ENGL 490 Special Topics (LS, W2)
The special subject of the seminar will be determined on a year-by-year basis.

ENGL 497 Senior Thesis Seminar (W2) [UR]
This seminar course taken during the spring of the senior year focuses on students’ independent research projects in the discipline. Departmental faculty and other seminar members will provide input and critiques as the student works toward a significant piece of original literary criticism. At the end of the semester, the project will be presented/defended orally. Each student must have a second reader (advisor) in addition to the ENGL 497 instructor; the student must solicit the second reader and receive approval of the project idea by Fall Break of the senior year. The second reader does not necessarily need to be an English Department faculty member. The ENGL 497 instructor and the second reader will consult to determine the student’s grade. This course is limited to senior English majors.
