

First Annual Environmental Studies Symposium

DW Reynolds Room 13

Friday, April 13th

| Time | Topic | Presenter |
|------|--|---------------------|
| 2:15 | U.S. Hesitation towards Carbon Reduction Policies: Evaluation of Cap and Trade | Sarah Bullock |
| 2:45 | Sustainable Preservation: The Implementation of Sustainability and Green Building Practices into Historic Preservation | Francys J. Derrick |
| 3:15 | Cell Phone Recycling and its Implications for Environmental and Public Health | Ellen Waggoner |
| 4:00 | Biomimicry for the Built Environment: What Would Nature Do? | Karl Heinbockel |
| 4:30 | Food Justice: Examining Industrial Food and Exploring Sustainable Food Systems Through Grassroots Movements | Eva Englert |
| 5:00 | From Greed to Green: Sustainable Buildings for a Sustainable Future | Amethyst R. Schmued |

Friday, April 20th

| Time | Topic | Presenter |
|------|--|----------------------|
| 2:15 | The Effect of the Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill on the Marine Ecosystems of the Gulf of New Mexico and How Existing and New Policy can Better Prepare Clean Up Efforts in an Event of Future Oil Pollution | Karrah Kehus |
| 2:45 | Conservation through Culture: Developing Holistic Conservation Strategies by Focusing on Community | Dana Rumph |
| 3:15 | Addressing the Public and Political Dilemmas for Invertebrate Conservation | Dillon Blankenship |
| 4:00 | Opportunity in a Changing Climate: Do the Most for Yourself and the World | Andrew Jameson Carty |
| 4:30 | Profit, Sustainability, and Reality: Making a Living as a Sustainable Meat Farmer | Gabe Levin |