SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

AMY HEBBELER OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a freshman midfielder from Ft. Wright, Ky., has been selected as the SCAC Women's Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, August 31 through Sunday, September 6.

Hebbeler came off the bench in all three wins for the Colonels during the week to contribute five goals. In the season opener, on the road against Asbury College, Hebbeler posted three shots scoring two before returning home for two matches over the weekend which she added three more goals.

Hebbeler while playing an average of just forty minutes a game still leads the SCAC in a number of different statistical categories early on in the '09 season including shots (14), goals (5) and points (10).

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior midfielder Leslie Robichaux of Millsaps moved into sixth all-time at Millsaps with her 21st career goal, scoring three in a pair of Millsaps wins, including two game-winners. Robichaux had two goals in the season-opening win at La. College, and the lone goal in a 1-0 win over ETBU. Senior midfielder A.J. Andrulea of Southwestern scored three goals in two games on 11 shots for a .273 shot percentage. She has one game winning goal and logged six points over the week. First year forward Ashley Gallegos of Hendrix led the squad with a hat trick in the Warriors' 7-0 win over Louisiana College on Saturday. The El Paso, Texas native also dished out a pair of assists to end her first collegiate match with eight points.

Sophomore forward Abigail Loar of Trinity scored two of Trinity's three goals over the past week, both of which were game winners, leading the team to a 2-0 start to the 2009 season. Freshman forward Kelsey D'Amore of Austin College scored twice in her first week of collegiate soccer, finding the net against Fontbonne and scoring what proved to be the game winner against LeTourneau. Sophomore forward Ashley Ladd of Rhodes notched a goal and an assist in the Lynx 3-0 victory over Ozarks (Ark.). Junior forward Shannon Dougherty of Oglethorpe helped the Petrels off to a 2-0 mark with a game winning assist in Oglethorpe’s 2-1 win against Agnes Scott and the game tying goal on a blast from 25 yards out in the 2-1 win over Spelman. Junior forward Stephanie Patton of DePauw scored a first half goal against 16th-ranked Chicago which tied the game up at 1-1. Sewanee did not play last week.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

KAITLIN ELLERIDGE OF AUSTIN COLLEGE, a junior goalkeeper from Ft. Worth, Texas, has been named the SCAC Women's Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, August 31 through Sunday, September 6.

Elledge had three shutouts in three games last week, stopping all six shots she faced in helping secure a tie against UT-Dallas and two wins over Fontbonne and LeTourneau.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior defender Danika Wright of Trinity was a leader in the Tigers defense that allowed just 10 shots over the past week while grabbing two shutouts in as many games. Junior defender Carol Wicker of Rhodes played all 200 minutes for the Lynx over the weekend and was vital in the first shutout of the season. Freshman defensive midfielder Emily White of DePauw spearheaded a defense that allowed just two goals to 16th-ranked Chicago and one in 110 minutes to 21st-ranked Carleton. Junior goalkeeper Sarah Nelin of Millsaps turned in back-to-back shutouts against Louisiana College and East Texas Baptist to post a 2-0 record in net. Junior defender Jessie Defendall of Centre was a staple in the Colonels defense that helped to a 3-0 mark to start the year. Defendall also chipped in on the offensive side as well with two assists. Senior defender Abby Blaney of Hendrix guided the Warriors' backfield in their 7-0 season-opening win over Louisiana College on Saturday. The Hendrix backfield allowed just two shots, neither was on-goal. Oglethorpe and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for this award. Sewanee did not play last week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College opened its season with three straight shutouts, tying UT-Dallas after two overtimes and trouncing Fontbonne 5-0 and LeTourneau 3-0. Kaitlin Elledge, who had six shutouts a year ago, was in the net for all three shutouts last week and made six saves. First year player Kelsey D’Amore scored two goals and Ali Ryan added a goal and two assists on the week, while Annie Gunter and Amy Holman each had a goal and an assist. Shelley Casey also got into the scoring, finding the net against Fontbonne, while Ali Fidel and Mackenzie Lund each scored against LeTourneau. Next up for the ‘Roos is a home contest against Mary Hardin-Baylor on September 8.

