SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of September 29 – October 5

ALLISON TERRY OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a senior forward from Lexington, Ky., has been selected as the SCAC Women’s Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 29 through Sunday, October 5.

Terry’s five points helped the Colonels go 2-0 this past weekend. Terry hit the game winning goal in the 65th minute against Birmingham Southern to ensure the 1-0 win.

Terry then added a goal and an assist against Millsaps College. Terry has now accumulated three goals and two assists in the last three games.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior forward Brianna Young of Trinity had a goal and two assists in two games over the weekend including the game winner against Austin College Friday night. Sophomore midfielder Lauren Kiplhe of Southwestern tallied a goal and three assists over the weekend as the Pirates went 2-0. Freshman midfielder Lizzie Butler of Sewanee scored two goals in just 45 mins of play as the Tigers beat Oglethorpe 3-2 Saturday on the Mountain. Sophomore midfielder Alice Hillgart of Rhodes struck on a fantastic free kick from 20 yards out which turned out to be the game winner in the 2-0 win against Hendrix on Saturday. Freshman midfielder Emeline Johnsson of DePauw found the back of the net as she scored the second goal for the Tigers in a 2-0 at Millsaps Friday night. Austin College, Hendrix, Millsaps and Oglethorpe did not nominate anyone for the award.

SCAC CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK
Games of September 29 – October 5

DANIKA WRIGHT OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, a sophomore defender from Alpine, Utah, and BERKELEY MENGWASSER OF SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, a sophomore defender from Bedford, Texas, have been named the SCAC Women’s Soccer Co-Defensive Players-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, September 29 through Sunday, October 5.

Wright led the Tiger defense to two shutouts over the weekend, as the team defeated both Austin College and the University of Dallas.

Wright was key to the defense that allowed just four shots to Austin College on Friday, then held Dallas without a shot attempt in Sunday’s win. The two shutouts run Trinity’s streak to four straight games without allowing a goal. Wright also scored Trinity’s second goal of the game against Dallas, giving Trinity its 2-0 halftime lead.

For the season, Wright is second on the team with four goals this season, and the Tiger defense has four total shutouts. The defense has not allowed a goal in nearly 400 minutes of play (393:30) over its last few games.

Mengwasser pushed both teams out of the Pirates’ half of the pitch over the weekend as Southwestern posted two shutouts over the weekend.

Mengwasser dismantled several Austin College drives allowing only six shots on goal during her time on the field in both games.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior defender Lizzy Wright of Rhodes was a key contributor on the Lynx posting their 7th shutout of the year with a 2-0 win against Hendrix on Saturday. Senior defender Jacki Ponder of DePauw led the Tigers defense in a shutout against Millsaps Friday and scored a goal in a 2-2 tie on Sunday against BSC. Junior goalkeeper Rosie McAuley of Centre earned her first shutout of the season with a 1-0 with Friday night against BSC. Austin College, Hendrix, Millsaps, Oglethorpe and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for the award.

AROUND THE SCAC

The Austin College women’s soccer team dropped a pair of tough games over the weekend, taking Trinity to double overtime before falling 1-0 on a goal in the 107th minute, and then giving up a goal in each half in a 2-0 defeat at the hands of Southwestern. Against Trinity, the ‘Roo defense was spectacular against a strong Tiger team, holding Trinity scoreless through regulation despite being out-shot 32-4 in the match. Kaitlin Elledge was outstanding in the net, stopping seven shots and making several big plays. Against Southwestern Elledge made eight more stops but the Pirates managed a goal just before half and then controlled the pace after the break, adding a late goal to ice the win. This week the ‘Roos will be looking to snap their losing skid when they head out on the road to take on LeTourneau University in non-conference action on October 11.

The Birmingham-Southern Panthers played two tough games this weekend as they hosted Centre and DePauw at the BSC Soccer Park in Birmingham. Saturday’s game was an even match for the majority of the night, but the Colonels came up with the game-winner in the 66th minute off a goal from Allison Terry. Although the Panthers tried furiously in the closing minutes to even the score, they were not able to find the back of the net. It is only the fourth time that BSC has been held scoreless all year. Sunday’s match with DePauw ended in a 2-2 tie following two scoreless overtime periods. The Tigers got off to a very fast start, scoring their first goal just 42 seconds into the match. Serena Murphy found the back of the net off a rebounded ball from the Tiger keeper’s arms, giving BSC the early lead. DePauw answered with two back-to-back goals of their own before the end of the half to take the one-goal lead into halftime. BSC battled back, though, and Emmy Hollis connected with Alicia Plotky in the 65th-minute to even out the match at two goals each. BSC will host Millsaps next Saturday at 6:00 p.m., following the conclusion of the men’s match, from BSC Soccer Park.

Centre took two wins on the road this weekend. Friday at Birmingham-Southern Centre won 1-0 in regulation. Sunday at Millsaps, Centre defeated the Majors 4 – 2. The Colonels’ next match-ups will be at home this weekend when they face Rhodes and Hendrix.

The DePauw Tigers opened weekend play with a 2-0 win at Millsaps as Stephanie Patton scored at 8:23 and Emelie Johanss son added an insurance score with just 2:54 left in regulation. Brooke Shipley recorded seven saves in the win which was just the second for the Majors. Birmingham-Southern jumped out to a 1-0 lead just 42 seconds into the contest but Jacki Ponder and Katy Phillips gave the Tigers a 2-1 advantage midway through the first half. The Panthers knotted the score at the 64:54 mark and the teams battled through scoreless play through two overtimes.

