CO-SCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of November 24 – November 30

MELANIE AUGUSTE OF COLORADO COLLEGE, a senior point guard from Cameron Park, Calif., and KRISTA PRATO MATTHEWS OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY a senior forward from Davis, Calif., have been named SCAC Co-Basketball Player-of-the-Week for games played Monday, November 24 and Sunday, November 30.

Auguste was named the Most Valuable player of the 2008 Colorado College Thanksgiving Invitational after leading the Tigers to victories over Principia College, 87-63, and Midland Lutheran College, 68-61. She averaged 17.0 points, 8.5 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 3.5 steals during CC’s two victories.

Auguste had 24 points, 10 rebounds, six assists and four steals in Sunday’s victory over MLC that was for the tournament title. She made 10 of 18 shots from the floor for a .556 field-goal percentage.

Prato Matthews scored a double-double in all three of Trinity’s wins this past week, leading the Tiger women in improving to a 5-1 overall record this season.

Prato Matthews averaged 23.3 points and 16.7 rebounds per game this past week, hitting 25-46 (54.3%) from the field and 20-23 (87.0%) from the foul line in the three Trinity wins. She also had six blocks and five steals to lead the Tigers in both categories.

In Tuesday’s win over UMHB, Prato Matthews scored a career-high 30 points to go with 17 rebounds, then followed that with an impressive 21 points and 19 rebounds in just 22 minutes against Schreiner on Friday. The 19 rebounds tied her previous career high, and she also had three blocks in the game. On Saturday, Prato Matthews hit 9-10 from the line on her way to 19 points and 14 rebounds, dishing out four assists.

For the season, Prato Matthews is second on the team with 17.2 points/game, but leads the Tigers with 14.3 rebounds/game and nine total blocks. She is shooting 49.3% (36-73) from the field and 73.8% (31-42) from the free throw line this year, and is also tied for third on the team with nine total steals.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior post Katy Williams of Austin College had a strong weekend averaging 16 points and 11 rebounds while adding five assists on 53.8% shooting. Junior forward Emily Marshall of DePauw averaged over 11 points and nine rebounds in three games last week for the Tigers. Freshman forward Lauren Hunter of Centre had a solid week for the Colonels averaging 11.7 points, 9.3 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per contest. Freshman forward Caty Hensy of Hendrix led the Warriors with 16 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for her first career double-double. Freshman guard Olivia Coats of Millsaps had two breakout games for the Majors this past week scoring a career high 19 points in the loss to Mississippi College and added another 12 points in the win over Rust College. Senior forward Natasha Azizi of Southwestern tallied her first double-double of the season scoring 25 points on 11-18 shooting and grabbed 13 rebounds in the Pirates loss to Hardin-Simmons. Rhodes and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award. Oglethorpe did not play last week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College split a pair of Thanksgiving weekend games with Gustavus Adolphus and Oneonta State, bringing their record to 2-3 on the year. Against Gustavus, the Gusties used a late 11-0 run to break open what had been a four point game on their way handing the 'Roos a 79-64 defeat. Katy Williams had a big game in the post with 19 points on 8-of-11 shooting, including her first career three pointer as time expired to end the first half. Williams also grabbed eight boards and led the team with three assists. Kersti Marusich had a strong outing, scoring 14 points on 5-of-8 shooting. Against Oneonta, the 'Roos used a stifling defense to hold the Red Dragons to 22% shooting and collected 53 boards on their way to a 55-39 win. Williams notched a double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds, and Maegan Fitzgerald knocked down three triples to finish with 13 points.

Birmingham-Southern split this week, losing to Rhodes, 54-47, Tuesday evening, but winning big against Huntingdon, 93-53, Sunday afternoon, both at home in Bill Battle Coliseum. Against Rhodes, seniors Elyse Clay and Danielle Harbor were impressive, posting double-doubles. Clay recorded 12 points and a career-high 13 rebounds. Harbor recorded 11 points and 12 rebounds. Against Huntingdon, sophomore Courtney Gibson led with 18 points, and senior Fredekra Burrell added 12 points and six assists. BSC is in action on the road, Tuesday, traveling to Marion, Ala., to face Judson College at 6 p.m.