Birmingham-Southern made easy work of the visiting Huntingdon College Hawks, winning 8-0 in their season opener at BSC Soccer Park. Senior Serena Murphy returned from a season-ending injury last season to give the Panthers their first goal of the season off a nice cross from Sierra Menton. The goal turned out to also be the only scoring goal as the Panther defense allowed just one Hawk shot on the night. Menton scored her own goal on the next trip down the pitch to get her first of two on the night, putting BSC up 2-0 and the Panthers took over from there. Linda Amaya scored in the 11th-minute, and Alicia Plotky added the Panthers’ fourth in the 32nd, putting ‘Southern up 4-0 at the half. Devon Weldon got her first collegiate goal in the 68th-minute. Then Menton and Plotky each got their second goal of the match, all in the span of ten minutes. Adding to the Hawks woes on the night, in the 79th-minute a Huntingdon defender attempting to clear the ball out of bounds misfired and sent the ball shooting past her own keeper, giving Jillian Theibert her first goal of the season due to her proximity to the play. The Panthers will take this momentum and try and carry it over on the road Monday, as they face Auburn-Montgomery at 4:00 in a Labor Day matchup with the Senators.

Centre earned three wins in their opening three matches. This weekend the Colonels head to Greencastle, Ind., to participate in the DePauw University Showcase. Centre plays Wittenberg University Friday, Sept. 11th at 5:30 pm and Denison College Saturday, Sept. 12th at 2:00 pm.

DePauw opened the season with three games against teams ranked in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Preseason Top 25 Poll and came away with an 0-2-1 record. The Tigers opened at home with a 2-1 loss to 16th-ranked Chicago as the teams battled to a 1-1 tie through the first 45 minutes. The visiting Maroons scored early in the second half and took a 2-1 win. Stephanie Patton scored the Tigers’ lone goal at 32:17. The Maroons outshot the Tigers 12-6, but DePauw had two corners to Chicago’s one. Caroline Kerr totaled three saves for DePauw, while Chicago’s Emma Gormley had two. DePauw then faced 11th-ranked University of Puget Sound at the Bob Baptista Invitational at Wheaton (Ill.) College and dropped a 4-0 decision to the Loggers. The Tigers wrapped up the week with a 1-1 tie against 21st-ranked Carleton. DePauw trailed 1-0 at the half, but Julia Drummond scored just 16 seconds into the second half and the teams were scoreless through regulation and both overtimes. Carleton held a 29-21 edge in shots, while each team finished with seven corners. Lauren Palfrey recorded five saves in the first half, while Caroline Kerr posted six saves and didn’t allow a goal in the second half and both overtime periods.

Hendrix College first year forward Ashley Gallegos ignited her collegiate career with a hat trick to lead Hendrix College to a 7-0 season-opening win over Louisiana College on Saturday afternoon. Gallegos totaled eight points on the day with three goals and two assists, while junior midfielder Lydia Nash dished out three assists and four other Warriors scored one goal apiece. It took Hendrix 22 minutes to crack the scoreboard, when senior forward Kate Burnett put the ball past the keeper off an assist from Gallegos. The next two forwards traded places for the next goal with Gallegos scoring and Burnett assisting in the 28th minute. Gallegos connected with Nash for her second goal of the contest with four minutes remaining in the first half. First year midfielder Kaleigh Knapton scored her first collegiate goal off an assist from sophomore midfielder Lindsey Abel in the 41st minute, and then Gallegos and Nash combined once again to put Hendrix up 5-0 in the first half. The Warriors tallied 24 shots in the first half, compared to the Wildcats’ two. Goalkeeper Emily Breaux made 12 saves for Louisiana in the first half, while sophomore Allison Mosley did not face a shot on goal the entire game. Abel scored Hendrix’ first goal of the second half off Nash’s final assist of the game. First year forward Ana Contreras slipped the Warriors’ final ball past the keeper in the 88th minute off an assist from Gallegos.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps put together a 2-0 week to open the 2009 season. The Majors opened with a 3-0 shutout victory on the road Tuesday night at Louisiana College and followed it up with a 1-0 shutout win over East Texas Baptist University at home Sunday afternoon. Senior Leslie Robichaux led the team offensively, scoring three of the team’s four goals, two of which proved to be game-winners. Backstopping the defense was junior goalkeeper Sarah Nelin, who finished the week allowing zero goals against and making four total saves in the two contests. Millsaps will remain home for its next match Wednesday night when they take on the Yellow Jackets from LeTourneau University at 7:00 p.m.

