SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 19 – October 25

BESS GOODMAN OF SEWANEE; THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH, a freshman forward from Greensboro, N.C., has been selected as the SCAC Women’s Soccer Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, October 19 through Sunday, October 25.

Bess scored game-winning goals in both of Sewanee’s shutouts this weekend. The Tigers beat Hendrix 1-0 on Friday and Rhodes 2-0 on Sunday.

The weekend marked the seventh and eighth shutouts for Sewanee so far in 2009. The Tigers are 9-1-3 and 4-0-2 in the SCAC.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Junior midfielder Brittany Garr of Centre scored the game winning goal for the Colonels this weekend against Maryville College and the lone goal of the week as Centre went 1-0-1 also posting a 0-0 tie against Mt. St. Joseph. Sophomore midfielder Dana Carter of Trinity tallied two assists to lead the to a 4-0 SCAC victory over Southwestern University on Saturday evening. Senior forward Kate Burnett of Hendrix recorded her first career hat trick in a 4-0 win over Oglethorpe University 4-0 on Sunday afternoon. Sophomore forward Laura Fink of Rhodes was dynamic over the weekend for the Lynx and she dicked her way through defenses creating a number of scoring chances. Senior forward Annie Gunter of Austin College scored the game winner in the 94th minute for the ‘Roos as Austin College topped the University of Dallas 1-0 in their only match of the week. Millsaps, Oglethorpe and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for this award. DePauw did not play this past week.

SCAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 19 – October 25

LIZZIE HUBBARD OF CENTRE COLLEGE, a senior defender from Hilton Head Island, S.C., has been named the SCAC Women’s Soccer Defensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played from Monday, October 19 through Sunday, October 25.

Hubbard has played an instrumental role in solidifying the Colonels’ defense and in many instances boosting their offense as well. Wednesday at Centre, Hubbard recorded three shots and two S.O.G in the Colonels’ 0-0 double-overtime tie with the College of Mount Saint Joseph. For the match, Centre allowed only 9 shots.

Saturday afternoon at Maryville College (Tenn.), Hubbard again contributed on both sides of the ball. Offensively, Hubbard recorded two shots and two S.O.G. Defensively, she helped the Colonels hold the Scots to only one shot during the 2nd half of regulation play. With the 1-0 double-overtime win, Hubbard helped the Colonels earn their 10th shut-out-of the season.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Freshman defender Margaret Eggers of Millsaps led the Majors to a 1-1 mark this week, including the Majors’ first ever win against MS College in which she headed in the game-winner in the 26th minute for her first collegiate goal. Senior defender Lacy Morrison of Sewanee anchored the Tigers defense this weekend as the Sewanee racked up shutouts of SCAC foes Hendrix and Rhodes, allowing just 14 shots all weekend. Freshmen midfielders Brittnn and Euers of Trinity not only led the Tiger defense to its ninth shutout of the season in a 4-0 win over Southwestern, but Euers also scored the eventual game-winning goal on Saturday. Junior goalkeeper Kaitlin Elledge of Austin College made four saves in the net to earn the shutout victory in a 1-0 overtime win over the University of Dallas in the team’s lone game of the week. Sophomore goalkeeper Allison Mosley of Hendrix allowed just one goal over the weekend and recorded her eighth shutout of the season (2nd in SCAC). Freshman defender Emily Shaw of Rhodes was producing on both sides of the pitch this weekend. In Rhodes’ 3-0 victory over Oglethorpe, Shaw was involved in every goal, scoring the first two on her own and assisting on the third. Oglethorpe and Southwestern did not nominate anyone for this award. DePauw did not play this week.

AROUND THE SCAC

Austin College went 1-0 on the week, traveling to Irving to defeat the University of Dallas 1-0 in overtime in rainy conditions on Saturday. After failing to get a goal despite a big shot advantage in the game, Ali Ryan found Annie Gunter for a score in the 94th minute of action to lift the 'Roos to the 1-0 victory. The goal was Gunter’s sixth of the season, tying her for the team lead in the category. The 'Roos, who are now 8-4-2 on the year, head on the road this weekend to take on Hendrix and Rhodes.

Birmingham-Southern traveled to Jackson, Mississippi over the weekend to face SCAC foe Millsaps College. The Panthers picked up a 2-0 win with goals from Sara Menton and Lydia Rice improving to 9-6 on the season.

In nearly 220 minutes of play, the Colonels have allowed only 20 shots by their opponents. Wednesday evening at Centre, the Colonels earned their 9th shut-out of the season in their 0-0 double-overtime tie with the Lions of the College of Mount Saint Joseph. The Colonels would outshoot the Lions 38-9 and lead in corner attempts 13-3. Saturday afternoon at Maryville College (Tenn.), the Colonels defeated the Scots (who had not allowed a goal in 900 minutes of play) 1-0 in double-overtime. It would be a match that saw the Colonels allow only one shot in the 2nd half of regulation play. Centre’s goal came in the 109th minute of play following a Maryville foul just outside of their penalty area. Junior Brittany Garr hit the free-kick which was driven through both Maryville and Centre players before passing just inside the near-post of the goal. On the match, the Colonels out shot the Scots 27-12 and led in corner attempts 5-4. With the win, the Colonel’s earned their 10th shut-out of the season and improved to a 10-4-3 overall record.

