AROUND THE SCAC

Austin, in its third SCAC Tournament appearance, came up on the short end of a 53-47 score in SCAC Semifinal action to DePauw. Kola Alade led the 'Roos with 14 points on 6-for-19 shooting. Also chipping in for Austin College was Scott Straley who scored 12 points and grabbed three rebounds and Chris Sturtevant who scored nine points and grabbed six rebounds. The Tigers held Austin College to 7-for-26 shooting (26.9 percent) in the first half. With the loss, the 'Roos finished the 2009-10 season with a school record 20-7 overall record and a 12-4 mark in conference play.

Birmingham-Southern did not play.

Centre won its third SCAC Tournament title in the last four years and has qualified for its fourth consecutive NCAA Division III Tournament. The Colonels opened the tournament defeating the host, Millsaps, 64-49, and then defeated Trinity 62-44 in the semifinals. The championship game saw Centre defeat DePauw for the third time this season, winning this game 60-56. The Colonels, now 18-8 overall, will travel to Harrisonburg, Va. to play Eastern Mennonite University in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Colorado College did not play.

DePauw finished the 2009-10 season with a 20-8 record and in second-place at the conference tournament. The Tigers opened with wins over Southwestern (67-60) and Austin (53-47) before losing in the championship game to Centre (60-56). Drew Wills was named to the all-tournament team after leading the Tigers with 11.7 points per game and shooting nearly 64 percent from the floor. His 17 points in the semifinal win over Austin were a career high. David Gray paced the Tigers with 8.0 rebounds per tournament game with Tom Callen following with 7.3. Tony James led the way with 4.0 assists per contest. The season marked the ninth time in school history a Tiger team has reached the 20-win plateau and second in the last four years.

Hendrix did not play but sophomore forward Nick Heathscott earned All-SCAC Second Team honors, while senior guard Cal Rose received All-SCAC Honorable Mention in the 2010 ballot after exclusive voting by league coaches. Heathscott led the Warriors this year with 16.5 points per game (2nd in SCAC) and 7.2 rebounds per game (7th in SCAC). His .530 field goal percentage also ranked second in the league. Heathscott has accumulated 528 points and 231 rebounds in his first two seasons. Rose picked up the third Honorable Mention award of his illustrious career. The four-year starter finished as the Warriors’ all-time NCAA Division-III 3-point leader with 248 treys which rank fifth on the SCAC’s all-time list. Rose tallied 1,261 points and is the fourth Warrior to reach the SCAC’s 1,000 point club. He knocked down 241 free throws and his .814 free throw percentage ranks second in Hendrix’s D-III era.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps made an amazing run to qualify for the 2010 SCAC Tournament, but the Majors could not keep the magic alive as it took a four-point lead into halftime before being outscored 40-21 in the second half as Centre College rallied for the opening-round victory Friday afternoon at The Hangar Dome, 64-49. Senior guard Blake Martinez, the SCAC Player-of-the-Week last week got the Majors going in the first half with 14 points to lead all scorers at the break but the Colonels' defense shut him down in the second half holding him to zero points on 0-for-7 shooting. Centre took advantage of its size down low and outscored the Majors 32-8 in the paint. The Majors finished the season with an overall record of 12-14. Martinez was later named an All-SCAC Second Team selection after being a Third Team honoree in 2008-09.

Oglethorpe's season came to an end in the Friday quarterfinals of the SCAC Tournament in Jackson as the Petrels fell to Trinity, 61-52. Oglethorpe scored on four consecutive possessions late in the second half on a jumper by Todd Ward, a 3-pointer by Alex Richey and then back-to-back three-balls from David Allison to open up a 52-45 lead over the Tigers with 6:08 remaining. The Petrels, however, would not score again as Trinity closed the game on a 16-0 run to stun Oglethorpe and end their season in disappointing fashion. On Saturday, junior forward Todd Ward was named to the All-SCAC First Team, junior guard Alex Richey received Third Team honors and senior guard David Allison garnered Honorable Mention status. Oglethorpe finished their season with a 15-11.

Rhodes dropped their opening round SCAC Tournament game to Austin College. The Lynx placed three players with double digit points, as freshman Andrew Galow led with 22 points. Senior Reid Hamilton scored 18 points and grabbed four rebounds while sophomore Kory Kilpatrick chipped in 11 points and a team-high eight rebounds. Galow also grabbed four rebounds and handed out four assists. Senior Andyshea Saberion scored nine points, grabbed four rebounds and dished out two assists. Rhodes shot a season high 39 free throws, connecting on 30 of those for a 76.9 percent. The Lynx trailed by only three at half. Rhodes fell behind by double digits before cutting the deficit to four with just over two minutes to play but could not complete the comeback. On the season, Rhodes finished 10-16 overall and 4-12 in the SCAC.

Sewanee did not play.

Southwestern ran out of time in the second half as their comeback from 20 points down fell short as they were knocked out of the SCAC tournament by DePauw 67-60. The first half started as a shoot out and continued that way as both teams were hot from the floor early but DePauw took a slight four point lead with just over eight minutes to play in the half and built on it throughout the remainder of the first period. The Tigers seemingly hit everything they put up going 15-26 from the floor (57.7%) and 10-18 (55.6%) from long range in the first half, posting 45 points to SU’s 26. With the loss the Pirates end the year at 16-10 overall and 9-7 in the SCAC.

Trinity, the SCAC West #2 seed, made a run to the semifinals of the SCAC Tournament, but could not get past eventual champion, Centre College, which came in as the top seed from the East Division. Trinity defeated Oglethorpe behind a record-setting performance from Luke Caldarera in the opening round. Caldarera scored 26 points to lead the team to victory, which broke Trinity’s record for the most points in a single SCAC Tournament game. In the loss against Centre, Caldarera reached another milestone for his career, becoming the 23rd player in school history to record 1,000 career points. He earned All-Tournament honors for his performance over the weekend.
