and opening conference play against Austin College, Sunday.

Centre took two games in the SCAC this weekend. Friday night, Centre defeated Oglethorpe 3-1 and got a second win Sunday afternoon – beating Sewanee 2-1. Centre will take on Capital this Saturday, September 27th in Columbus, Ohio.

DePauw splits its weekend matches after losing by a 2-1 count to Sewanee in overtime and then blanking Oglethorpe, 3-0. The Tigers fell behind Sewanee early in the second half, but Julia Drummond knotted the contest at 1-1 on Bridget Coleman's assist at 62:20. Sewanee scored the game-winning goal just 25 seconds into the first overtime. DePauw rebounded on Sunday as Katy Phillips, Sarah McCord and Lauren Hannan each scored once in the win. Brooke Shipley, Lauren Palfrey and Christy Fillenwarth all played in goal and combined to total four saves in the shutout win.

Hendrix went 0-2 over the weekend as they lost, 3-1 to SCAC foe Southwestern University on Friday and 5-0 to Trinity University on Sunday. Southwestern scored quickly when sophomore Amy Douglas found the back of the net in the fourth minute of play. The Warriors held their opponent scoreless in the second half on Friday and allowed just two shots in the final period. Sophomore defender Amelia Wildenborg scored her first goal of the season just before time expired against the Pirates. On Sunday, the Tigers scored their first goal just nine minutes into the contest and managed one more goal in the 41st minute, taking a 2-0 lead into the break. Trinity junior midfielder Julia Zangirolami scored two quick back-to-back goals in the 70th and 75th minute, before first year midfielder Dana Carter found the back of the net with two minutes remaining in the affair. Hendrix junior forward Caitlin McGeehan tallied two of the Warriors’ three shots on the day. The Warriors will travel to Sewanee-The University of the South on Friday and Oglethorpe University on Sunday as they continue SCAC action.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps won two more games this week and earned its first ever win over cross-street rival Belhaven College, using a Meredith Harris free kick from 55-yards out in the 86th minute to come away with a thrilling 3-2 win. On Tuesday at LeTourneau, Millsaps limited the home team to four shots and senior Erin Sanford netted two goals to send the Majors to a 3-0 road win. Senior Bobbi Jones added two more assists to give her six total assists and a league-best 16 points, while GK Elizabeth Sooby added four saves to improve to 10-1-1 in her last 12 starts. The Majors’ 7-0 start is the best in school history and only the fifth time in 21 years with seven or more wins. Millsaps will put its unbeaten streak on the line Monday night, traveling to cross-town rival Mississippi College for a 4 p.m. match in Clinton. That game will be specially streamed on www.atwsportscast.com.

Oglethorpe women’s soccer team began conference play this past weekend by losing 3-1 at Centre on Friday in Danville and falling to DePauw by a score of 3-0 on Sunday in Greencastle. The setbacks were the first losses of the season for Oglethorpe and proved to expensive ones as starting players Bonnie Morscheiser, Jordan Weaver and Christina Robinson each sustained injuries. Sophomore Shannon Dougherty recorded the lone goal of the weekend for the Petrels. Oglethorpe will be back in action this weekend when they host Rhodes College and Hendrix College on Salamone Field.

No. 15 Rhodes women’s soccer team opened SCAC play by defeating Trinity University 1-0. It is the first win for the Lynx against the Tigers in 17 years. Rhodes then defeated Southwestern University 1-0. Rhodes is on a 3 game shut-out streak, two of the shutouts were against nationally ranked opponents. The Lynx will continue SCAC play this weekend on the road at Oglethorpe and Sewanee.

Sewanee women’s soccer was 1-1 on the weekend of SCAC action as the Tigers topped DePauw 2-1 in overtime on a Layne Ezell goal. On Sunday, Audrey Jernigan scored one for Sewanee, but the Tigers fell short and took the 2-1 loss. Sewanee is now 3-2-1 (1-1 SCAC) and will host Hendrix and Rhodes his weekend.

Southwestern came home with a win and a loss on the road against Hendrix (3-1) and Rhodes (0-1). Sophomore Amy Douglas brought home the win against the Warriors scoring two goals, with a third added by junior A.J. Andreola. The Pirates came up blank on the scoresheet against the Lynx but kept the hosts’ hands full, while senior goalkeeper Eryn Snyder dove for 9 saves.

The Trinity Tigers women’s soccer team, ranked No. 22 in the NCAA Division III, completed its Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference trip Sunday with a 5-0 shutout over the Hendrix College Warriors. Trinity, the defending conference champion, improved to 3-2-1 and 1-1-0 SCAC. Rhodes, ranked No. 15, edged the Tigers 1-0 last Friday at Memphis, Tenn. Hendrix stands at 3-3-0 and 0-2-0 SCAC. Tiger junior defender Julia Zangirolami of Katy (Taylor) scored two goals and registered one assist. First-year forward Abigail Loar of Littleton, Colo. (Heritage), produced one goal and one assist. Also scoring were sophomore midfielder Danika Wright of Alpine, Utah (Lone Peak), and first-year midfielder Dana Carter of Lufkin (Lufkin). Trinity returns home next Friday to host Texas Lutheran University at 7 p.m. in a non-conference game.
