PART E: Study Abroad

Students must complete at least one study abroad experience that earns at least one Hendrix course credit. Students should seek approval from the IRGS Committee before completing this requirement.

Senior Capstone Experience

Completion of IRGS 400 Senior Seminar will satisfy the Senior Capstone Experience requirement for IRGS majors and may be counted as one course in Part B (bullet 3) of the IRGS minor.

SPECIAL NOTES:

1. Study abroad courses, if approved by the IRGS Committee in advance and in response to student petition, can be used to substitute for courses in Parts A through D above.
2. Independent studies, if approved by the IRGS Committee in advance and in response to student petition, may count as fulfillments for Parts A through D above.
3. Students wishing to major in IRGS in the more “traditional” IR sense should consider taking POLI 250 Global Politics I, POLI 251 Global Politics II, and POLI 260 Political Economy, along with ECON 360 International Economics.

Students wishing to major in IRGS in the “global studies” sense should emphasize language, humanities, and socio-cultural courses where possible.

Students wishing to major in IRGS with a concentration in Economics and Business should emphasize the ECON/BUSI courses listed in Part D above, as well as taking ECON 360.

4. Students should check catalog course descriptions by department for any prerequisites.

International Relations and Global Studies Courses

IRGS 400 Senior Seminar in International Relations and Global Studies (CW, W2)

An advanced seminar course intended primarily for senior IRGS majors and minors. Although the specific content and structure of the seminar may vary from year to year, it intends to bring experienced students of IRGS together to study global issues in an advanced academic setting. Given the explicit interdisciplinary nature of the IRGS program, a contemporary global issue (or issues) will be analyzed from various theoretical perspectives and by multiple methodologies as they are represented by the relative disciplinary strengths of the seminar members themselves. The cumulative result will be a collection of studies, cohering around a common theme or question, but examined from a variety of perspectives and expressed in a variety of media. Completion of the seminar will satisfy the Senior Capstone Experience requirement for IRGS majors and may be counted as one course in Part B (bullet 3) of the IRGS minor.
