"There should be at least one college as good as Hendrix in every state."

Loren Pope, former New York Times education editor

- #4 on the Princeton Review’s list of America’s Best Value Colleges
- 2005 recipient of the Arthur Vining Davis Foundations Award for Excellence
- only Arkansas college in top tier of U.S. News & World Report’s Guide to America’s Best Colleges
- a national leader in a distinctive form of engaged liberal arts and sciences education
- Your Hendrix Odyssey: Engaging in Active Learning, a new curriculum component that blends critical thought with action
- implementing a 10-year master plan that includes constructing a 100,000 square-foot Wellness and Athletics Center and playing fields, building a new Campus Center, and developing The Village at Hendrix, a residential and retail area

Making the lists. Making a difference.
