SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 5 – October 12

BRIANNA YOUNG OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, a senior forward from Rockville Centre, N.Y., has been selected as the SCAC Women's Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, October 5 through Sunday, October 4.

Young had two goals and two assists over the weekend, leading the Trinity Tigers to a pair of road wins over Birmingham-Southern and Millsaps.

Young scored the game-winning goals in both games over the weekend, as well as adding assists on the other two goals scored by the team.

For the season, Young leads the team with seven goals, six assists, and 20 points. Her five game-winning goals are also the most on the Tiger team this year, and that total makes 12 in her career at Trinity.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Freshman forward Laura Flink of Rhodes scored the game-winning goal against DePauw. Freshman forward Courtney Phillips of Oglethorpe poured in six points in a 5-0 blanking of Atlanta Christian College scoring two goals and assisting on two others. Junior forward Amy Douglas of Southwestern had seven shots and two assists over the weekend. Junior midfielder Brittany Garr of Centre scored the game-winning goal against Hendrix on Sunday afternoon. DePauw, Hendrix, Millsaps and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award. Austin College did not play this week.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 5 – October 12

DANIKA WRIGHT OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY, a senior defender from Alpine, Utah, has been named the SCAC Women's Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, October 5 through Sunday, October 11.

Wright led a Tiger defense that posted a pair of shutouts on the road last weekend, allowing just seven total shots and only two shots on goal.

Wright and the Tiger defense allowed just four shots and two corner kicks to Birmingham-Southern on Friday night, then held Millsaps to just three shots and two corner kicks on Sunday afternoon.

The defense, led by Wright, has recorded eight shutouts in nine games this season, giving up just one goal overall. The Tigers have recorded four shutouts in their last four games.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Senior goalkeeper Becca Clarin of Rhodes played 220 minutes in two games allowing just one goal and recording two saves in SCAC action. First year defender Rebecca Rahn of Hendrix paced a warriors defense that allowed just two goals over the weekend. Senior defensive midfielder Laura Kromann of Southwestern played every minute of every game over the weekend for the Pirates anchoring the midfield. Senior goalkeeper Rosie McAuley of Centre earned two shutouts over the weekend with three saves for the Colonels. Junior goalkeeper Sarah Nelin of Millsaps had nine total saves, an .818 save percentage and posted a 0-1-1 mark between the posts for the majors this weekend. DePauw, Oglethorpe and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award. Austin College did not play this week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College was idle this week, the ‘Roos will return to action this Friday at home against Oglethorpe.

Birmingham-Southern (7-5-0) Panthers split a tough pair of matches this weekend with no. 6 Trinity and Southwestern. Trinity shutout the Panthers on Friday 3-0, but BSC got back on the smiling side of the scoreboard on Sunday with a hard fought overtime win against Southwestern, 3-2. Trinity did not score its first goal until the 31st minute on Friday, but scored two more goals less than ten minutes into the second half for the 3-0 win. The Panthers were held scoreless into halftime of Sunday’s match with the Pirates, but three minutes into the second half the Panther’s offense woke up. Sara Menton connected with a feed from Linda Amaya to tie the match at 1-1 in the 48th-minute, and Lydia Rice scored off a free kick in the 61st to put the Panthers up 2-1. The Pirates re-tied the score in the 67th-minute at two goals apiece. The Panthers were unable to retake the lead in the period, though Serena Murphy came very close in the final minute of regulation with a shot that rolled just wide right of the post to force the game into overtime. Both teams continued to battle into the extra time, but the Panthers came out on top thanks to a Linda Amaya goal from Alicia Plotky six minutes into the overtime period. The Panthers will return to the field this Friday, but they’ll be doing it on Hawaiian time. BSC will travel to Laie to take on BYU-Hawai‘i before heading to Kaneohe on Saturday to face Hawaii Pacific University. Aloha!

Friday night in Memphis, Tennessee, after heavy rains that would force a change of venue and a delayed kick-off time - Centre tied Rhodes College 0-0 through two overtime periods. For the Colonels, the match was certainly a tale of two halves. Though the Colonels would see a very sluggish first half, they would make some much needed adjustments at the half and go on to play a much improved second half. For the match, Centre outshot Rhodes 12-3 and would lead the Lynx in corner attempts at 6-5. In a very physical match-up Sunday afternoon, Centre defeated the Hendrix Warriors 1-0 in Conway Arkansas. Brittany Garr would score the game winner in the 86th minute off of a solo shot from 20 yards out that went over the head of the goalkeeper. The Colonels out-shot the Warriors 14-5 and lead in corner attempts 11-2. Centre would allow only one shot-on-goal for the match. For the season, Centre has recorded 8 shut-outs. Centre’s next match-ups will be on the road in Texas - Friday, October 16th at Trinity and Sunday, October 18th at Southwestern.

DePauw scored early goals in both weekend games and came up with a 1-0 win at Hendrix and a 1-1 tie at Rhodes. Alex Ehr score just 1:10 into the Hendrix game and it proved to be the game-winner. Lauren Palfrey and Caroline Kerr split time in goal for the shutout. Ehr scored just 15 seconds into the game at Rhodes, but the Lynx scored midway through the second half to tie the game. DePauw is 4-5-4 overall and 2-1-1 in the conference and travels to Southwestern and Trinity this weekend.

Hendrix College suffered a pair of 0-1 SCAC losses over the weekend to DePauw on Friday night and Centre on Sunday afternoon. The Warriors fell to 7-4 overall and 2-2 in conference play. They will look to bounce back from the two losses when they host Sewanee on Oct. 23. The Tigers scored early on a cold and windy night at Warrior Field and that is all it would take to defeat the Warriors. Hendrix sophomore goalkeeper Allison Mosley made nine saves after letting the first shot touch the back of the net. The Colonels took the opposite route and scored late on another cold and windy day on the pitch. Centre scored its game-winner with just 3:52 remaining in regulation.

