Hendrix College
Proposed Curricular Revision

Department ___ Theatre Arts and Dance Dept _____ Date August 21, 2006 ___

Proposed change (one sentence summary; please attach departmental catalog copy as it would appear with the proposed change.) Replace TART 110 Speech Communication with TART 110 The Art of Public Speaking

Rationale for course within departmental and collegiate context. (Use separate sheet, if necessary)

In addition to the syllabus info, this course aids in fulfilling the Statement of Purpose in “affording students the opportunity to develop skill and effectiveness in the use of language, the analysis of information, and the communication of knowledge.”

Proposed code(s): Which, if any, course codes (Challenges of the Contemporary World, Domains, Capacities, Physical Activities) will this course fulfill? [ Note that a listing of codes with approved criteria are listed in the Catalog and on the Hendrix website]. Proposed coding: Expressive Arts

On a separate sheet of paper indicate which of the criteria are met by the course, and how the course meets those criteria.

Does this replace a course? ___ YES ______ Specify It replaces the hybrid Speech Communication course that included the study of intrapersonal and interpersonal communication. This course will deal with understanding presentations through group work such as forum, symposium and panel discussions. It will also deal with writing, practicing delivery and performing speeches to inform and persuade.

This will be a x permanent ___ temporary course.

How often will the course be offered? Two courses in the Fall and two courses in the Spring semester.

Prerequisite(s) and/or recommended prior courses:

How will the change be staffed? Same as now

Equipment, supply, and bibliographic requirements (Items and cost) None

Will the above items be covered by a present budget? Same as now

Proposed date of implementation: Spring, 2007

Signatures

Initiator(s) of Proposal ____________________________ ____________________________

Department Chair ____________________________ ____________________________

Area Chair ____________________________ ____________________________

Catalog entry for TART 110 The Art of Public Speaking

This course will study the relationship between the art of rhetoric and public speaking today with emphasis on writing, practicing and performing speeches to inform and persuade.