SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Games of September 7 – September 13

LIBBY JONES OF RHODES COLLEGE, a sophomore forward from Prairie Village, Kan., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, September 7 through Sunday, September 13.

Jones led the Lynx this weekend with the first game winning goal of her career in the team’s shutout victory over Hendrix. Jones was responsible for seven of the Lynx 16 shots on the day and is an integral part of the team’s penalty corner offense.

In two games this season Jones has tallied four points, good for second on the team behind junior Lindsey Gurkovich.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Freshman forward Barbara Parks of Centre recorded two assists and led the Colonel attack in two SCAC wins the past week over DePauw and Sewanee. Senior forward Sarah Riffle of DePauw was a part of all five of DePauw’s goals in the 5-0 win over Transylvania on Sunday. Riffle scored three and assisted on the other two. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Games of September 7 – September 13

LEAH OBERST OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a sophomore back from Louisville, Ky., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, September 7 through Sunday, September 13.

Oberst played two superb matches for the Centre College Colonels in consecutive shutout wins against DePauw University and Sewanee-University of the South. Oberst and the Colonels limited both opponents to 12 combined shots and controlled play throughout the majority of both matches.

Oberst, who missed all of last season with a knee injury, has been a welcome addition for the Colonels with her game intelligence and strong defensive skills.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior sweeper Laura Deines of Rhodes controlled the Lynx defense from her center back position which led to its first shutout victory of the season. Senior defender Becca Rojek of DePauw led a defense which gave up just nine shots and one goal in two games over the weekend. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

AROUND THE SCAC

Centre recorded two shutouts on the road this week against SCAC rivals DePauw University and Sewanee-University of the South. Centre beat DePauw 1-0 on Friday, Sept. 11, in a closely contested match featuring few legitimate scoring opportunities. Senior Rachel Watkins (Chicago, Ill.) scored the only goal of the match on a penalty corner assist from junior Sarah Humphries (Baltimore, Md.). The Colonels played a solid defensive match limiting DePauw's scoring chances and controlling play the final 15 minutes of action. On Sunday, Sept. 13, Centre defeated a very talented and strong Sewanee team 3-0. The first half was fiercely played and ended on a penalty corner goal by Humphries assisted by freshman Barbara Parks (Chapel Hill, N.C.). The Colonels and the Tigers battled through the early stages of the second half until freshman Erin Bacon (Williamsburg, Vir.) scored on a penalty corner - again assisted by Parks - the take a 2-0 lead. Freshman Anna Fuller (Cincinnati, Oh.) Finished the scoring for the Colonels with an open play goal from the top of the circle assisted by a nice pass from fellow freshman Sydney White (Louisville, Ky.). Centre is now 4-0 on the season with two shutouts and nine different players recording goals.

DePauw moved to 3-2 on the season and 0-1 in SCAC play after splitting their two games. The Tigers lost to Centre by a 1-0 score on Friday in a game which included just seven shots. Centre's game-winning goal came early in the second half. The Tigers then blanked Transylvania on Sunday as Sarah Riffle scored three and assisted on the other two. Katie Sowar scored one and added two assists, while Kimberly Trainor added the other goal. The Tigers outshot the Pioneers, 42-6, in the win and held a 3-0 edge at the break.

Hendrix opened its SCAC season with a 3-0 loss to Rhodes College, despite a 10 save effort from junior goalkeeper Alyssa Havens on Saturday afternoon at Warrior Field. The Warriors stand at 1-1 overall after the SCAC season opener and will now look ahead to their Sept. 18 game at Lindenwood University in St. Charles, Mo. Rhodes cracked the scoreboard in the 28th minute when sophomore Libby Jones put the ball past the keeper off junior Lindsey Gurkovich’s first assist of the game. Sophomore Chelsea McLeod then scored the second goal of the game on a penalty stroke in the 50th minute of play. Junior Hillary Relyea connected with just under three minutes remaining off another assist from Gurkovich. Junior defender Heather Newell led the Warriors with three shots, two on-goal. Junior forward Abby Coleman added two shots on-goal, while sophomore midfielder Lauren Thorburg and first year forward Kelly Rappe both had a shot on-goal.

Rhodes earned their first shut out of the season in their SCAC opener at Hendrix this past Saturday with a 3-0 win. Libby Jones led the team’s offensive efforts with the first game winning goal of her career with 7 minutes remaining in the first half. Mid way through the second half Chelsea McLeod added a second goal for Rhodes on a penalty stroke. The Lynx put the game away on a goal by Hillary Relyea with just 3 minutes to go. Lindsey Gurkovich added two assists on the day and generated much of the attack. Laura Deines had a spectacular defensive save late in the second period and Valerie Clarke earned the shutout in cage with 5 saves. Rachel Webb and Sara Sanders also put in strong efforts on the defensive end. The Lynx outshot the Warriors 16-8 while Hendrix secured 6 penalty corners to Rhodes’ 5. The Lynx will travel to Louisville this coming weekend to compete against Division II’s Bellarmine and in region rival Kenyon.

Sewanee topped Transylvania on Saturday 4-1 before falling to SCAC foe Centre 3-0 on Sunday. The last meeting of the Tigers and the Colonels was in the 2008 SCAC Tournament Championships, in which Sewanee came out on top 1-0. Cameron Herndon, Elise Landau, Caroline Carlin and Anne Booke scored for Sewanee on Friday. Anna Morrow and Emily Detmer split time on goal this weekend. The Tigers are 1-2 so far and will host Catawba and Sweet Briar this weekend.
