</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 2  Danielle Hubenak, Trinity</td>
<td>Hubenak averaged 23.0 points to lead Trinity to a 1-1 record at the Redlands Tip-Off Classic this past weekend. She scored a career-high 25 points on Friday night in a loss at Redlands, then added 21 points on Saturday to lead the team to a win over Chapman.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 3</td>
<td>Hubenak hit 11-20 (.550) from the field and 21-24 (.875) from the foul line over the weekend, adding five assists and seven rebounds. She also nailed 3-6 three-pointers over the weekend. On Saturday, she hit 14-14 from the free throw line to establish a new school record for most free throws without a miss in a single game. The mark is also tied for the second-best performance in SCAC history.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 4</td>
<td>Hubenak leads Trinity with an average of 17.7 points/game this season, hitting 14-24 (.583) from the field. She has 10 total assists and nine rebounds in three games, and her free throws this past weekend (21-24) were her first this season. She is currently second on the team in assists and in three-pointers made (4-8).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Week 5</td>
<td>Other outstanding performances in the SCAC: Freshman guard Maggie Prewitt of Centre averaged 14.5 points, 5.0 assists and 4.5 rebounds in her first two games of her collegiate career. Junior forward Chelsie White of Hendrix was named the Rhema College Tip-Off Classic MVP after collecting a team-high 13 points against Westminster College on Friday and 10 points against Rhema College on Saturday. Junior forward Katy Williams of Austin College posted averages of 14.5 points, 9.5 boards and 3.5 assists as the Roos split their weekend games with George Fox and Ozarks. Williams hit 12-of-19 shots (.632%) during the University of Dallas Tournament, and added 5-of-7 free throws. Freshman forward Katie Aldrich of DePauw averaged 15.0 points, 6.0 rebounds and 2.0 steals per game, while playing 19 minutes per game. Senior forward Natasha Azizi of Southwestern led all scorers with 16 points on 7-14 shooting, 1-1 from the three-point line in the Pirates victory over the University of Mary Hardin Baylor. She also pulled down a crucial offensive rebound off a missed 1-and-1 free throw with 7 seconds remaining to help seal Southwestern’s 57-53 victory. Senior guard Melanie Auguste of Colorado College averaged 17.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 3.5 steals during a pair of home losses against defending national champion Howard Payne University. Senior forward Biz Richmann of Oglethorpe amassed 36 points, 17 rebounds, 7 assists, and only 4 turnovers. Averaging only 22 minutes for each game, this was quite a feat. Richmann has only 5 rebounds to go to reach the 500 mark, and is also quickly nearing the 1000 point mark as well. Sophomore forward Lauren Gulley of Sewanee scored 26 points on the weekend. Millsaps and Rhodes did not nominate anyone for this award.</td>

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College split its weekend games against George Fox and the University of Ozarks at the University of Dallas Tournament over the weekend, falling to George Fox 69-53 before crushing Ozarks 63-33. Against George Fox, a team that reached the NCAA Division III Quarterfinals last season, the Roos trailed just 31-30 at the break but a big run by GFU to start the second half proved to be the difference. Katy Williams had a season-high 19 points and grabbed nine rebounds while also handing out three assists and coming away with two steals in the loss. Against Ozarks, Kayla Redden drilled 3-10 from downtown on her way to a team-leading 13 points and Kay Williams notched her first double-double of the season with 10 points, including eight in the second half, and 10 boards. Williams again led the Roos in assists with four in the game. The Roos used a stifling defense to top Ozarks surrendering a total of just eight field goals and forcing 23 turnovers. This week the Roos host the Austin College Thanksgiving Tournament, with Southwestern, Gustavus Adolphus and Oneonta State making the trip to Sherman. Austin College will take on Gustavus Adolphus on Friday and Oneonta on Saturday.

Birmingham-Southern went 2-1 this week, starting off with a tough home loss to Louisiana College, Monday night, but going 2-0 at the Coca-Cola/Huntingdon Classic with wins over Rust College and Judson College. Friday and Saturday: Freshman Elyse Clay and junior Chelsey White led the team with eight rebounds each against Westminster then tallying 12 points and seven boards against Rhema. On Friday, White was named to the All-Tournament team after pulling down a game-high 13 rebounds and scored six points in the game. The 44-point win is the fourth largest margin of victory for the Colonels during the SCAC era (defeated Fisk by 68 points 97-29 in 1992-93; defeated Fisk by 62 points in 1992-93; defeated Fisk by 52 points in 1993-94).

Eliese Hansberry and Melanie Auguste combined for 39 points, but it wasn’t enough to get Colorado College past defending national champion Howard Payne University in the season opener on Friday night at Reid Gymnasium. Hansberry poured in a game-high 21 points, making 10 of 15 shots from the floor and one of two free throws. The only thing that was able to curtail her dominating performance was foul trouble. She picked up three fouls in a span of 6:41 early in the second half and fouled out with 2:38 remaining. Auguste scored 18 points and six assists, and tied Hansberry for the game high with seven rebounds. In Saturday’s rematch, Howard Payne University rallied from a 27-19 halftime deficit to defeat CC, 62-48. The Tigers made just seven of 29 shots from the field and converted only six of 16 free throws in the second half. CC had a 27-15 advantage in rebounds during the first half and led by 12 points on two different occasions, including a 23-11 with 3:06 remaining. Auguste paced the Tigers with the game highs of 17 points and nine rebounds. CC plays host to Principia College (6 p.m. Friday) and Midland Lutheran College (1 p.m. Sunday) in the 2008 Colorado College Thanksgiving Classic.

