SCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 27 – November 2

AARON PARR OF BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE, a sophomore guard from Atlanta, Ga. has been named SCAC Basketball Player-of-the-Week for games played Saturday, November 15 and Sunday, November 16.

Parr averaged 20.5 points per game in two games at Birmingham-Southern Black Tie Club Classic. He shot 11-18 (66.1%) from the field, 5-of-10 from beyond the arc and added 7 rebounds 6 assists and one steal.

Parr was also named Classic MVP of the Black Tie Club Classic after leading BSC in scoring both days of the classic. His 26 points on Sunday was the most points scored by any player in the four games of the classic. Parr is the returning leading scorer from last season, and looks good early to repeat again this season. (Nathan West is second right now with 29 points). His clutch free throw shooting allowed BSC to hold on to slim leads throughout the Classic and helped build to the decisive wins that resulted.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior forward T.C. Thomason of Centre College scored a game-high 23 points on seven of 12 shooting and added five rebounds to lead #13 Centre to a 67-65 season opening win over Franklin. Sophomore guard Nick Rose of Colorado College averaged 15.5 points per game in being named to the Colorado College Tip-Off Classic all-tournament team. Junior forward Andrew King of Hendrix College recorded a double-double of 18 points and 12 rebounds in the Warriors’ 64-61 season opening loss to University of the Ozarks. Junior guard Blake Martinez of Millsaps College tallied a career-high 17 points on 6-of-13 shooting in Millsaps’ 76-57 loss to cross-street rival Belhaven.
Sewanee-The University of the South did not nominate anyone this week. Austin College, DePauw University, Oglethorpe University, Rhodes College, Southwestern University, and Trinity University did not play.

Hendrix saw an early lead slip away with 6:12 left in the first half and would not see an advantage for the remainder of the game.
