AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College had the week off. The 'Roos are back in action October 10-11 in Conway, Ark. at the SCAC West/Central Cross #2. Austin College is 16-3 overall and 5-2 in Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference play.

Birmingham-Southern went 4-0 this weekend at the SCAC East/Central Divisional, hosted by Rhodes College. On Saturday, the Panthers defeated DePauw, 3-2, and Sewanee, 3-0. On Sunday, BSC swept Oglethorpe and Hendrix, 3-0, for its sixth straight win to move to 9-7 on the season. Senior Sarah Harris led BSC in kills in all four matches, averaging 3.71 kills per set. The Panthers travel to Conway, Ark., this weekend for the SCAC West/Central Divisional #2, taking on No. 15 Southwestern University, No. 12 Colorado College, No. 16 Trinity University, and Rhodes.

Centre traveled to Rhodes College to participate in the SCAC East/Central Cross Divisional. The Colonels went 3-1, beating Sewanee and Hendrix 3-0 and Rhodes 3-2 before dropping their match to Millsaps 0-3. This marks the first time in over five years that Centre has gone better than 2-2 at a conference tournament and the first time in five years that the Colonels have beat Rhodes College. Next up for the Gold and White will be a home match against Defiance College on Friday night at 7:30pm.

No. 12 Colorado College stretched its winning streak to six matches with a 3-0 victory over Division II Colorado Christian University on Friday night. The three-set victory was CC's 12th in 19 matches. Sophomore setter Amy Schornack had 23 assists and posted season highs with seven kills and a .545 hitting percentage. She also added tied her career high with four of the Tigers' 10 service aces. Junior middle blocker Emily Perkins led the Tigers with 11 kills and had a hand in six of CC's nine blocked shots. The junior middle blocker finished with a .450 hitting percentage with just two errors on 20 total attacks. Junior middle blocker Erika Pirotte had a team-high 11 digs. Colorado College evened its record against Division II opponents at 1-1. The Tigers have three more matches against Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference opponents this season, beginning Tuesday night when CC plays host to No. 18 Metropolitan State College.

DePauw improved to 17-5 overall and 5-2 in the conference after winning three of four matches at the SCAC Central/East Divisional. The Tigers opened with a 3-2 loss to Birmingham-Southern before topping Rhodes by a 3-2 count. They then won both Sunday matches by 3-0 scores over Hendrix and Oglethorpe. For the weekend, Katey Larson led the Tigers with 2.62 kills per set, while Kristen Chynoweth hit .267 and averaged 0.7 blocks per set. Ali Smith averaged 8.9 assists, while Kylee Lehrman totaled 11 service aces and Madison Hoenig averaged 4.3 digs per set.

Hendrix went 2-3 on the week with a non-conference win over Bacone College on Tuesday and a 1-3 record in the SCAC Central vs. East crossover this weekend. The Warriors took down Oglethorpe, 3-1, in their first game of the weekend before losing three-straight games via straight sets to end the crossover tournament. Hendrix lost to Centre, DePauw and Birmingham-Southern to wrap up the tournament. The Warriors now stand at 7-14 overall and 2-5 in SCAC action. Hendrix was led by junior outside hitter Becca Clancy with 22 kills, while junior middle blocker Leah Groat and first year outside hitter Katie Bates added 20 kills on the weekend. First year setter Danielle Young tallied 55 assists and sophomore setter Ashley Skinner collected 42 assists. Junior libero Kim Larson paced the squad with 73 digs in the four matches over the weekend.

AROUND THE SCAC

Millsaps (10-9, 3-4 SCAC) ended a successful week where they went 4-1 in a non-conference match at Loyola Univ. (La.) and four matches at the SCAC Central-East Divisional. In New Orleans, the Majors pulled off a come-from-behind victory in five sets to earn the season sweep over the Wolfpack. Traveling to Memphis, Tenn. for four important conference matches, Millsaps opened with host Rhodes and lost 3-2 in five sets after claiming the first two sets. The rest of the weekend belonged to the Majors as they swept through the next three matches with 3-0 wins over Oglethorpe, Sewanee, and Centre. Millsaps will hit the road again for a non-conference match at Rust College before heading to Hendrix College for another weekend of SCAC play.

Oglethorpe dropped all four conference matches this past weekend in Memphis, Tenn. The Stormy Petrels fell to Hendrix, 3-1 and then were swept 3-0 by Millsaps, Birmingham-Southern and DePauw. Oglethorpe is now 8-12 on the season and will step out of the conference this coming weekend for matches with Berry College and Agnes Scott.

Rhodes finished the weekend 2-2 at this weekend's Central-East Divisional. In the team's first match, the Lynx pulled off a victory against Millsaps after being down 0-2 to win the battle in five sets. Setter Laura Jensen earned another triple double on the weekend with 10 kills, 11 digs and 46 assists. The Lynx then dropped two more five set battles to DePauw and Centre. Senior outside hitter Kelsea Everett led the team with both matches with 38 kills. The Lynx came back to beat Sewanee in their final match of the tournament. Sophomore outside hitter Claire Warren led the team with 17 kills while hitting .519 on the afternoon.

Sewanee played at the SCAC Central-East Divisional in Memphis and took losses to Centre, Birmingham-Southern, Millsaps and Rhodes. On Sunday, Sammie Maddox led the tigers with 10 kills, while Erin Brahm had 20 assists. Adrienne Borchardt had four aces on the day. The Tigers are now 2-15 on the season and 0-7 in SCAC play. Sewanee will travel to Holly Springs, Miss. on Friday for a non-conference matchup with Rust College.

No. 15 Southwestern had the week off from competition. They will have a non-conference game on Tuesday night at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor before returning to conference action in Conway, Ark. over the weekend at the SCAC West/Central Cross #2.

No. 16 Trinity won its only match of the week, defeating Our Lady of the Lake University 3-0 at home on Thursday evening. Trinity lost a 3-2 match earlier this season to OLLU. The Tigers were led by Madison McMahon's 18 kills and .640 hitting percentage. Amy Mittelstaedt added 14 kills in the match, while Caiti Troyer had 42 assists and 11 digs (both team highs). Trinity will host UT-Brownsville on Wednesday evening, then will travel to Hendrix College for the second SCAC West-Central Tournament of the year. The Tigers will face hosting Hendrix, Millsaps, Birmingham-Southern, and Austin College.