#3 DePauw opened the season with a split of its two games at the Washington University Tipoff Tournament. The Tigers opened with a 77-76 loss 10th-ranked Illinois Wesleyan and finished the weekend with a 75-57 win over Central. In the Illinois Wesleyan contest, Brianna Frigerio's three-pointer with just over two minutes left gave DePauw a 76-73 lead and Illinois Wesleyan tied the game with a three with 36 seconds left. Later, DePauw turned it over with less than four seconds left and the Titans hit one of two free throws with one second left for the win. Cassie Pruzin led the Tigers with 19 points followed by Andrea Travestead with 12 and Katie Aldrich with 10, while Emily Marshall grabbed 10 rebounds. In the Central win, the Tigers pulled away in the second half after leading by five at halftime. Aldrich led DePauw with 20 points, while Katie Mathews followed with 16 and Frigerio added 10. Marshall grabbed nine rebounds, while Pruzin led the way with six assists and four steals. With a second half basket, Pruzin became just the 11th player in DePauw women's history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.

Hendrix completed a successful opening weekend at the Rhema College Tip-Off Classic in Broken Arrow, Okla. The Warriors defeated Westminster College, 70-50, on Friday afternoon before taking down Rhema College, 68-33, on Saturday. Hendrix improves to 2-0 with the pair of wins. Warriors’ junior forward Chelsey Whibley was named the tournament’s most valuable player after collecting a team-high 13 points against Westminster and 10 points against Rhema. First year forward Caty Hensy was named to the All-Tournament team after pulling down a game-high 13 rebounds and scored six points against Westminster then tallying 12 points and seven boards against Rhema. On Friday, White was supported by senior guard Samantha Clark with nine points. Sophomore guard Jamie Sternberg added seven points to the mix. Hendrix forced a total of 35 turnovers and collected 24 steals in the lopsided affair. On Saturday, Hendrix started the game sluggish as the Eagles opened with a early 9-2 lead. The Warriors found their groove and ended the half on a 40-5 run to make it 42-14 at the break. Hendrix had four players in double digits against Rhema as junior guard Amanda Morris led the way with 15 points, Hensy tallied 12, first year guard Avery Roller scored 11 and White collected 10 points. Clark paced the squad with eight rebounds.

AROUND THE SCAC

#2 Oglethorpe continued their early season winning ways this past weekend by defeating Grinell College, 87-60 and Wheaton College, 99-68 in Chicago. The Petrels used a stifling defense all afternoon to force Grinell into 24 turnovers and a woeful 26% shooting effort. By the half, Oglethorpe had built a 16 point 48-32 lead from which they would never look back. Once again, head coach Ron Sattele had the luxury of going to his bench early and often and several reserves hit for career highs. Among them were sophomore Ari Brown who scored a personal best 14 points to go along with 8 rebounds to lead the Petrels in both categories. Freshman Rena Crossland also set a personal best with 10 points of her own on 3 of 7 shooting from the floor. Senior stalwarts Katie Kulavic, Anna Findley, Tina Grace, Hannah Brooks and Biz Richmann were able to watch much of the second half on the bench as the team will prepare to play two games in a 24 hour span. The victory was most especially important for the Petrels’ senior ladies as they have 10 days off before the Lee Pfund Classic title. Katie Kulavic was named the Tournament MVP and Biz Richmann was also named a member of the All-Tournament Team. At 4-0 on the season, the Petrels will have 10 days off before facing Emory on December 2 at 6:00 p.m.

Rhodes rallied to defeat Westminster (MO) 77-72 in overtime of game two of the Rhema College Classic in Broken Arrow, OK on Saturday, November 22nd. Sophomore guard LaKeya McGill (Lexington, TN) was named to the All-Tournament team after she recorded her first career double-double. McGill led the Lynx with 17 points, 10 rebounds, 5 assists and 3 steals. Senior center Cameron Whitaker (Elm Grove, WI) also recorded a double-double, scoring 10 points, pulled down 12 rebounds and had a season high 5 steals. Whitaker also hit two free throws with 1:04 to play to tie the game at 69-69 and force the extra session. In overtime the Lynx never trailed and all five starters scored in double figures. Junior guard Becky Atnip (Greenfield, TN) and senior forward Kristen Lytle (Nashville, TN) each scored 15 points and junior guard Becca Clarin (Clarendon Hills, IL) added 11 points and 7 rebounds.

Sewanee traveled to Baltimore this weekend for the Mike Durgala Memorial Tournament at Johns Hopkins and after falling to the host Blue Jays by six in Saturday, lost a close two-point battle to Albright in the consolation to fall to 0-3 on the year. Anna Wills scored 17 on Sunday and was named to the All-Tournament team. The Tigers will face LaGrange on the road Tuesday.

Southwestern faced off against the University of Mary Hardin Baylor on Saturday, November 22. The Pirates outlasted the Crusaders and won the contest 57-53. Sophomore guard Krista Prato Matthews finished with a double-double, collecting 11 points and 10 rebounds in the loss. Against Champion on Saturday, the Tigers bounced back with an 83-74 win with a 13-2 run over the final 2:55 of the game. Trinity led most of the way, but Chapman staged a comeback late to take the 72-70 lead with just under three minutes left. The Tigers hit 11-14 free throws down the stretch to seal the win. Hubenak again led Trinity with 21 points in the game, hitting 14-14 free throws – including 6-6 in the final minutes. Lindsey Howland had 13 points off the bench, while Prato Matthews chipped in with 11 points and seven boards. Hubenak’s 25 points on Friday marked her career-best performance, and this weekend she had the only two 20-point games of her career. The 14-14 performance at the charity stripe is also a school record for the most free throws without a miss for a single game. Trinity will host the Trips Sports San Antonio Shootout this weekend, opening with Schreiner University on Friday at 6:00 p.m. On Saturday at 6:00 p.m., the Tigers face Lehman College.