Millsaps was held without a win this past weekend, posting a 0-1-1 record with a double overtime draw against Southwestern University on Friday and a 1-0 loss to No. 6 Trinity on Sunday. Junior forward Hayley Nemeth scored the Majors’ lone goal on the weekend in the 68th minute against SU to salvage a tie, while junior goalkeeper Sarah Nelin had nine total saves and a .818 save percentage. The Majors will continue a four-match homestand on Oct. 20, welcoming cross-town rival Mississippi College to Harper Davis Field for a 7 p.m. kickoff.

AROUND THE SCAC

Oglethorpe won their only match of the week in style over non-conference foe Atlanta Christian, 5-0. The Petrels got two first half goals from freshman Brittany Brotherton that were assisted by fellow freshman Courtney Phillips to easily outclass the Chargers. Phillips added two goals of her own in the second half, the first assisted by Shannon Dougherty and the second by Sasha Alonzo, en route to collecting six points on the evening.

Freshman Jenna Ostuw capped the scoring on an unassisted effort and Sarah Nania was only tested once in the goal all evening by Atlanta Christian. The Petrels are now 4-5 on the season and will travel to Texas this weekend to face Austin College and the University of Dallas.

Rhodes battled the Colonels of Centre College Friday night for 110 minutes, but neither team was able to find the back of the net. Both sides produced chances, but the goalkeepers played well, coming up with some big saves to keep the clean sheet. Despite the relentless pressure from the Lynx throughout both overtimes, the game ended in a 0-0 draw. The women's soccer team found themselves once again playing in overtime. This time it was with a score line of 1-1. This marks the third straight SCAC game that has gone the full 110 minutes of soccer. Rhodes found themselves down a goal very early in the contest, when Alexandra Ehr scored just 15 seconds into the game. She was assisted by Bridget Coleman. The Lynx were able to regroup and fight back to keep the score line 1-0 at half. The Lynx would answer in the 66th minute when sophomore Laura Flink (Dallas, TX/J.J. Pearce) finished an assist from freshmen Mae Casey (New Orleans, LA/Academy of the Sacred Heart). The Lynx would press for the game winner, but their best opportunities were cleared off the line twice by the DePauw defense. Toward the end of regulation, the Lynx would clear a DePauw shot off the line as well. Both teams were unable to create a lot of quality scoring chances in the overtime periods. Senior Becca Ciarin (Clarendon Hills, IL/Hinsdale Central) made 4 saves for the Lynx. Lauren Palfrey and Caroline Kerr combined for 3 saves for DePauw. The Tigers would out shoot the Lynx 14-7, but the Lynx held the advantage in corner kicks 7-2. The Women’s Soccer team is back in action following fall break, when they host Oglethorpe University on Friday Oct. 23rd. The game will be held at the Mike Rose Soccer Complex in conjunction with the Wolfe River Soccer Classic. Game time is scheduled for 5pm.

After Friday's match at Maryville was postponed for weather, Sewanee hosted NAIA member Milligan Saturday night and after gaining a 2-0 lead, ended in a 2-2 draw following a Milligan rally late. Sewanee led 1-0 at the half. Faith Spencer (New York, N.Y., Hotchkiss) scored Sewanee’s first goal, followed by a successful header by Virginia Zakas (Atlanta, Ga., Westminster) in the second. Both goals were assisted by Lacy Morrison (Signal Mountain, Tenn., Baylor). Sewanee outshot the Buffaloes 20-9 and took six corner kicks compared to two for Milligan. Britt Williams (Birmingham, Ala., Altamont) got the start in goal for Sewanee with a save. The Tigers are now 6-1-2 and are unbeaten at 2-0-1 in the SCAC. They will play at Dallas and Austin College next weekend.

Southwestern went 0-1-1 over the tough road trip weekend. The Pirates found themselves in two overtime matches including a double-overtime match at Millsaps. Friday, the Pirates and the Majors could muster one goal a piece and closed the contest in a 1-1 tie in 2OT. Sunday, Southwestern took on Birmingham-Southern and the Pirates got on the board early and maintained their lead through the first half, but the Panthers scored early in the second to tie it up. After trading goals the rest of the way the teams found themselves tied 2-2 at the end of regulation, forcing SU into their second overtime match of the weekend. This contest would end six minutes into overtime on a BSC goal to hand the Pirates their third loss of the season. SU sits at 7-3-1 on the season and will host Hardin-Simmons University on Tuesday in a non-conference match before playing host to DePauw and Centre on the weekend.

No. 6 Trinity remained unbeaten this season with a pair of road wins over the weekend. Trinity defeated Birmingham-Southern 3-0 on Friday night to start the weekend, then edged Millsaps 1-0 on Sunday afternoon. Brianna Young scored the game-winning goals in both games, as well as adding two assists on Friday night. Abigail Loar and Kelly Watts also scored a goal and an assist each for the Tigers against BSC. Katie Garrett had a save in each game to push the team total to eight shutouts in nine games this season. Trinity’s defense yielded just seven total shots in the two games. Trinity will host Centre and DePauw in a pair of SCAC games this weekend, beginning on Friday night. Last season, Centre defeated Trinity 1-0 in Danville, Kentucky, with a goal late in the first half being the only score of the game. Against DePauw last year, Trinity scored once in each half to earn a 2-0 road win to finish the regular season.