Oglethorpe won both their games in the opening week of the season to post a 2-0 record. In the opener against Agnes Scott, Oglethorpe got a late goal off the foot of freshman Courtney Phillips in the 80th minute to seal a 2-1 win. Shannon Dougherty fed Phillips with a beautiful cross from 20 yards out for the game winner and Lexi Vassell got the scoring underway for Oglethorpe on an unassisted effort early in the game’s 59th minute when Vassell fed Dougherty for a perfectly executed blast from 25 yards. As the clock ticked down, sophomore Eliza Newland buried a free kick from 30 yards in the game’s 82nd minute to spring the Petrels to victory. The Oglethorpe women are back on the pitch this Thursday afternoon when they face Tennessee Temple on Salamone Field at 3:30 p.m.

Rhodes started the 2009 season in quick fashion, when Ashley Ladd scored 8 minutes into the first game of the season against the University of the Ozarks. Also scoring in the 3-0 victory for the Lynx were Melissa Coquelin, and Alice Hilgart. Zoe Clark, Ashley Ladd, and Mae Casey provided the assists for the goals. In the second game of the Rhodes Classic, the Lynx tied the University of Texas-Dallas 1-1 after 110 minutes of soccer. Bridget Nicholson scored the equalizer with 23 minutes left in the game. UTD and Rhodes battled out the remainder of time and 2ot’s for the draw. The Lynx return to action this weekend when they travel to Abilene, TX to face East Texas Baptist University, and Hardin-Simmons University.

Sewanee did not play last week and will kick off the 2009 soccer season as the Purple Tigers will host Covenant College on Tuesday up on the Mountain.

Southwestern has opened the season in impressive fashion scoring seven goals over a two game period to start 2009 2-0. The Pirates opened at home against Mary Hardin-Baylor on Tuesday with a 3-1 win. They dominated most of the game taking eight more shots (14-6) than the Crusaders. Amy Douglas led the way with one goal and one assist in the opener. Saturday, SU traveled to Howard Payne University and wasted no time getting on the board scoring just six minutes into the game when Douglas found AJ Andreola. The Pirates scored two more times in the half to go up 3-0 and then added one more on for good measure in the second half to win 4-0. Andreola led the way for SU with two goals in the game on seven shots. Keepers Sarah Nonaka and Cheryl Duncan have been splitting time in goal and recorded two games a piece over the weeks action.

Trinity opened up its season with a pair of shutout wins at home last week, defeating Texas Lutheran 2-0 on Tuesday, then edging Hardin-Simmons 1-0 in overtime on Saturday. The Tigers tallied eight shutouts in 18 games last season, but already have two at the start of this year. Goalkeeper Katie Garrett has recorded four saves in two games, and senior All-Region defender Danika Wright has led a defense that held the two opponents to just 10 total shots. Abigail Loar, last season’s SCAC Newcomer of the Year, knocked in two of the team’s three goals last week, with both goals being game-winners. Loar tied for third on the team with six goals last season. Trinity will wrap up its four-game homestand to start the year with two more games this weekend. The Tigers face UT-Tyler on Friday night, then take on UT-Dallas on Sunday afternoon. Last season, Trinity went to double-overtime on the road against both teams, beating UT-Dallas 2-1, but tying UT-Tyler 2-2.
