SCAC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Games of October 26 – November 1
CHARLIE WAGNER OF RHODES COLLEGE, a junior midfielder from Madison, N.J., has been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Offensive Player-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, October 26 through Sunday, November 1.

Wagner scored both goals in the Lynx 2-1 overtime win at Centre this weekend. Wagner scored both on penalty corner opportunities, the first on the Lynx second corner of the game just 2 minutes into play and the second on the Lynx first overtime penalty corner just 4 minutes into overtime play.

Wagner is now second on the team in scoring with 6 goals and 4 assists. Wagner is the Lynx and possibly the region’s most skilled player and covers the entire field from her center mid position. Selected as a captain by her teammates, Wagner is a fantastic leader on and off the field.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Freshman forward Jessica McLean of Centre tallied three points on the weekend as the Colonels split a pair of matches over the weekend against Rhodes and Hendrix. Freshman midfielder Bridgetter Shamleffer of DePauw scored the Tigers first goal and assisted on the other in DePauw’s 2-0 win over Sewanee. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

SCAC CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYERS OF THE WEEK
Games of October 26 – November 1
MEGHAN CULLEN OF RHODES COLLEGE, a senior goalkeeper from Chapel Hill, N.C., and BECCA ROJEK OF DEPAUW UNIVERSITY, a senior defender from Deerfield, Ill., have been selected as the SCAC Field Hockey Co-Defensive Players-of-the-Week for matches played Monday, October 26 through Sunday, November 1.

Cullen earned the win in goal recording seven saves in the 74 minutes of play. Cullen is second in the SCAC (behind teammate Valerie Clarke) and 14th in the nation in goals against average at 1.11 and first in the conference and third in the nation in save percentage at .872. Cullen is a vocal presence for the Lynx and also a leader on and off the field.

Rojek limited the number of Sewanee opportunities by making strong tackles in the open field and slowing down the transition. On the day the Tiger defense gave up only one shot and one corner, racking up their sixth shutout of the season.

Other outstanding performances in the SCAC:
Sophomore defender Jennifer Bohnert of Centre played two superb matches for the Colonels over the weekend limiting offensive chances against both Rhodes and Hendrix. Bohnert anchored a defense that posted a shutout against Hendrix on Saturday. Hendrix and Sewanee did not nominate anyone for this award.

AROUND THE SCAC

Centre dropped a feverishly contested match to Rhodes College in overtime on Friday, Oct. 30, but recovered with a 3-0 win over Hendrix to secure the #2 seed in the SCAC Championships this coming weekend. Freshman Jessica McLean led the Colonels in points this past week with a goal and an assist. Freshman forward Barbara Parks increased her SCAC leading assist total (9) on McLean’s goal, while freshmen Sarah Jessee and Maddie Cristofoli and junior Cynthia Morse also added goals. The Colonels finish the regular season at 12-4 (6-2 SCAC) and will play DePauw University in the semifinal of the SCAC Championships at Hendrix College this weekend.

DePauw improved to 11-7 on the season and finished SCAC play at 5-3 with a 2-0 win over visiting Sewanee. Bridgette Shamleffer gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead on Sarah Riffle's assist at 42:31 before Kimberly Trainor added an insurance goal at 54:16 on Shamleffer's assist. DePauw held a 19-1 advantage in shots and a 16-1 margin in penalty corners. Liz Attewell recorded one save in posting the shutout. The shutout was the Tigers’ sixth on the season.

Hendrix suffered a pair of losses in its final week of regular season action. Hendrix dropped a 0-1 overtime deficit to Transylvania University on Friday and a 0-3 SCAC loss to Centre College on Saturday evening. The Warriors fall to 3-12 overall and 1-7 in conference play. Hendrix will look to break out of its three-game slump when the squad hosts the 2009 SCAC Field Hockey Championships this weekend. The Warriors take the No. 4 seed and will face No. 5 Sewanee in the tournament’s opening match on Friday at noon CDT. The winner of that game will then face No. 1 Centre on Saturday at 11 a.m.

Rhodes beat Centre 2-1 in overtime on the road to capture the SCAC Regular Season Title and the #1 in the upcoming conference tournament with a 7-1 conference record. The Lynx jumped out of the gates early scoring just under 2 minutes into play with Charlie Wagner scoring on a penalty corner on an assist from Lindsey Gurkovich. Rhodes held the lead until Centre tied the match late in the first half in a scramble around the cage. Both teams battled through the scoreless second half and 4 minutes of overtime play before Charlie Wagner ended the game the same way it was started with a penalty corner goal on an assist from Gurkovich. Meghan Cullen had 7 saves in goal to earn the win. Rhodes also had stellar performances by defenders Sara Sanders and Kristen Lee and forward Libby Jones. First year player Marie Mason stepped up big time in the game, playing 4 different positions and making an impact on play all over the field. The Lynx Saturday game at Transylvania was cancelled due to poor field conditions. Saturday at 11 am Rhodes (11-4) will face off against the winner of Hendrix and Sewanee in the SCAC Semifinal in Conway, Arkansas.

Sewanee lost 2-0 to DePauw on Saturday before falling to NAIA school Lindenwood on Sunday. On Sunday, Senior Clare Ashburn (Washington, D.C./Holton Arms) scored Sewanee’ tying goal Sunday against Lindenwood, but the host team got the eventual game-winner in the 26th minute before a scoreless second half. Sewanee is now 6-11 and 1-7 in the SCAC. The Tigers will play at the SCAC Championships next weekend.
