SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 20 – October 26

BETH SEEGER OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, a senior forward from Oak Park, Ill., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, October 20 through Sunday, October 26.

Seegers scored the eventual game-winner at Hendrix with a goal during a penalty corner early in the first half and did an outstanding job transitioning the ball from the defense to the attack.

On Sunday Seegers scored the Tiger's first goal late in the second half off the post on a penalty corner then scored the game winner with just under three minutes left in the second overtime.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior forward Beth Faulkner of Centre scored the game winning goal in the Colonels won over Hendrix on Sunday afternoon. Sophomore forward Lindsey Gurkovich of Rhodes scored two of the Lynx three goals this past week including the game winner against Centre. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 20 – October 26

BECCA ROJEK OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, a senior defender from Deerfield III., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, October 20 through Sunday, October 26.

Rojek led the Tiger defense to two conference wins this weekend on the road against Hendrix and Rhodes and a home win over Oberlin earlier in the week. Showing outstanding tackling skill both in the open field and inside the circle Rojek was part of a defensive unit that gave up only 15 shots and 11 corners for the weekend and 20 and 16, respectively, for the week.

Rojek played all minutes in both SCAC victories including overtime and did an exceptional job keeping the offense at bay as the Tigers picked up their 4th shutout of the season.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior goalkeeper Megan Cullen of Rhodes earned 42 saves in three games over the weekend including a 2-0 shutout win against Centre. Freshman goalkeeper Patty Cowley of Centre played two solid matches this past week notching a total of 13 saves. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

AROUND THE SCAC

Centre split a pair of matches this weekend in SCAC play, losing 2-0 at Rhodes and winning 2-0 at Hendrix. Centre out shot the Lynx 10-7 and held a decided advantage in penalty corners but couldn’t breakthrough the Rhodes defense in the loss. However, the Colonels rebounded against Hendrix College scoring two first half goals by sisters Beth and Sally Faulkner. Beth tallied her eighth goal this season while Sally recorded her third. Teresa Johnstone had the assist on Beth Faulkner’s goal. The Colonels played a feisty match against the Warriors after taking a 2-0 lead and thwarted a number of Hendrix penalty corners to earn their lead leading seventh shutout of the season. Centre will play at Transylvania University on Wednesday, Oct. 29, and complete regular season play with a match at SCAC foe Sewanee on Saturday, Nov. 1.

DePauw improved to 12-2 on the season and moved into sole possession of first place in the SCAC after sweeping its conference games over the weekend and posting a 3-0 record for the week and extending its win streak to seven straight. The Tigers opened the week with a 5-1 win over Oberlin on Tuesday as Carolyn Mueller scored twice and added two assists. Katie Sowar, Meredith Ellis and Kimberly Trainor each scored once. Beth Seegers and Ellis scored in the first and second half, respectively, in DePauw’s 2-0 win at Hendrix with Sowar and Trainor each assisting. The Tigers wrapped up the weekend with a 2-1 win at Rhodes as Seegers scored both DePauw goals including the game-winner with just 2:40 left in the second overtime.

Hendrix suffered a pair of 2-0 loss to Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference foes DePauw University on Friday and Centre College on Sunday. Hendrix’s falls to 3-11 overall and 1-6 in SCAC action. DePauw scored its goals in the 12th and 49th minute of action. Hendrix first year forward Liz Williamson and sophomore midfielders Abby Coleman and Heather Newell led the squad with two shots apiece. Warriors’ sophomore goalkeeper Alyssa Havens denied six shots on the night. Coleman and first year forward Lauren Thorburg collected a team high three shots on-goal in the Warriors loss to Centre. Centre scored both goals in the first half with the first coming in the 11th minute off a penalty corner and second in the 20th minute off a rebound.

Rhodes went 1-2 on the week with a loss to nationally ranked Ursinus (#3), a win over Centre, and a double overtime loss to DePauw. The Lynx stayed competitive with powerhouse Ursinus with a 0-1 deficit 30 minutes into play and 0-2 halftime tally but the Bears wore down the Lynx defense later in the game and went on to a 6-0 victory. Lindsey Gurkovich lead the Lynx in Friday’s match up with SCAC rival Centre scoring both goals in the shut out on just 4 shots. Rhodes rounded out the week with a tough 2-1 loss to DePauw in their final home game of the season. Lynx defenders had outstanding efforts in all three matches this week in addition to a strong showing by junior goalkeeper Meghan Cullen, who recorded 42 saves in the 3 matches. This coming weekend Rhodes rounds outs their SCAC regular season schedule at Hendrix (Saturday 11/1, 1 pm) and will also compete at Lindenwood (Sunday 11/2, 2 pm).

Sewanee won easily on their only match of the week as the Tigers defeated Fontbonne 8-1 on homecoming weekend on the Mountain. Sewanee will return to action this weekend as the Tigers host a pair of conference matches in the final weekend of the regular season.