Centre went 1-2 on the week defeating Maryville and falling to St. Catharine and Thomas More. The Colonels opened the week defeating Maryville College 71-60 to open the season 3-0 for the first time since the 2002-03 season. Centre then dropped a pair of games in the Julie Costello Memorial Classic hosted by Thomas More. The Colonels fell 69-63 to St. Catharine for their first loss of the season and then lost 73-51 to No. 7 Thomas More. Centre will open SCAC play Friday at Sewanee and Sunday at Oglethorpe.

Colorado College posted victories over Principia College (87-63) and Midland Lutheran College (68-61) to win the 2008 Colorado College Thanksgiving Invitational. Melanie Auguste scored a game-high 24 points to lead the Tigers past Midland Lutheran in the final game on Sunday and was named the tournament’s MVP. The senior point guard averaged 17.0 points, 8.5 rebounds, 6.5 assists and 3.5 steals during CC’s two victories. Liz Campbell earned her first career victory as a head coach in Friday’s victory over PC.

Freshman forward Becky Luetjen was one of five Tigers who scored in double figures, leading CC with a season-high 14 points. She added 10 points and eight rebounds against MLC and was named to the all-tournament team. The Tigers’ 87 points were the most they have scored in a Division III game since an 88-86 triumph over Wisconsin-Whitewater in the opening game of the 2005-06 campaign, and the 24-point margin of victory was their largest since a 78-51 win over UC Santa Cruz on Feb. 27, 2005. Senior forward Whitney Spooner added a career-high 13 points, while Eliese Hansberry and Alyssa Kallweit had 10 apiece. Colorado College will open Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference play this weekend when it plays host to Trinity University and Southern University on Friday and Saturday nights, respectively.

The Tigers are 3-2 on the season after winning two of three last week. #10 DePauw opened with an 80-72 home win over Anderson before losing to Lehman 65-55 in their first game of the San Antonio Shootout and topping Schreiner, 90-52, in their final game of the tournament. Four Tigers scored in double figures in the win over Anderson led by Cassie Pruzin’s 13, Katie Adrich’s 12 and 11 apiece from Katie Mathews and Andrea Travelstead. Emily Marshall grabbed nine rebounds as the Tigers held a 39-28 edge on the boards. Mathews dished out six assists and Pruzin added five in the win. With the victory the Tigers extended their regular season home win streak to 44 straight and their overall home string to 27. DePauw shot just 32.7 percent from the floor and committed 21 turnovers on the way to the loss to Lehman. Marshall recorded a double-double for the Tigers with 13 points and 11 rebounds, while Travelstead had one as well with 10 points and 11 rebounds. Mathews dished out a game and career-high eight assists in the loss. Pruzin led the Tigers with 16 points, 10 rebounds, five assists and five steals in the win over Schreiner, while Marshall followed with 14 points. Cary Wernitz added 11 and Danielle Boraz scored 10. DePauw outrebounded Schreiner, 46-32, and nailed 5-of-10 three-pointers.

Hendrix first year forward Caty Hensy tallied a team-high 16 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for her first career double-double, while first year guard Anna Roane went 3-of-7 from 3-point land and scored 15 points as the Warriors defeated University of Dallas, 82-52, on Tuesday at the Maher Center. Hendrix improves to 3-0 overall. The Warriors grabbed their only lead of the contest on Roane’s first long ball of the affair with 18:55 showing in the first half. Hendrix never looked back and eventually stretched its lead to 20 points late in the first period. The Warriors did not let up after the break as they led by at least 20 points for the final 14 minutes of the contest. Hensy was 7-of-9 from the field and pulled down six offensive and four defensive rebounds in the lopsided affair. Hendrix first year guard Avery Roller rounded out the double-digit performances with 10 points. Five Warriors’ dished out three assists apiece.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps (2-3) had two strong showings over the weekend. First in the 70-99 loss to Mississippi College the girls had a 19-point lead, but could not hold off the high octane Choctaws who went on a 47-22 run to secure the victory. Leading the way for the Majors was freshman Olivia Coats who had a career-high 19 points on 8-of-13 shooting in addition to five steals. Janice Okeke and LaReina Adams both scored in double figures with the freshman scoring 16 points and the senior scoring 15. The team opened up their first home game of the 2008-09 season with the 86-38 win over Rust College, which snapped a two-game losing streak. The 48-point victory was the largest since the 1996-97 season when the Majors defeated Judson (Ala.) by the score of 99-32. Leading the way in the victory was senior Jessica Bowie who recorded her second triple-double with 14 points, 12 rebounds and 10 blocks in 19 minutes off the bench. In addition to Bowie three other Majors scored in double figures, led by senior Crystal Dickerson with a double-double (16 points, 10 rebounds), 12 points from Coats and 11 points from Okeke. Millsaps will continue a 3-game homestand Dec. 6, welcoming Hendrix College to town to open conference play. Tipoff is set for 3 p.m. and can be seen live streaming video on www.atwsportscast.com.

