A lot of folks are still demanding more evidence before they actually consider Iraq a threat. For example, France wants more evidence. And you know I’m thinking, the last time France wanted more evidence they rolled right through Paris with the German flag.

I wrote a letter to my dad - I wrote, "I really enjoy being here," but I accidentally wrote rarely instead of really. But I still wanted to use it so I crossed it out and wrote, "I rarely drive steamboats, dad - there's a lot of shit you don't know about me. Quit trying to act like I'm a steamboat operator." This letter took a harsh turn right away...

At my hotel room my friend came over and asked to use the phone. I said, “Certainly.” He said, “Do I have to dial 9?” I said, “Yeah. Especially if it is in the number. You can try four and five back to back real quick.”

Freshers! Be cool - volunteer for SEC!

See how much cooler you’ll be if you do.
1. Impress your peers and your parents in one brilliant move by getting involved on campus (you’ll seem responsible, involved, and enthusiastic)
2. You can be the face of Hendrix for visitors and prospective students (yeah, you know you look good)
3. Learn more about Hendrix (collect some impressive facts to pull out at parties)
4. Sleepovers!
5. Get a billion dollars! (Okay, that might be a lie)

The Admission Office is asking for volunteers for the Student Enrollment Council. Students on the SEC will host prospective students overnight on visits. Interested? Keep a look out for flyers with more information coming soon, or call Tyler Vodehnal in the Admission office at 450-1362.