Hendrix junior forward Kate Burnett posted the Warriors only shot in their 2-0 loss to No. 16 Rhodes College Saturday afternoon. The Warriors fall to 4-5 overall and 1-4 in Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference action, while the Lynx improve to 8-2-1 overall and 4-1 in league action. The Lynx scored their first goal just before the break in the 42nd minute and put it past the keeper just before the end of regulation in the 88th minute.

Millsaps (9-3, 1-2 SCAC) was on the losing end of two conference home matches, falling 2-0 to DePauw on Friday and 4-2 to Centre on Sunday. Against the Tigers, Millsaps lost its first game in eight tries dating back to last season and also trailed for the first time all year when they surrendered the go-ahead goal in the 9th minute. On Sunday, two early goals from Centre’s Brittany Garr in the opening eight minutes gave the Colonels a 2-0 lead before Millsaps’ Meredith Harris scored from 40-yards out just before halftime. Centre would answer just four minutes into the second period to extend the lead to 3-1, using a Terry goal off a Casey Yeakel assist after Millsaps goalie Elizabeth Sooby bobbed the previous shot in front of the net. Freshman Jessica Harris would add a goal for Millsaps in the 85th minute, her team-tying sixth of the year, but it was too late as Centre had already built an insurmountable cushion behind Erin Menard’s goal in the 60th minute. Millsaps will try and get back on the winning track next weekend, traveling to Birmingham-Southern for a single game against the Panthers. Kickoff is set for 6 p.m.

AROUND THE SCAC

The Oglethorpe women’s soccer team split two contests this past week, dominating Clearwater Christian 5-0 on Wednesday and falling 3-2 at Sewanee on Saturday night. In the win over Clearwater Christian, the Petrels were led by the phenomenal performance of freshman forward Alexandria Vassell who recorded a whopping 9 points in the game with 4 goals and an assist. Sophomore Mary Beth Horton scored the other goal in the win and also found the back of the net in the second half against Sewanee on Saturday before the Petrels spirited 2nd half rally came to a halt. Senior Alix Stalnaker scored the Oglethorpe’s other goal at Sewanee and the team will look to regroup at 4-5 on the season with a win versus either Trinity or Southwestern in Texas this weekend.

The No. 17 Rhodes women’s soccer team defeated visiting travel partner Hendrix College on Saturday 2-0. Sophomore Alice Hilgart put the Lynx on the board with a free kick from 20 yards out. Then Freshman Julia Clapper scored late in the 2nd half to secure the victory. Goalkeepers Becca Clarin and Stephanie Sermonet combined for the Lynx’s 7th shutout of the year. Rhodes travels to Centre and DePauw this weekend.

Sewanee moved to 6-2-1 so far in 2008 and 4-1 in the SCAC with a 3-2 win over travel partner Oglethorpe on Saturday night. The Tigers scored all three goals in the first half. Oglethorpe made a run late with two goals, but the Tigers held control for the SCAC win. Newcomer Lizzie Butler (Carrabelle, Fla., Wakulla) scored Sewanee's first goal in the 15th minute and then Fritsl Butler (Chattanooga, Tenn., Baylor) added one just three minutes later. Senior Evey Gannaway (Collierville, Tenn., Collierville) assisted both goals. Lizzie Butler added another goal for the Tigers late in the first to send the Tigers into the halftime break with a 3-0 lead. Sewanee, which is on a three-match win streak, will face Southwestern and Trinity next weekend in more SCAC play, as will Oglethorpe.

Southwestern women’s soccer added two more wins to their record, shutting both University of Dallas and Austin College 5-0 and 2-0 respectively. Strong contributions came from midfielder Lauren Kjolhede, who provided a goal and three assists for the Pirates over the weekend, and Eryn Snyder, who dove for six saves in the shutouts, improving her GA average to 0.77. Other notable performances came from A.J. Andreola (2 goals, 1 assist) and Danielle Madison (1 goal, 1 assist).

Trinity opened up its home portion of the SCAC schedule with a win over Austin College on Friday night, and then defeated the University of Dallas on Sunday afternoon. On Friday, the Tigers and ‘Roos played to a scoreless tie through regulation and the first overtime period. In Trinity’s third double-overtime game of the year, Brianna Young lifted her team to the victory by scoring a goal in the 107th minute of action. Young’s goal came with 3:01 left on the clock, keeping Austin College from escaping with the draw. On Sunday, Trinity recorded its fourth consecutive shutout in a 9-0 win over Dallas. Eight different Tiger players scored goals in the game, while Young added a pair of assists. The ninth goal was an own-goal scored by a Dallas defender. Trinity out-shot Dallas 57-0 in the game and had 25 shots on goal. The Tigers will face off against Oglethorpe and Sewanee at home next weekend, continuing SCAC play. Last season, Trinity outscored these two opponents 11-0 combined – including a 10-0 win over Oglethorpe. Trinity and Sewanee played a tight 1-0 game, won on a goal in the 55th minute of play. The last time these two teams played in San Antonio, Trinity won 3-0 in both games.
