“The boom box on my shoulder was a box of Clementines
I ate every single one without noticing the mold
You said ou’re gross my darling, I said no I’m rock and roll”

-Kimya Dawson

The first robot jockey has been built and tested earlier this week in the state’s capitol, Abu Dhabi. This means that robots could be produced and ready to use by next August, in time for the next camel racing season.

According to the daily Gulf News, “The mechanical jockey is light in weight and receives orders from the instructor via a remote control system fixed on the back of the camel”.

Pauline Charton, the Executive Director of the Arkansas branch of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill, will be speaking at Hendrix College on April 14. The event will be at 7 p.m. in room 10 of the D.W. Reynolds Building, and refreshments will be provided. Mrs. Charton will be speaking about her involvement with NAMI and their mission of improving the lives of people with severe mental illness, their families, and their communities. The diagnosis of her son’s schizophrenia led to her participation in this organization’s efforts, and offers her a unique perspective on mental illness. Mrs. Charton has dedicated several years of her life to educating the general public about the plight of the mentally ill. This is a great opportunity to learn about her story and how to become involved in this remarkable organization.

Sponsored by the Psychology Club and AED.

RETURNING TO HENDRIX FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE A FEBRUARY 2002 CONCERT

HUMP NIGHT PRESENTS:

PETER MAYER

Wednesday, April 13th 9:00pm in The Burrow

“Peter Mayer writes songs for a small planet—songs about interconnectedness and the human journey; songs about the beauty and the mystery of the world. Whimsical, humorous, and profound, his music takes you up mountains, across oceans, into space, and back home again.”

I am enough of an artist to draw freely upon my imagination.
Imagination is more important than knowledge
Knowledge is limited.
Imagination can encircle the world.
