AROUND THE SCAC

The Austin College volleyball team went 2-1 at the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Tournament this weekend, besting host school Rhodes College for a hard fought 3-2 victory to secure a fifth place finish at the event. The ‘Roos are now 25-12 on the year. The ‘Roos opened the weekend with a 3-1 loss to eventual conference runner-up DePauw on Friday. Jessica Rose had 12 kills and three aces for the ‘Roos, and Delia Mercer added 12 kills of her own. Jordan Anderton had 42 assists in the match while Gloria Carey had a team-best 21 digs. Saturday morning the ‘Roos cruised to a 3-0 victory over Hendrix with Rose once again leading the team with 13 kills. Anderton again tallied 42 assists, while Carey had 11 digs and Jessi Fleming had two solo blocks for the ‘Roos. Austin College wrapped up the weekend with a 3-2 win over Rhodes, with Rose pacing the ‘Roos with 10 kills, 18 digs and four aces in the match. Anderton led the ‘Roos with 43 assists and Jenna Wilson added a pair of solo blocks to lead the team to victory.

Birmingham-Southern closed out the 2008 season on the road, traveling to Atlanta for the Emory National Challenge. On Friday, Oct. 31, the Panthers defeated Lee University in five sets. On Saturday, Nov. 1, BSC split with a 3-0 win over No. 2 Emory and a close 3-2 loss to No. 1 Juniata.

On the final day of the season, the Centre College volleyball team earned a split on day two of the SCAC Volleyball Tournament Saturday, Nov. 8 in Memphis, Tenn. The Colonels fell in a hard-fought five-game match to Rhodes 3-1. Junior Kelly McCoy led Centre with 13 kills and three blocks. Junior Megan Gatewood had 16 digs. Junior Mary Brieschke posted 24 assists, while senior Lindsay Smith added eight kills and six service aces. The Colonels bounced back in their second match to defeat Hendrix 3-0 in the final match for Centre’s two seniors. Centre ends its season 17-25 overall.

Colorado College earned its 11th consecutive NCAA tournament appearance and will play Christopher Newport University in the first-round on Thursday in San Antonio, Texas. CC is making its 18th overall appearance in the NCAA playoffs, where the Tigers have a 7-17 record. CC has a 3-10 record under Rick Swan, who is in his 11th season as head coach. This is the first time the Tigers have been placed in a regional other than the West. CC finished the regular season with a 26-11 record, which tied the 1987 squad for the sixth-most victories in a single season. Sophomore middle blocker Emily Perkins joined four-time All-American Cathy Costello as the only Colorado College players to record 400 or more kills in two different seasons, but she is the first to do it as a freshman and sophomore. Senior outside hitter Anna Clithero has a season-high 26 kills in the five-set loss to Trinity in the SCAC semifinal match. She now has 74 career doubles.

DePauw entered the SCAC Championship seeded fourth and knocked off fifth-seed Austin and top-seed and 13th-ranked Southwestern before dropping the championship match to second-seed and 12th-ranked Trinity. The runner-up finish was the Tigers’ best since 2001. Adrienne Cobb paced the Tigers during the two-day tournament with 2.83 kills and 1.7 blocks per set. Ali Smith averaged 9.3 assists, while Emily Smith averaged 5.4 digs. Katey Larson hit .284 during the tournament. Emily Smith’s 833 digs this year easily broke the DePauw single-season record and Cobb set a new blocks record with 193. Smith’s 5.46 career digs/set established a new DePauw record.

Hendrix opened the 2008 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Championship Tournament with a 3-1 victory over Millsaps College, before losing in the afternoon to No. 1 seed Southwestern University in three sets on Friday at host Rhodes College. Hendrix defeated No. 8 seed Millsaps in a close match 3-1. Warriors’ sophomore outside hitter Becca Clancy led the team with 18 kills, while junior outside hitter Sarah Fuller added 12 kills to the mix. Junior setter Patty Hill dished out 17 assists in the affair and sophomore libero Kim Larson collected 30 digs. Senior outside hitter Ryan Hughes fired four aces. The Warriors’ second match of the day went 13-25, 12-25 and 10-25. Clancy and Fuller paced the squad once again with seven and four kills, respectively. Hill posted a team-best 10 assists, while Larson contributed a match-high 15 digs to the mix. Clancy collected 20 kills in the Warriors’ final two matches of the tournament on Saturday. Hendrix wraps up its 2008 campaign with 14-30 overall record after dropping a pair of 3-0 contests to Austin College and Centre College in the final day of the league’s post-season classic. The Warriors suffered a 22-25, 12-25 and 17-25 loss to Austin in Saturday’s opener. Clancy led the team with 12 kills, while Hill added a team best 16 assists.
AROUND THE SCAC

