

Workday Referral Options (in alphabetic order)

- Academic Success – For students with any academic concern, including those students who might be considering a Leave of Absence or Withdrawing.
Julie Brown (+ disabilities) brownj@hendrix.edu; 505.2954
Charnley Conway (+ tutoring) conway@hendrix.edu; 450.1482
Donna McConnell mcconnell@hendrix.edu; 450.1204
- Counseling Services – For students exhibiting any emotional or psychological challenges. Action may be placed in the student's hands, or you may elect to call Counseling Services to check appointment availability.
Dr. Mary Anne Seibert seibert@hendrix.edu; 450.1448
Ann Wrotny wrotny@hendrix.edu; 450.1448
Kevin Navin navin@hendrix.edu; 450.1448
Coleene Hightower hightower@hendrix.edu; 450.1448
- Public Safety – For any situation where you fear for the immediate safety of a student or any other person on campus. Confirm the student's location, if at all possible.
You may also call 911.
Mike LeBlanc (Chief) – leblanc@hendrix.edu 501.450.7711.
- Residence Life – For students who reference roommate issues, structural housing problems or general adaptation challenges. Students may contact their own (hall-specific) Resident Assistant or any other RA. It's usually optimal if students initiate these contacts themselves. Contact information is provided so you can send a follow up email if you want: housing@hendrix.edu; 450.1416
- Student Outreach Services – For students who are having difficulty adjusting to college life. SOS acts as a referral agency for various College resources.
Christy Coker – coker@hendrix.edu; 501.450.1330

Professors bring tremendous assets to the College, but they are not expected to function as diagnosticians for emotionally stressed students. The purpose of providing this information to professors is two-fold:

- 1) To raise awareness of potential student situations and
- 2) to share tools for addressing these situations.

After-Hours Referral Options (in order of level of concern)

- Public Safety – 501.450.7711 For any situation where you fear for the immediate safety of a student or any other person on campus. Confirm the student's location, if at all possible.

You may also call 911.

If the student is in your office, you may request (through public safety) that Residence Life come to meet you (on-campus).

You may request (through public safety) that Residence Life check on the student as soon as possible. There is always someone in charge of the residential life "duty-phone" (through Public Safety).

You may specifically request that an RA provide a check-in over the weekend. "Stealth" check-ups are also possible.

Mike LeBlanc (Chief) – 501.450.7711; leblanc@hendrix.edu.

- Residence Life – For students who reference roommate issues, structural housing problems or general adaptation challenges. Students may contact their own (hall-specific) Resident Assistant or any other RA. It's usually optimal if students initiate these contacts themselves. Contact information is provided if you wish to follow up: housing@hendrix.edu