DePauw did not compete last week, but are home for three games this week as they host Rose-Hulman on Tuesday, Millsaps on Friday and Birmingham-Southern on Sunday.

Hendrix College’s loss to Sewanee -The University of the South on Friday night marked the Warriors’ third consecutive 0-1 loss in SCAC competition, however, the Warriors snapped their three-game skid with a dominating 4-0 victory over Oglethorpe University on Sunday afternoon. Hendrix improves to 8-5-0 overall and 3-3-0 in conference play (5th in SCAC with nine points), and will look for its first nine-win season since going 10-5-1 in 2001 when they host Austin College and University of Dallas on Oct. 30 and Nov. 1, respectfully. Sewanee first year midfielder Bess Goodman took a pass from sophomore midfielder Lizzie Butler and hammered home her first goal the year for the game-winner on Friday night. Hendrix senior forward Kate Burnett highlighted Sunday afternoon’s match with a hat trick to lead the Warriors. Burnett recorded her first collegiate hat trick on a pair of assists from senior forward Caitlin McGeehan and one dish from first year defender Rebecca Rahn. Burnett scored from about 18 yards out in the 24th minute, inside the box in the 48th minute, and bent a shot in from right end line in the 59th minute. She now ranks second on the team with six scores this season, just one goal behind first year forward Ashley Gallegos. Warriors’ junior midfielder Lydia Nash scored the game’s opening goal and her second of the season on a superb free kick from about 25 yards out. Hendrix sophomore goalkeeper Allison Mosley had another outstanding day in front of the net with 11 saves for her eighth shutout of the year (2nd in SCAC).

Millsaps (7-5-3, 1-3-2 SCAC) finished the week with a 1-1 record after earning the program’s first-ever victory over rival Mississippi College 1-0 Tuesday night at Harper Davis Field as freshman Margaret Eggers headed in her first collegiate goal for the game-winner. Hosting Birmingham-Southern College Friday night, the Majors gave up two goals early in the first half goals and lost 2-0. The Majors hit the road this weekend for two important conference matches with DePauw University and Centre College.

AROUND THE SCAC

Oglethorpe lost two SCAC contests on the road this past weekend, falling to Rhodes by the score of 3-0 on Friday and losing to Hendrix 4-0 on Sunday. With the decisions the Stormy Petrels are now 5-8 in the 2009 season. After consecutive weekends on the road, Oglethorpe returns to Salamone Field this Friday for action against Trinity.

Rhodes was impressive Friday night against Oglethorpe, earning a decisive 3-0 shutout. Emily Shaw, who plays right back for the Lynx, was involved in all three goals. She scored two goals in the first half (one unassisted, the other assisted by Ashley Ladd), then earned the assist on a goal scored by Bridget Nicholson in the second half. Stephanie Sermonet earned the shutout tonight, playing all 90 minutes in net for the Lynx and tallying 5 saves. Sunday’s game was a close one, both teams fighting hard to the finish, but like the men’s side, the women couldn’t seem to finish their chances. Sewanee finally went ahead in the 59th minute, then added an insurance goal in the 71st minute, and it proved to be just a little too much for the Lynx. Becca Clarin played in net for Rhodes, coming up with 4 saves.

Sewanee earned its seventh and eighth shutouts of 2009 with a 1-0 win over Hendrix Friday and a 2-0 shutout of rival Rhodes on Sunday. Bess Goodman (Greensboro, N.C.) led the offense with the game-winners on Friday and Sunday. Britt Williams (Birmingham, Ala.) earned two more shutouts in goal on 13 shots faced. The Tigers are now 9-1-3 and unbeaten at 3-0-2 in the SCAC. They will host Southwestern and Trinity on Sunday.

Southwestern was unable to upset the #4 Trinity Tigers on Saturday night as they fell 4-0. The loss drops SU to 7-7-1 overall and 1-3-1 in the SCAC conference while the Tigers remain undefeated at 12-0, 5-0. The Pirates managed just seven shots during the contest while Trinity had 22. First-year Sarah Nonaka recorded eight saves throughout the match while TU’s keeper Garrett had just one. SU heads east for their final road trip of the season. They face Sewanee on Friday at 7:30 pm and Oglethorpe on Sunday at 1:00 pm.

No. 4 Trinity defeated Southwestern 4-0 in its only game last week, remaining unbeaten in SCAC play. The Tigers scored two goals in each period to earn the victory, which was the team’s ninth shutout of the season. Lindsay Euers, the reigning SCAC Defensive Player of the Week, scored the eventual game-winner in the 16th minute. Danika Wright and Katy Lipscomb also added goals. The goals were the first in the young careers of first-year players Euers and Lipscomb. Brianna Young scored the game’s final goal, marking her eighth consecutive game with a goal this season. That is the longest streak since the 2000 season for a Tiger player. Trinity will take its final road trip of the regular season this weekend, facing off against Oglethorpe and Sewanee. The Tigers defeated Oglethorpe 6-0 last season and edged Sewanee 3-2. Both games were played in San Antonio.
