

Net Games

Head over to the WAC for some Volleyball and Badminton fun! We'll be setting up nets on both courts, so bring your "A" game!!

College Fair

College representatives from across the region will be in Worsham from 5:00 to 7:00pm. Students are encouraged to come meet with them, ask questions, and get a head start on the search for the right college.

Dr. Horrible's Sing Along Blog

A brief look at how "Dr. Horrible's Sing Along Blog" has been a catalyst for change in the entertainment industry followed by a showing of the actual webisodes.

Math Movie Monday: Hunting the Hidden Dimension

The third installment of Math Movie Monday features Hunting the Hidden Dimension, a BBC documentary focusing on fractal geometry and its applications in the real world and nature.

Check Yer Oil Ma'am?: The Corner Gas Station as a Piece of Americana, By a Station Owner's Son

Come back in time when gas was cheap, service was with a smile, and the local service station owner was not only your car's best friend, but your community's as well. We will spotlight the gas station's historical development, as well as vintage advertising.

Creative Session

Let's make some art using different types of media: printmaking, mixed media, watercolor, and charcoal drawing materials provided.

Ballet with a Soul

A dance class incorporating ballet fundamentals with spirituals, hymns, and other soulful music contributions. Explore what happens when ballet is allowed to be expressive. Dance level will be from beginner to intermediate. Participants should be dressed to move. If space permits, onlookers are welcome.

Student Talent Show

As we discovered during the mixer our first night together, you are a class full of students with interesting talents. Your fellow students will put on a variety show that is sure to entertain.

Clinton Library Field Trip Sign-ups

Sign up in the Sun Porch if you are interested in going on a field trip to the Clinton Library in Little Rock on Saturday.

Middle East Peace Panel

Dr. Jacek Lubecki of UALR's Middle Eastern Studies Department will moderate a discussion between Shalich Yuval Haddad, Israeli Emissary to the Jewish Federation of Arkansas, and Nader Abou-Diab, a respected Little Rock businessman and volunteer with the Islamic Center. This panel will present a positive and forward-looking perspective on Middle East peace and educate the audience on what is needed for peace.

Playground Games

Come to the WAC fields to kick, run, and turn left! We'll be playing a giant game of kickball that will never be forgotten.

Website Development Made Easy

Communicating your message online is both a science and an art form. Learn to recognize how to effectively communicate your message and utilize technology tools as we build websites and establish your own online presence which can lead to a commercial or social entrepreneurial success.

Writing for a Cause

Students will examine different ways of using their art to advocate for a cause and discuss the benefits and drawbacks of each.

Understanding Contemporary Judaism

As the world's oldest monotheistic religious tradition, Judaism continues to be a thriving and diverse ethos, or pattern of living, experienced by over 16 million people around the world. Jewish people are just as diverse in faith and practice today, as they were in the past. This presentation will be a Q&A session for those interested in understanding Judaism as a religion in general, and how the diverse movements of contemporary Judaism (Reform, Conservative, and Orthodox) relate to each other.

Mindfulness Experience and Stress Management

Introduction to stress management based upon mindfulness meditation to manage stress emotionally and physically.

The Financial Meltdown of 2008

We'll discuss what happened to the financial system in 2008 and why it collapsed.

Where the Hell Are We

Our maps, movies, books, and blogs all shape our sense of place. But where's that anyway?

Karaoke

Come to Worsham to belt out your favorite song for your fellow students! Sign-ups start at 7:15 pm, so come a little early if you want to perform.

Dodgeball Tourney

Dodge, duck, dip, dive, and dodge! Get your troops together into teams and register during lunch for weekly epic showdowns. As dodgeball-great Patches O'Houlihan would say, "If you can dodge a wrench, you can dodge a ball!"

Fowl Play: Behavioral Anomalies in the Bird World

Lover's revenge, organized crime, egging in a fight, sadomasochism, and infanticide. Terms for behavioral phenomena that aren't as unique to humans as one might think. Come and learn about behavioral quirks of the Avian world.

Art and Propaganda (Part I)

What is art? What is propaganda? Close readings of wartime Disney shorts after some entry points to the conventions and semiotics of propaganda.

The Operas of Richard Wagner

We'll talk about Wagner's operas and their revolutionary impact. We will listen to some snippets and Bugs Bunny may make an appearance.

"Big River"

Mark Twain's novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn is brought to life to the strains to the banjo, fiddle, and harmonica in this Tony Award-winning musical. By hitting the mighty Mississippi with the runaway slave Jim, Huck escapes home and all attempts to "civilize" him. That great river takes the two of them on outrageous adventures and brings them to places as exotic and far away as Arkansas.

