

Press Release

This year, (#) students from (School) have been selected to attend the 2015 Arkansas Governor's School hosted at Hendrix College. (#) students have been selected as alternates. Those selected to attend are (list them and their discipline, as well as their parents' names, if possible). Those selected as alternates are (list them the same as above).

Selection for Governor's School is based on a combination of ability and interest and is highly competitive. The six-week intensive program is in its thirty-sixth year.

More information about the program--including past curriculum, speakers, and films--may be found on the AGS web site at: <http://www.hendrix.edu/ags/>