Milliaps (15-24) fought hard but could not pick up a win in the SCAC Championships losing to both Hendrix College (3-1) and Oglethorpe University (3-2). Leading the way for the Majors was sophomore Kate Hall who had 39 kills (season high 21 kills against Oglethorpe), four digs and seven service aces. Freshman Maggie Tumminello had 23 kills, 21 digs and five service aces. Other contributions for the team offensively came from Toni Manley who had 12 kills, five blocks, Victoria Romano with 11 kills, three blocks and Hailey Miranda with 75 assists, 1 service ace. Leading the way defensively for Milliaps was junior Libero Dixie Krauss with 41 digs.

The Oglethorpe University volleyball team finished their season with a flourish this past weekend by winning two out of three SCAC Tournament contests to secure a 9th place finish in the conference. After falling to Centre on Friday night, 3-1, the Petrels bounced back on Saturday with a sweep of Sewanee and a hard fought 3-2 victory over Milliaps to earn 9th place. With 12 wins on the season, Oglethorpe matched their most wins for a season since 2002 and the 3 conference wins are the best in that same time span.

Rhodes went 2-2 as they hosted the SCAC Volleyball Championship Tournament. On Day one, the Lynx defeated Sewanee 3-0, before falling to Colorado College 3-0. On day two Rhodes defeated the Colonels of Centre College in five sets. After dropping two out of the first three sets, the Lynx came back to win the last two sets. Game scores were 20-25, 25-22, 17-25, 25-23, 15-13. Junior Kelsea Everett led the Lynx with 11 kills and 2 blocks. The Lynx closed out the tournament falling to Austin College in five sets for a sixth place finish.

Sewanee concluded the 2008 season at the SCAC Tournament this past weekend and dropped a pair of matches 3-0 to Rhodes and Oglethorpe. The Tigers end their season with a 3-23 record. Sammie Maddox led the Tiger effort this season with 122 kills and 157 digs. Senior Brittany Roper had 193 assists and 164 digs.

No. 13 Southwestern University ended in third place this weekend at the SCAC Championship Tournament at Rhodes College. The weekend began on Friday with a 3-0 (25-13, 25-12, 25-10) win over Hendrix College. The win moved the Pirates to a semi-final match against DePauw. After dropping the first set (23-25), Southwestern rallied to take the second and third set (25-19, 25-19). Sets number four and five went the way of DePauw (13-25, 10-15) which moved Southwestern to the Consolation game later Saturday night. The Pirates, once again, took care of business by defeating Colorado College in three sets (25-17, 25-14, 25-11). With the victory, the Pirates finished in third place. There were several strong performances by the Pirates over the weekend. Senior Danielle Bochat tallied 23 kills with a .317 hitting percentage while adding 34 digs (3.09 per game). Junior Audra Gentry (SCAC MVP) recorded 35 kills and 25 digs on the weekend, with 16 digs coming in the loss to DePauw. SCAC Freshman of the Year Lindsay Thompson had 13 blocks (6 solo) in addition to 19 kills.

No 12 Trinity won its 11th consecutive SCAC Championship over the weekend, defeating Centre, Colorado College, and DePauw in the conference tournament. As the second-seeded team in the tournament, the Tigers were awarded a first-round bye on the opening day. Trinity and Centre faced off for the third time this season, with the Tigers securing their third win of the season over the Colonels. In day two, Trinity and Colorado College (the No. 3 seed) squared off for a shot in the title match in the second of two semifinal matchups. Trinity evened the season series with Colorado College with a thrilling five-set victory to give itself a shot at the championship. In the finals against DePauw, Trinity played one of its best matches of the year to secure a 3-0 victory for the SCAC Championship. Megan Dudley was named the Tournament MVP for her solid performance last weekend, and was joined by the All-Tournament team by teammates Aly Hazelwood and Megan Guest. The win assures Trinity of its 17th consecutive NCAA Playoff appearance and is the team’s 15th overall SCAC title. The Trinity Tigers will host the NCAA South Region Tournament this week, November 13-15. Trinity will host Christopher Newport, Colorado College, Emory, Southwestern, UT-Dallas, and Webster in the three-day event, which will begin on Thursday at 2:00 p.m. The Tigers will play Webster at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, with the winner taking on either Southwestern or UT-Dallas at 7:00 p.m. on Friday.