The Great Area II Debate

Has the use of electronic technology been a positive or negative addition to the classroom for teachers and students?

Wesley Beal: "Art and Propaganda (Part II)"

Drawing on Monday's discussion of Disney shorts, we will study contemporary films like Iron Man to examine more ambiguous domains of propaganda.

What's In a Presidential Library?

Find out why a community would want one, why researchers go to them, and what they discover there! We'll cover the Carter, Nixon, Reagan, Johnson and Clinton Libraries.

Creative Session

Let's make some art using different types of media: printmaking, mixed media, watercolor, and charcoal drawing materials provided.

Amazing Grace Café Trip

If you received an email notifying you about this trip, meet up at the Altus Bell for a wonderful experience serving others!

Volleyball

We've set the nets up again and are ready for more sets, slams, spikes, and serves. Organize your teams and prepare for round 2!

Kinshasa Symphony (2010)

Documentary showing the travails of African musicians (all amateurs) preparing to perform the last movement of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony for an upcoming outdoor concert in Kinshasa, the capital of Zaire, and one of the most chaotic cities in the world. Directed by Claus Wischmann and Martin Baer. In French and Lingala with subtitles.

Water Balloon Battleship

Prepare to launch. It's ON.

Autism: Fact vs. Fiction

Autism is a hot topic in our society right now. Come and have an in depth, evidence based look into the diagnoses of the autism spectrum. Learn more about the myths surrounding autism and about the facts!

Debate: Georgia Obesity Ad Campaign, Is it Legit?

Are posters of overweight children appropriate for fighting the child obesity epidemic in Georgia? Come check out the ads and participate in a group debate over the legitimacy of these efforts.

A Natural State of Privilege

Social injustice is not necessarily an intentional cognitive process but might actually be the result of our individually benign, yet collective detrimental choices. Come join a discussion about the relationship between individual privilege and social inequalities in the natural state.

Man and His Government

How people decide their "fate?"

Basketball Tourney

Get a team together for some speedy fun! We'll be playing a double elimination 5 v 5 tournament that is sure to not disappoint.

AGS 2012 Quiz Bowl Tournament

Eight team, ACF-style, double-elimination format (20 toss-up & bonuses). Each dorm should register two teams (A & B) with Mark Elrod in person or at elrod@harding.edu before 5:00 pm on Wednesday, June 28. Teams may not be changed after registration. Winning team will play the faculty Quiz Bowl team for AGS supremacy.

Joey Williams' Magic Show

Joey is an award-winning magician as well as an AGS alum! Check out his talent and see if you can find the mystery behind his illusions. You may end up becoming part of the show.

Casino Night

Think you can win big at AGS? Come try your luck with cards, craps, blackjack, and poker. The games will be dealt by your favorite faculty and staff.

Art Catch Up

Noggin knitters and caring card creators: head over for another round to finish up your projects.

Poetry Share

Poetry is so often read silently, but it can be experienced in a new and surprising way when read aloud by another. Bring your favorite poetry with you to both read and be read to by your AGS cohort. Facilitator, Tara Flanagan, will be bringing work from the poets read at the variety show, as well as work from poets such as Langston Hughes and Walt Whitman, poets whose work comes alive when read aloud. Of note, this is not a poetry slam--this is a collaborative, not a competitive, endeavor.

GasLand (2010)

This award winning documentary focuses on communities in the United States impacted by natural gas drilling and, specifically, a stimulation method known as hydraulic fracturing.

Field Day

Get a team together for Tug O' War, come run the three-legged races, play a round of cornhole, or try to win the egg toss!

Women of Tibet - The Quiet Revolution (2007)

The quiet revolution begins on March 12, 1959 when 15,000 unarmed Tibetan Women took to the streets of Lhasa to oppose the violent occupation of their country by the Army of the People's Republic of China (PRC). For the first time on film, three generations of Tibetan women and His Holiness the Dalai Lama tell the story of one of the great movements of nonviolent resistance in modern history. From the streets of Lhasa, Tibet, to their principal refuge in Dharamsala, India, the stories that live at the heart of this film offers an intimate and direct experience of what it is to lose everything and begin anew. This film pays tribute to the courage of these remarkable women and their ability to keep their cultural legacy intact for generations to come.

Soccer Under the Lights

Who plays soccer under the sun when you can play it in the cool of the night?! There will be limited spaces for those attending this game because we'll be staying out til 10pm!