I Want You As a Summer Worker

Summer 2005

The Office of Admission seeks applications from current students interested in summer employment. The primary duties include but are not limited to serving as a campus tour guide and host to prospective students and families and general office duties such as mailings and phoning.

Interested students must possess the following skills:

- Excellent communication skills, interpersonal skills, and attention to detail
- Ability to accurately assist with data entry, mailings, and assigned projects
- Willingness to work as a friendly, productive office assistant

Please submit cover letter, resume, and names/contact information for two references by March 25 to:

Chassie Jones, Office of Admission (Ellis Hall)
Any questions, please contact Chassie at 450.1362.

Come for drinks & cookies too!
How do you make the invisible visible?
You take it away.

What would happen if you woke up and all of the Hispanics in the state of California were suddenly, magically gone? Why would they leave? Were they abducted by UFOs? Or maybe, it’s the rapture and they are the chosen ones? What happens to those left behind?

Come see the movie and be part of the discussion!

Take a study break!
Refreshments will be served!

When: Tuesday, March 29, at 7:00 p.m.
Where: Murphy Seminar Room

Sponsored by the Hendrix-Murphy Foundation