#2 Oglethorpe was idle this past week. They open conference play this weekend at home versus DePauw and Centre.

Rhodes improved to 3-1 on the season after a 54-47 win at Birmingham Southern on November 25th. The Lynx were led by junior guard Becky Atnip who had a team high 13 points. The Lynx finished a stretch of 4 road games in 7 days with a 3-1 mark and had the Thanksgiving holiday off and will return to the hardwood on Saturday, December 6th for their home opener against the University of Dallas. The Lynx will not play a countable conference game until 2009, when they host Oglethorpe on January 2nd.

Sewanee traveled to LaGrange on Tuesday and fell to the hosts 72-58 after trailing 41-31 at the half. Newcomer Dani Kabbes (Chesterfield, Mo./Villa Duchesne) led Sewanee's effort with team highs in Ne points (15) and rebounds (7). Fellow first year player Linsie Wiesman (Cane Ridge, Tenn./Father Ryan) had 13 points and six rebounds. Sewanee falls to 0-4 and will open SCAC league play Friday and Sunday at home against Centre and DePauw.

Southwestern had a busy week of basketball. On Tuesday the 25th SU took on Hardin-Simmons University at home. Despite a double-double effort from senior Natasha Azizi who put up 25 points and 13 rebounds, the Pirates lost to the Cowgirls 52-71. After a short Thanksgiving break, Southwestern traveled to Sherman for the Southwestern University/Austin College Classic. On Friday, SU lost 55-63 to Oneonta State. The Pirates shot just 30 percent from the field and three-point range for the game. Saturday featured a match-up with Gustavus Adolphus College. Even though the Pirates shot much better from the field, SU could not overcome 27 team turnovers and lost 69-56. Southwestern will next take on the University of Dallas at home on Tuesday the 2nd at 6:00 p.m. before opening up conference play at Austin College on Friday and at Colorado College on Saturday.

Trinity ran its winning streak to four games with three wins last week, improving to 5-1 overall this season. The Tigers opened the week with an 80-71 win at Mary Hardin-Baylor, then earned double-digit home wins over Schreiner and Lehman last weekend as part of the Trip Sports San Antonio Shootout. Krista Prato Matthews dropped a career-high 30 points to go with 17 rebounds against UMHB to start the week, then had 21 points and a career high 19 rebounds in just 22 minutes against Schreiner on Friday night. She capped the week with 19 points and 14 rebounds to go with four assists against Lehman. Danielle Hubenak, who tied her career-best mark with eight assists in the Schreiner game, then recorded her third 20-point game of the season with a career-high 29 points on 10-12 shooting against Lehman. She also had a career-best 11 rebounds in the game, and broke the school record with seven three-pointers in the game, connecting on 7-8 from long range. Trinity will open SCAC play this weekend, facing off against Colorado College and Austin College on the road. Last season, the Tigers defeated both teams at home to open conference play. 2-0. Krista Prato Matthews led Trinity with 22 points, 13 rebounds, and six blocks in a 64-50 win over Austin College last November. Against Colorado College, it was Alexandria Blake who had a career-high 20 points and 11 rebounds to lead Trinity in an 80-52 win last season.
